By the flort and pleafant road of Buffleten, Newtown Scotch Plains, Spring-field and Newark. THE excellence of this road, the populouf-nefs of the country through which it paff-es, with fundry other advantages, which render it fo far preferable to the Old Road through Briftol, Braufwick, &c. long ago fuggefted the propriety of its becoming the Grand Tho-rough-Eare from Philadelphia to New York. Daring the prefert year, a minute furvey of it has been taken, and its faperiority over the Old Road, both h winter and fummer, has been clearly aftertained.-There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the croffing is performed with great fafety and in lefs than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is froural miles forter than the old road, but this is among? the leaft of its advantages, becaufe daily expe-ience proves to us, that difpateb as well as com-fort in traveling principally depend on the goodnels of the read and the levelnefs of the doubley, and, in thefe reipeds, the New Road howark. Fare for passengers, Five Dollars. Way paffengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free ; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With refpect to packages fent on without paffengers, the proprietors prelime they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of flages, they think muft meet with general approbation, They pledge them-felves to make good every package on the fol-lowing conditions. The perfon who delivers the package at the office fhall fee it entered in the flage-book, for which entry he fhall pay 6 cents; he will then flate the value of the pack-age, and pay (exclutive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as infurance, and for which he will raceive a receipt. Thus, for inflance, il he effimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent. and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar infurance, and in hke pro-portion for packages of any other value. engers, the proprietors prefume they have portion for packages of any other value. Very few perions it is prefumed, will diflike this regulation ; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himfelf of this fecurity or not. But the proprietors think it right to flate very explicitly, that they will be refpon-fible for the fare delivery of no package; which is not regularly entered, and for which an inflat-ance recount compared the produced In the diffribution of the route, the greateft care has brea taken to fix on fuch places and tacare bas bren taken to fix on fuch places and ta-verns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the pallengers at the meft reafonable rate. The frages are well equipped furnified with flect and tready horfes, and com-mitted to the care of intelligent fober and obli-ging drivers. The proprietors themfelves live at the different towns and villages where the itages will flop, fo that the conduct of the per-fous they employ is continually an object of their attention.— They take care allo to be that the paffengers are well provided for and politicly 'treated at the taverns, and that no fort of chica-nery or infolence is practifed upon them; in nery or infolence is practifed upon them ; in hort, they have fpared neither pains nor expense to render the SWIFT-SURE the very belt line of flages in America. The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every paffenger has found the road to furpafs very far all that has been faid of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviou of their drivers, and the treatment at Tavernst spoken of with the highest fatisfaction.
