

Foreign Intelligence.

VIENNA, July 17.

Field Marshal Kray writes under the 10th instant, that Field Marshal Ott on the 9th, after a severe bombardment of three hours, took the fort of Urbano, in Bologna.

Within these few days, two Spanish couriers have arrived here: one is from the Spanish minister at Paris, chevalier Agaza, and it is said that he brings proposals for peace.

HAMBURG, July 23.

By a particular opportunity we have received letters from Copenhagen, of the 19th inst. which mention that the preceding day 20 English ships of the line of 64 and 74 guns, arrived at Elsinor; they are to go to Revel in order to take Russian troops on board.

From Stockholm we hear that the Duke of East Gothia, who was dangerously ill, is perfectly recovered.

It is reported here that the king of Prussia means to extend the line of demarcation.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 25.

At the recapture of Jaffa (formerly called Joppa) a number of French officers fell into the hands of Ghezar Pacha and commodore Sir Sidney Smith. Buonaparte, who has but few troops left, is closely pursued by them, and it is expected that the war against him will soon be at an end.

It is this day reported here, that the Egyptian Pacha Murat Bey, has entered Cairo.

On the 22d inst. two Russian ships of line arrived here; they are looked upon as the van of the Russian fleet, which is expected from the Black Sea with troops.

AOSTA, June 30.

A French corps posted on the mountain called the little St. Benard, attempted yesterday to surprise the corps under the command of the Prince de Rohan; but they were repulsed with the loss of some hundred killed, wounded and taken prisoners. The mountain is now occupied by the Imperialists, who likewise took some cannon.

LONDON, July 30.

French counter-revolutionary plan.

The Mercury of Europe (Hamburg paper) under the head of Paris, has an article bearing the following title, and which is said to be in general circulation through France: "PROPOSITIONS."

Which are already popular, and are daily becoming more and more so, here;

1. The re-establishment of monarchy in France, on rational terms.

2. The king shall grant a general amnesty, without any exceptions or exemptions whatever.

3. Property which, according to the existing laws of the Republic, has been legally acquired, and is now legally held, shall be respected as legal property.

4. Such of the army who shall join the standard of the King, shall be continued in their respective ranks, advancements, and pay.

5. The king shall renounce all claim on territorial acquisitions of the republic; and the king as well as the powers at war with the republic, shall solemnly guarantee the integrity of ancient France, and shall proclaim a general peace.

6. Every species of vassalage, tithes, corvees, forage, or bound service, and all other contributions in kind, shall be forever abolished.

7. The impositions or revenues necessary for maintaining the government, shall be raised upon the produce of the fixed and moveable property of the state, without any exceptions or exemptions whatever.

8. The French people shall all be governed by the same publicly defined and determined laws, both civil and municipal.

9. Honesty and capacity shall be the criterion whereby the public functions in the state shall be filled.

10. When these preliminaries are agreed upon the king shall invite the French nation to elect or nominate, from among their sage and discreet men, a representative body, to meet the king at such part or place, in ancient France, as the king may point out, there to consult with him and assist him with their wisdom; to arrange, draw up, and settle a national code or charter, whereby the French people shall be governed, upon the before stated principles.

The members of the present republican government, or other functionaries of the Republic, being otherwise qualified, shall be eligible to fit in the representative body.

EDINBURGH, July 31.

A letter from a gentleman in Lerwick to his friend in Leith, of date 25th July, says, "You will have heard of the capture of the Elizabeth and another vessel from Leith to Lerwick, which occasion a very great loss to every person in Lerwick. We have also lost in the same way, two vessels from Liverpool with salt for the fishery, which cannot now be replaced. There is only salt sufficient for the week, and if no supply arrives, the fishing for the subsequent weeks will be lost. The crop is far on here, and the fishing more abundant. We have seen French prisoners here; five were taken in a ship from Hamburg, bound to Liverpool; the had been taken by a privateer who put six men on board to navigate her to Bergen, and when within 15 leagues of that port, the mate, and a black man who had been left on board, attacked the six Frenchmen, and after killing the prize-matter, and wounding one of the prisoners now here, in a combat which lasted 20 minutes, the Frenchmen surrendered to these two men, who steered immediately for this island; the mate's name is Clarkson, and ship's name Latona of Liverpool."

A shower of herrings! On the 20th instant, a great quantity of young herrings fell, during a very heavy shower of rain, in a field near Whithorn, about three miles from the sea! It is supposed they were taken up by a water spout!

THE Court for the appointment of Guardians of the Poor for the ensuing year, met this day according to law, at the City Hall, in the city of Philadelphia, but a sufficient number of county magistrates not appearing, and the new members of the Board of Guardians returned to serve, not being present, the Mayor, Aldermen and Justice Wheeler, adjourned the Court to the Alms-house, in the city of Philadelphia, at eleven o'clock the same day; when being assembled, together with ten members of the old Board of Guardians, including four members of the old Board of Managers, of the Alms-house, and none of the new members appearing, it was thought advisable to adjourn the Court to Monday the eleventh day of November next ensuing, then to meet at the City Hall, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to which time and place the said Court is adjourned, of which all persons concerned are to take notice.

ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor, JOHN JENNINGS, } Alder- MICHAEL HILLEGAS, } men. SAMUEL WHEELER, one of the Justices of the Peace for the county of Philadelphia. t211N.

To BOTANISTS, GARDENERS and FLORISTS.

