[In introducing this celebrated work to the Gentlemen and Ladies of America, I have endeavored to give it a drela proportioned, to its diffinguished merit, and to the ta'e of those for whose amuse meet and delight it is intended. No expense has keen spared in the publication; and I statter myself that the work does not yield, either in paper or print, to any one ever published in America—

This edition has an advantage over some former ones, as it contains by way of notes, the minor productions of the author; and, it has an advantage over every other edition, in the Poetical Epistle, which is prefixed to it, and which must be extremely gratifying to every lover of literature in this country, as it is a proof that there are Americans who have the talle to admire, the justice to appland, and the talents to rival the Geniuses of other nations.

JOURNALS OF CONGRESS. Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,

The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat tipe, in large octave.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in fize, paper, and binding, will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscribers become possessed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to subscribers will be 2 dolls. 75 ets. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls, whole bound, but, as the publisher does not intend to print manmore thas the number subscribed for, a considerable rife on the price may be expected to non-suby

Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he caunot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.

Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subscribers will have it at their option, either to fuhscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are loft in darkness and of fearity, owing to a carelessness, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in those rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almoss in estimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their affishance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancesters—founders of the Columbian nation.

* The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show) the support it has already acquired:

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the fearcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed profecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully folicit, as the publication is necessary to be differninated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wissom render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.

The excellence of this road, the populous field and Newark.

The excellence of this road, the populous of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough Fare from Philadelphia to New York, During the present year, a minute furvey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is among the least of its advantages, because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in their respects, the New Road is, heyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so sating between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little use in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a confiderable proportion of shade, must always reader travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars. Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile. Each paffenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a paffenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation. They pledge themselves to make good every package on the solowing conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent, on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent, and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value. With respect to packages sent on withou ortion for packages of any other value.

portion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dissike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very explicitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt caunot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has bren taken to fix on such places and taverns as always assorted a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates. The stages are well equipped furnished with steet and steadyhorses, and committed to the care of intelligent lober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the tayerns, and that no fort of chicanery or insolence is practiced upon them; in nery or infolence is practifed upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expense to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been faid of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviou, of their drivers, and the treatment at Tavernar spoken of with the highest satisfaction.
