Health-offices, 9th mo. 19th, 1799.

THE Board of Health resolve to permit all vessels that are healthy, after stopping at the Lazaretto to receive a visit from the resident physician, immediately to proceed to the city, after the last of this month.

By order of the Board. EDWARD GARRIGUES, President.

Contemptible come off.

Mr. McKean was lately told at table, that the people of Carlisle had once burned him in effigy. He waxed warm, and at length observed, that Gen. Washington and all the great men had been hung in effigy, in every State in the Union.

Cardinal Chigi was esteemed to have a weak mind, because he had boasted of writing three years with the same pen. How much more frivolous an act was that of a Chief Justice sending across the Atlantic for a wig!

What would Lord Mansfield think of a Judge, who walked arm in arm with the Cryer of the Court? This happened at Sunbury. The Cryer accosted him, on his alighting, with "How does your Honor do?" This was pleasing: "I hear your Honor's to be made Governor." The Chief straightway enquires after the health of the Cryer's family; and is shortly seen walking about the Court House in close confabulation with him.

The "Poor Man's Enemy" professes to be the advocate of Liberty, Equality, and the Rights of Man. The same enemy of the poor publicly opposes the Emancipation of the Negroes.

It is something novel, even in the annals of Democratic impudence, to behold a man aspiring to the government of those whom he wished, "from the bottom of his heart," to see invaded by Twenty Thousand United Irishmen, and Twenty Thousand French Sansculottes!

FRANCE, convulsed and agonized by the strong poisons of political poison, professed by an abominable government, and blindly taken for several successive years, is now in the last stage of dissolution. With her, we sincerely hope, will expire the rage of revolution, the horrors of war, and that rapacious and murderous system of abuse which has stained the four quarters of the globe with human gore.

Perhaps the page of history cannot exhibit so detestable a picture of the depravity of human nature, as has been delineated in France, since the commencement of the present revolution. The most solemn treaties have been violated, national honor treated with contempt, and every species of excess committed on the lives and property of those who have, unhappily, been subjected to their power. The tear of sensibility has started from ten thousand eyes, and the feeble prayers of the widow and the orphan have ascended to heaven, in judgment against the inhuman policy of this barbarous nation.

[F. Russell's Gaz.]

It will be remembered, that the Board of Commissioners on British claims, sitting at Philadelphia, ceased their functions without going through the business—since which, the Commissioners on American claims, sitting in London, have also discontinued their business. While we regret this difference between two friendly powers, we cannot think, but that an accommodation will speedily take place. It should be the policy, as it is unquestionably the interest of both nations, to be just and magnanimous to each other.

A letter from Thomas Auldjo, Esq. dated Gowes, 14th July, has the following paragraph, which we insert for the information of our commercial friends, viz.—"in the Almanacks, &c. printed in America, I am in the list of Consuls put down as resident at Poole, which misleads American captains. My residence is at Cowes. My commission is for Poole, Cowes, and such ports as are nearer my residence than that of any other Consul."

A paragraph in the Ami des Loix, gives the following account of the state of Holland:

"A part of the corn which we furnished to Holland has passed into England. The Dutch government has secret relations with our enemies, and is to facilitate the descent projected by Pitt, with 40,000

Russian and English troops, to replace the Stadholder. Mr. Dundas has just proposed to the House of Commons to reduce the militia and augment the regulars, in order to carry, he said very explicitly, offensive war among the allies of France. This can only relate to Holland; it is the present government of Holland which has sent arms, powder, and money to the Rebels in Belgium. The Batavian Patriots, who alone could have opposed this infamous treason, have been imprisoned by order of T—P—P. Their liberation has been solicited in vain—they are no longer in condition to pay the price annexed to it.

"Temperance and moderation are, at least as frequent among those whom we call superior, as they are among the lower classes of men; and however we may affix the character of sobriety to mere cheapness of diet, and other accommodations with which any particular age, or rank of men, appears to be contented, it is well known, that costly materials are not necessary to constitute a debauch, nor profligacy less frequent under the thatched roof than under the lofty ceiling. Men grow equally familiar with different conditions, receive equal pleasure, and are equally allured to sensuality in the Palace and in the Cave. Their acquiring in either habits of intemperance or sloth depends on the remission of their pursuits, and on the distaste of the mind to other engagements, if the affections of the heart be kindled, the costly furniture of the Palace, as well as the homely accommodations of the Cottage, are neglected; and men, when aroused, reject their repose; or, when fatigued, embrace it alike on the silken bed, or on the couch of straw."

By the arrival at New-York, of the schooner Two Sisters, 15 days from Port de Paix.

On the 8th August arrived here the sloop Sally and Kitty, of Philadelphia, Edmond Glover, master, who sailed July 7 from Cape Henlopen, bound to La Guira; on the 10th inst. sprung a leak; on the 14th carried away the partners of his mast—leak still increasing, split up three planks of her deck by her mast; being loose and no possibility of confining it, expended her cables round her mast head, as shrouds and stays to support her mast; nailed blanket with boards over her deck to prevent her filling. The leak increased to that degree, that with pumps going and constantly bailing, the feverish times got the water a foot deep on cabin platform: was at length obliged to bear away before the wind under balance main-sail and head of jib. In that condition, was half full of water, relieved by boats August 3d, and carried to anchor at St. Louis, Hispaniola; there finding the most of his cargo ruined that was perishable, landed a part, which enabled him to proceed to Port de Paix, where he arrived August 8.

