"Respectfully secueth,

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed profecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be differninated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom, render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkings and obscurity, owing to a carelessness, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in these radiages, being called off from their downestic concerns to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transsmitted to eur days? Time, that defirogs every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost in-estimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their affistance in transmitting to posserity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

JAMES ROSS,

In the distribution of the route, the grea is not regularly entered, and for which an infurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the diffribution of the route, the greatest care has bren taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates. The stages are well equipped furnished with steet and sleadyhorses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no fort of chicanery or insolence is practifed upon them; in nery or infolence is practifed upon them; in thort, they have spared neither pains nor expense to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemenhave gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been faid of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviou, of their drivers, and the treatment at Tavernsr spokes of with the highest satisfaction.
