IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessies, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in these rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their affishance in transfering to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

The MEMORIAL of the Subscribers, Citizens, &c. of Philadelphia,
Respectfully st. envets,

Refpedfully Leweth,

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed prosecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom, render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable kim to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.