The above was taken from sloop Sally and Kitty's log book. The situation of the vessel and cargo being examined by all the masters of the vessels in port was found truly distressing, and the people extremely fatigued by pumping.

FRANKFORT August 22.

The convention having finished the business for which it was called, rose on Saturday last. The constitution is now printed and ready for delivery.

By a gentleman who arrived in town last evening, we are informed, that those villains who broke the Danford jail, (the HARPS) have added two more murders to the black catalogue of their crimes, since our accounts of last week, they went into a house belonging to a Mr. Graves, killed him and his son, and took their bodies from the house, and threw them over the fence in some weeds, where they were found two or three days after, by the smell.

Guard of Freedom.

Three men were killed about 12 days since by the Indians on the post road up the Ohio river, between Muskrat gum and Scioto; this information is said to be brought by the post who saw two of the bodies scalped.

A gentleman who arrived in town yesterday from Bourbon, says, accounts were just received there, that the Indians had killed upwards 300 people on Mad river; what degree of credibility is due to this account we cannot say, as we did not see the gentleman, and do not know from what source the report came to Bourbon.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 3.

The found of Peace, Peace, and no War with the Indians, echoes throughout the whole territory—the frightened frontiers have quit their forts and returned to their cottages—Major Ludlow has returned from running the Indian boundary line, who says the Indians did not forbid him running the line, that when he spoke to them, he received no satisfactory answer, that they appeared in great confusion, and talked a great deal about the Chickasaws—in short, it appears from a strict enquiry, that the chief of the Indian news which has been imposed on the printers, has been fabricated by a CLARK or some designing person.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 7.

FROM CORRESPONDENTS. We have accounts from Washington county, from a much better and purer source than the Herald of Liberty, that Mr. Rofs will, at least, divide the votes there, with his opponent—and, it is expected that before the election, those citizens who are at present led astray by the falsehoods circulated with great industry, will be convinced that it is for their interest, and the interest of the state, to elect James Rofs, Governor, and keep down the man who suffered his daughter to renounce her religion, in order to form a connection with a Spanish nobleman.

Tench Coxe and Col. Hill continue their abuse against Mr. Rofs and his friends—this abuse is retailed out for the edification of the people of this country, in two Jacobin papers, printed at Washington and Greenburgh; but Tench will miss his aim—The citizens of the Western Country will put no belief in what a man says, who in the hour of danger, when the black clouds of despair were fast gathering around us, deserted his country, and became a pilot to those who were seeking its downfall. It is a bad sign, when such characters as Tench Coxe come forward to recommend and support a cause.

It is said, that, if the father-in-law of the Spanish minister is elected Governor, Tench Coxe, the Pilot of lord Howe and his army into Philadelphia, is to be the Secretary of State. If we judge from his former conduct, he will be a proper tool in the hands of the enemies of our government, of any dark and infamous plot, they may wish to pursue against the liberties of the people.

September 14.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in New-Orleans to his friend in this place, dated July 23, 1799.

"The yellow fever rages here to a very alarming degree—Governor Gayoso died of it a few days ago; he is greatly lamented. "No market for American produce."

BALTIMORE, September 17.

Captain Butler, arrived yesterday from Port Republican, informs, that the war-between Toussaint and Rigaud is purified with the utmost severity—that each has offered a premium for the head of the other—that Toussaint has 9000 men surrounding the Mole, intending to take it by storm—that privateers cruise against the vessels of each partizan adherents, who never give quarters—that Toussaint put 200 mulattoes to death who were surprised by one of his scouting parties—and that a war of extermination appears to be the order of the day in that devoted island.

September 18.

Surrender of Surinam.

By captain Lang, arrived this day, we have accounts that the British took peaceable possession of Surinam about the 24th of August. We have, as yet, heard of no new laws imposed on the inhabitants or commerce of the place.

While the Isabella was saluting the fort this morning, one of her seamen had an arm unfortunately blown off.

NEW-YORK, September 19.

Six deaths were reported at the Health Office at 12 o'clock, for the 24 hours ending yesterday at 12 o'clock.

The ship Grand Turk, Captain Brownie of and for New-York; from the Bay of Honduras, is lost on a coral rock on Murda's Key. The crew are saved, and part of the cargo.

The sloop Almira, Curwin, passed by this city yesterday, on her way to Boston and Portsmouth, with guns for the United States ship of war Congress, and the moulds for two 74's one to be built at Portsmouth, and the other at Boston.

By the Schooner Jupiter, Nelson, from N. Providence, we have received a file of the Bahama Gazette to the 1st September, in which we find many interesting articles.—We particularly notice the following:

NASSAU, August 16.

This day the ship Diana and cargo, of New-York, lately brought in here by H. M. S. La Volage, capt. Parker, were condemned as lawful prize to the captors; it appearing that both were enemy's property.

