Philadelphia, August 24, 1799.

THE Public are requested to take notice that the Post-Office will be removed to Market Street the fourth house above Eleventh Street, on the north side of the way, this afternoon at half past six o'clock, where merchants and others are requested to send for their letters, &c. as the Letter Carriers will not during the present calamity carry letters out after that time.

SPECULATION.

TO BE SOLD,

AT Public Vendue, on Monday the 23d of September next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. at the house of the Subscriber, living in the town of New-Castle, State of Delaware, a number of valuable situate for building on, being the South square of the flourishing town of New-Castle aforesaid, distant from Philadelphia thirty-three miles.

This valuable property is highly capable of improvement, being immediately on the river Delaware, having a number of wharf lots on it; and from the depth of the water (earth and materials for wharfing being easily procured) there is no doubt but wharves would bring a handsome interest.

This property consists of five acres more or less, in one body; lays high, and is divided into lots to suit every description of persons. New-Castle is one of the most healthy and flourishing towns on the continent; and from the increase of trade it has raised property to four times the value it was seven years past. The number of vessels bound out and in, which stop for supplies of flock, &c. &c. and the whole carriage of goods between Philadelphia and Baltimore, is now through this place. The packets and flages from the aforesaid cities, &c. &c. make it very lively: there is not, at this time, one house to be rented in the place; and the number of applications for houses make it an object for persons to improve. There are a number of elegant and useful buildings now going on; a Public Academy and several private schools. The malignant Fever has never made any progress, and the Ague scarcely known; the number of children in this place is a convincing proof of the healthiness of it. The prospect of the river Delaware, up and down is delightful; as far as the eye can distinguish you may view the vessels in different attitudes. There is reason to suppose that public piers for the Navy will be built here, as vessels can sail from this place when the river is fast at Philadelphia.

The conditions of sale will be easy and made known on the day of sale. Places of public worship, market and mills are very contiguous.

JOHN DARRAG.

N. B.—A plat of the above will be exhibited any time previous, as well as on the day of sale.

ELECTION.

The friends to the Election of JAMES ROSS, as Governor, residing in the Townships of Blockley and Kingsessing, are requested to meet at George Weed's lower Bridge on Schuylkill, on Saturday, 21st August, at 3 o'clock, to take into consideration the most proper steps in support of his Election.

Blockley, August 23, 1799.

THE subscribers, members of the Grand Inquest of the county of Chester, having attentively and deliberately considered the relative merits of the two persons now in nomination for Governor, to succeed the present, do not hesitate in pledging themselves to support JAMES ROSS, of Pittsburgh, at the ensuing election for office, inasmuch as he has always, with that consistency which exclusively appertains to the friends of America, advocated her rights in spite of all the menaces and calumnies of foreign emissaries or domestic traitors; that his mind has been superior to the popular clamours of the moment steadily pursuing the interests of the people without being of this party to-day, and the other to-morrow, as popular prejudice might seem to vibrate; and as there will be a vacancy in the Senate of Pennsylvania, at the ensuing election, for a Senator, from the district composed of the counties of Chester, Montgomery and Bucks, we do recommend, as our choice, and are determined to support ZEBULON POTTS, Esq. for said office.

DENNIS WHELEN, foreman. Thomas Stalker, Francis Gardner, John Frick, Joseph Sharp, John Marshall, James Whelen, Phillip Scott, Thomas Morris, John Pugh, H. Downing, John Hughs, Levy Woodrow, James M. Gibbons, Abram Sparbles, James Batten, August 26th, 1799.

L O N D O N .

From the London Chronicle, of June 13.

The first victory of the Imperial army, under Field Marshal Suwarrow was on the 15th ultimo. celebrated at Peterburgh by a solemn Te Deum. On this occasion the Emperor gave a signal mark of honour to that brave officer, by ordering Suwarrow's name to be mentioned in the prayer of thanksgiving. Never has so much honour been shown to the chief of an army. Prayers were offered up to God to bless the arms of the combined armies and Field Marshal Suwarrow, who commands them. Divine service being over, the son of the Field Marshal, a youth of 16, charmed with the honour done to his father, waited upon the Emperor, embraced his knees, and thanked him with the most heartfelt emotion. The Monarch, charmed with the sentiments of this youth, asked him, if he should not like to travel to his father? "It is the most fervent of my wishes," joyfully replied the youth. "Then depart," continued the Emperor, "you appear to be worthy of such a father." This young nobleman actually set out for Italy on the 27th ult.

Extract of a letter from Plymouth, June 10.