AND to all other ladies and gentlemen, curious in ornamental, rare exotic or foreign plants and flowers, cultivated in the green house, hot house, or stove, and in the open ground—A large and numerous variety of such rarities is now offered for sale, being the acquirement of many years earnest application, great assiduity, and considerable expense.

The present proprietor having, from the natural growth and successful increase of his plants, as well as from frequent other acquisitions and additions to his collection, so far increased it as to render the allotted apartments not sufficiently large and commodious, is induced to make this offer, or sacrifice. After reserving a general and suitable stock, he has to spare a well assorted and great variety of those things, comprising a beautiful collection, sufficient to decorate, furnish, and ornament a spacious or handsome green-house at once. The whole collection, for that department, will be sold on very moderate and easy terms; or the proprietor may be induced to divide it into two equal lots; but he does not on any account intend to allow them to be selected or culled out by separately selling single plants or small lots in any thing like a retail way.

The whole is a truly valuable collection, such as is very rarely to be met with for sale on this side the Atlantic—indeed a moiety of them would comprise a very desirable and extensive variety, consisting of many or most of the tropical fruits, and other rare and curious finely ornamental trees, shrubs, and plants, with a numerous and abundant assortment of choice bulbous, tuberous, and fibrous rooted flowering and ornamental plants in mixtures; all of good or superior kinds, as may be seen by the catalogue. For which, and for any further necessary information, please to apply to John Cummings, at the Alms-house, Messrs. David and Catherine Landrich, gardeners and nursery-men, in High-street, above Twelfth-street, Philadelphia, Mr. William Booth, in the same line of business, Baltimore, or Mr. David Williamson, Greenwich-street, New-York.

N. B. It is now a good time and proper season to build a green-house, and to remove plants. Sept. 24. dtf.

One Thousand Five Hundred DOLLARS

WAS delivered to the POSTMASTER here, in the POST-OFFICE, on the evening of Tuesday the 27th ult. in a LETTER directed to Mr. John Mills, Merchant, BALTIMORE, containing two ALEXANDRIA BANK NOTES, No. 4320, in favour of William Taylor, and dated 30th April, 1798, for ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, and No. 4522, in favour of John P. Pleasants, and dated the 10th of December, 1798, for FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, which letter has been SUPPRESSED in a POST-OFFICE, and the BANK NOTES taken out—as the PUBLIC MAIL was NOT STOPPED, MOLESTED, or ROBBED.

Bankers and merchants are particularly requested to watch the circulation of said notes, and stop them; and any person giving such information as will lead us to our money, shall have FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS reward.

WILSON & SWANN, Fredericksburg, (Virg.) Sept. 10.

All Printers in the United States, are requested to publish the above, and we will pay them.

SPECULATION. TO BE SOLD, AT Public Vendue, on Monday the 23d of September next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. at the house of the Subscriber, living in the town of New-Castle, State of Delaware, a number of valuable LOTS, suitable for building on, being the South square of the flourishing town of New-Castle aforesaid, distant from Philadelphia thirty-three miles.

This valuable property is highly capable of improvement, being immediately on the river Delaware, having a number of what lots on it; and from the depth of the water (earth and materials for wharfing being easily procured) there is no doubt but wharves would bring a handsome interest.

This property consists of five acres more or less, in one body; lays high, and is divided into lots to suit every description of persons.—New-Castle is one of the most healthy and flourishing towns on the continent; and from the increase of trade it has raised property to four times the value it was several years past.—The number of vessels bound out and in, which stop for supplies of food, &c. &c. and the whole carriage of goods between Philadelphia and Baltimore, is now through this place. The packets and stages from the aforesaid cities, &c. &c. make it very lively: there is not, at this time, one house to be rented in the place; and the number of applications for houses make it an object for persons to improve. There are a number of elegant and useful buildings now going on, a Public Academy and several private Schools. The malignant Fever has never made any progress, and the Ague scarcely known; the number of children in this place is a convincing proof of the healthiness of it. The prospect of the river Delaware, up and down is delightful; as far as the eye can distinguish you may view the vessels in different attitudes. There is reason to suppose that public piers for the Navy will be built here, as vessels can sail from this place when the river is fast at Philadelphia.

The conditions of sale will be easy and made known on the day of sale. Places of public worship, market and mills are very contiguous. JOHN DARRAGH, N. B.—A plat of the above will be exhibited any time previous, as well as on the day of sale. August 26. 801m.

Whereas the distressed situation of many of the inhabitants of the city of Philadelphia arising from the present calamity, requires immediate relief; and whereas, from the general absence of the freeholders, and other taxable inhabitants, it has become impracticable to continue the collection of the taxes appropriated for the support of the poor.

Therefore resolved, That Samuel Gatliff and Charles Pleasants shall be a committee from this Board, to negotiate a loan from either of the Banks in this city, amounting to ten thousand dollars, five thousand of which to be advanced immediately, and the other five thousand, when in the opinion of this Board it shall become necessary.

Morris be appointed to procure Nurses, and other proper attendants for them, and generally to superintend that part of the Encampment.

Resolved, That William Holdernese, William Preston, James Engle, and Matthew Vanduzen, Guardians of the Poor, in conjunction with Dr. Samuel P. Resolved, That Luke W. Morris be the Treasurer of the above committee, and that the money which may be borrowed from the Banks, agreeably to a resolution of this day, be lodged in his hands to defray the expenses of the above committee, and such as may be incurred in maintaining the orphan children at Masters' Place. d1w.