A Spanish Polacre from Cadiz for La Vera Cruz, Priz: to H. M. S. Meleagar, Capt. Ogle, arrived here to day.

This Vessel was one of a Fleet of Seventeen Sail, which left Cadiz early in May, and was taken on the 3d of last month in the Bay of Campeachy. The Meleagar had several more of them, and ordered them for Jamaica, whither this one was also destined; but being out of provisions, put in here.

An American Schooner called the Paragon, from New-Orleans, detained by the privateer Two Brothers, Bethell, also arrived here to day.

Monday evening arrived at Port-Royal His Majesty's ship Echo, Capt. Allen, from a cruise, with the French ship Le Amazon, of 10 guns, and 60 men, laden with coffee and sugar, from Jacmel bound to Bourdeaux, her prize.

Last night John Stiles, Esq returned in a cartel vessel from Havana. On the passage hence to the Havana, the cartel was boarded by a boat from the Amphion frigate, and the dispatches for the Spanish Government were broke open and examined, in defiance of every remonstrance. This extraordinary procedure excited much surprize at the Havana, where it was with diffidence credited. The dispatches from the Gov. of Cuba in answer, were put on board unsealed, as he said it was now proved that a seal neither afforded security, nor insured respect.

The people of Havana are said to be extremely apprehensive of a British invasion taking place in the course of the approaching Winter.

A road of two perches, leading from the Falls road, at the top of the Robin Hood hill, runs east through this land, and gives an easy access to the whole, which will be divided into lots of 7 to 10 acres, to suit the purchasers. The number of beautiful sites in this land, its healthy situation and pleasant neighbourhood, will no doubt attract the attention of the public. The whole now lays open, and a plot of it may be seen at the Robin Hood tavern after the 20th inst. The terms will be made known at the time of sale.

CONNELLY & Co. Auctioneers. September 14. dt.

Valuable Property for Sale.

ON FRIDAY, The 20th of September next, at 10 o'clock, in the forenoon,

Will be sold, on the premises, in Springfield and Upper Dublin townships, Montgomery county, About 13 miles from Philadelphia, one and a half miles from Flour town, and the same distance from White Marsh tavern,

One Tract, containing fifty acres, &

FRONTING on a public road, leading from the old York road to White Marsh, North Wales, &c. It is handsomely situated for a Summer's Retreat, and well calculated for a Farm's good soil, healthy situation, and abundantly supplied with limestone, of the first quality. The conditions of sale will be one third cash, one third payable in six, and the other third in twelve months, with interest and such satisfactory security as may be required. It will either be sold entire, or divided in two or three lots.

Fifty acres of choice timber land, consisting chiefly of young chestnut, nearly opposite to the above, in lots of 2 and 3 acres each, for convenience of purchasers;—the intrinsic value of chestnut timber, is so well known to every farmer that it is unnecessary particularly to describe it. Also, a small lot of one and three quarters acres nearly adjoining, but distinct from the above. Conditions of sale will be one half cash and the other half in six months, with interest and security as before mentioned.

Persons desirous of viewing the lots previous to the day of sale, may find a Plot of the whole as divided, at the house of Charles Reiboffer, on the adjoining premises, who will attend and shew the property.

To be sold as part of the estate of Caleb Emlen, deceased, by JAMES VAUX, Attorney in fact to Mary Emlen, CHARLES PLEASANTS, sole Executor. August 17. w&f&az&aw&ts&co

SPECULATION.

TO BE SOLD, AT Public Vendue, on Monday the 23d of September next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. at the house of the Subscriber, living in the town of New-Castle, State of Delaware, a number of valuable suitable for building on, being the South square of the flourishing town of New-Castle aforesaid, distant from Philadelphia thirty-three miles.

This valuable property is highly capable of improvement, being immediately on the river Delaware, having a number of wharf lots on it; and from the depth of the water (earth and materials for wharfing being easily procured) there is no doubt but wharves would bring a handsome interest.

This property consists of five acres more or less, in one body; lays high, and is divided into lots to suit every description of persons.—New-Castle is one of the most healthy and flourishing towns on the continent; and from their increase of trade it has raised property to four times the value it was several years past.—The number of vessels bound out and in, which stop for supplies of flock, &c. &c. and the whole carriage of goods between Philadelphia and Baltimore, is now through this place. The packets and stages from the aforesaid cities, &c. &c. make it very lively; there is not, at this time, one house to be rented in the place; and the number of applications for houses make it an object for persons to improve. There are a number of elegant and useful buildings now going on, a Public Academy and several private Schools.—The malignant Fever has never made any progress, and the Ague scarcely known; the number of children in this place is a convincing proof of the healthiness of it. The prospect of the river Delaware, up and down is delightful; as far as the eye can distinguish you may view the vessels in different attitudes. There is reason to suppose that public piers for the Navy will be built here, as vessels can sail from this place when the river is fast at Philadelphia.

The conditions of sale will be easy and made known on the day of sale. Pieces of public worship, market and mills are very contiguous.

JOHN DARRAGH.

N. B.—A plot of the above will be exhibited any time previous, as well as on the day of sale. August 26. 201M.