"Yesterday evening arrived in the found, a very handsome French privateer, called the Venus, of Rochelle, pierced for 18 guns, but having only 14 mounted, with 102 men, captured the 31st ult. off Cape Finistere, by his Majesty's ship Indefatigable of 38 guns, hon. capt. Curzon; she is quite new, on her first cruise, and had been from Rochelle about six weeks, in which time she captured four neutral vessels, and the Clarence schooner, of London, bound from Lisbon to London, laden with rum, and other merchandize."

Other symptoms of Commotion in France

Paris, according to accounts received during the week through various channels of high respectability, to which much credit is attached, is in a state of serious agitation and ferment. The Anti-Directorial party has acquired strength and confidence from the recent disasters sustained by the army of Republic in Italy and on the Rhine. The advocates of Government demand that the people await with patience the operations of their Fleet, from which some splendid achievement is promised; on the issue of this enterprise the existence of the present tyranny depends. Defectors from the army in great numbers flock to all parts of the Republic, and carry with them terror and dismay. To palliate their desertion, they represent the situation of affairs more desperate than it is; and the silence of the Government giving a degree of warranty to their statements, a general panic pervades the country to such extent, in fact, that early in the present month it was generally believed in Paris, that the entire of Italy was in the hands of the Allies. We trust, the persevering gallantry of the Imperialists will shortly realize those fears, and give tranquility to Europe.

Of the Interior of the Batavian Republic.

A Gentleman recently arrived in London from Holland represents the situation of that country as being deplorable almost beyond conception. After innumerable and grievous exactions, a duty was some time since imposed on capital, at the rate of one penny in eighty; this was succeeded in the course of two months by another at a still higher ratio; income was then subjected to a tax of 51 per cent, and soon after to another of 101 per cent. These duties are enforced with rigor, and the produce, or the greater part of it, is sent to France. Agriculture is neglected, the dykes are in decay, trade and manufactures almost wholly suspended, and commerce totally annihilated. The superior orders, and in truth, the great majority of the people, are anxious for the restoration of the Stadtholderate, being thoroughly sickened of Gallic fraternity and liberty.

The Brig Maria, Morrison, from New York for La Vera Cruz, detained by H. M. S. Arab, was last night, while in the offing, carried off by the Master and Crew, and has not since been heard of. A Lieutenant and a party of Seamen from the Arab, with a Negro Pilot, were on board.

PHILADELPHIA,

WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 23.

THOSE Citizens who have removed with their families from the city, and those who are about removing, are earnestly requested to adopt immediate measures to have their Fire-Buckets deposited either at the City Hall, the old Court House corner of Market and Second streets, or in the new building at the South end of Second street market adjoining South street; and in case of fire, a person will be employed to collect and return them to the above places. It certainly is unnecessary to state the extreme danger the city will be exposed to, should a fire take place when the inhabitants are chiefly fled and their Buckets not to be obtained. Particular attention should be likewise paid that no domestic animals or putrefying substances of any kind be locked up in the houses or yards of those who have removed or are about to remove.

ROBERT WARTON, Mayor.

The printers will oblige the public by inserting the above recommendation in their papers for few times.

A correspondent suggests to the Board of Health the propriety of directing the Drivers of the sick-carriages to proceed with the sick on their way to the Hospital directly along one street at least 45 ft. as far as Broad street. They are in the habit of making one or two streets the thoroughfare for the passage of all the sick; a practice which is not only particularly distressing to the inhabitants of those streets; but subjects them to an unequal risk.

Mr. Fenno,

THERE is a whining, drivelling fellow near me in Frons-street, who is incessantly wailing about his "respectability", as an old Bawd about her honesty. This animal's merit and dignity of character, are, it seems, so exalted and paramount as to excite the general "ENVY" of mankind;—this Envy shewing itself towards the said Mr. Respectability, in the most "low and pitiful arts." As that must be rather an odd sort of "respectability", which is thus continually obliged to defend itself, (whether against the envy, or the just indignation of an insulted community, the public will determine) it may not be amiss to inform this pompous ideot, that his respectability or his contemptibility was probably never once taken into consideration by the Board of Health, and that the "low and pitiful arts" of which he accuses them, extended no farther than to the publication of a statement, undeciphering the Public with regard to a gross imposition and falsehood impudently palmed upon them.

As the evidences of the Imposition are before the Public, they are left without animadversion to form their own opinion upon the vulgar scurrility and stupid abuse heaped upon a meritorious Public body, who are daily exposing their lives for the good of their fellow-citizens.
