IN all countries, the proceedings in the com mencencest of their governments, are lost in dark ners and obfeurity, owing to a carelelanefs, in the nefs and obfeurity; owing to a carelelanefs, in the fucceeding generation, to preferve the public re-eards, and the attention of the nation, in thefe rule ages, being called off-root their domefic concerns, to engage in wars and conqueft. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been tranfmitted to our days? Time, that defroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenti-cited public records, and renders them almost in-effimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, there-fore, chearfully contribute their affiftance in tranf-mitting to pofferity the labours of their anceltors -founders of the Columbian nation.
