Justum et tenacem propositi virum, Nou civium ardor prava jubentium, Non vultus instantis tyranni, Mente quatit solida.

[Official.]

Extract of a Letter from Wm, E. Hulings, Esq. Vice-Conful of the United States at New Orleans, to the Secretary of State,

" October 18, 1799.

"Yesterday it was determined by his Majesty's Officers, that the Port should again be open to neutral bottoms until his pleafure should be known."

Extract of a Letter from an American Gentleman, dated

"St. Sebastians, September 3, 1799.

"The commerce of France has received great checks owing to the late transactions, which have taken place in that Country. A Paris paper of the 22d August gives the following account :

"The fituation of Bordeaux, prefents an afpect the most distressing: Commerce is at a stand; Credit destroyed; Indignation burns in every boson; the expression of del-pair is pictured in every countenance, every one is anxiously attentive to the new criss."

"The late order of the King of Spain requiring that his billets should be received as a legal tender, and not suffer a depreciation exceeding fix per cent. has greatly em-barraffed and cramped trade. The Billets are nevertheless at a depreciation of 34 per

"The French government have again granted commissions for privateering, subjecting however the owners of privateers to a duty of 15 per cent. on the amount of the fales of their prizes. Seventeen privateers of a large and elegant construction mounting from 20 to 30 guns are daily expected to fail from Bordeaux.

The columns of every democratic paper in the United States, have, for months, been crowded with comments upon the conduct of the government, in the affair of Nathan Robbins, or Jonathan Robbins, or rather Thomas Nash. The most inflamther Thomas Nash. The most inflammatory declamations have been perseveringly published, calculated to villify our national justice; to excite the people against the government; to call up from the "vasty deep" of the democratic cauldron all the spirits of rancour and rage against Great Britain; and lastly, to justify the conduct, and appeade the troubled ghost of a felon. On a foundation of sand, a sabric of falshood has been laboriously executed by the assiduous builders laboriously erected by the affiduous builders of democracy. The public attention is now called to the simple truth of facts. It will be recollected that the seaman in question, fwore first, that he was a native of Connecticut, and afterwards that he was born in Danbury, in that State. From the following certificates by the town officers of Dan-"the thing that was not," provided fallhood would be subservient to mutiny, murder, or any other crime, which the new immoral philosophy may fuggest.

Danbury, September 16, 1799.

WE, the subscribers, select men of the town of Danbury, in the State of Connecticut, certify that we have always been inhabitants of faid town, and are from forty-five to fifty-feven years of age, and have never-known an inhabitant of this town by the name of Jonathan or Nathan Robbins, and that here has not been, nor now is, any family known by the name of Robbins, within the limits of faid

Certified per

Eli Mygott, Eben. Benedict, Justus Barnum, Benj. Hichcok.

Danbury, September 16, 1799.

THE fubscriber, late town clerk for the town of Danbury, in the State of Connecticut, certifies that he kept the town records twenty-five years, viz from the year 1771 until the year 1796, that he is now 56 years of age, and that he never knew any person by the name of Robins, born or residing in the said town of Danbury, during that term of 25 years, before or fince.

Perfectly fatisfactory as this evidence must be, it may, nevertheless be proper to add, THE DYING CONFESSION of this pirate, as it is stated in an official letter from Sir Hyde Parker: " In consequence of Nash, one of the ringleaders in the mutiny, murders &c. on board the Hermione, being delivered up by the United States to me, he has been tried at a court martial, and fentenced to fuffer death, and afterwards hung in chains, which fentence has been put in execution. HE ACKNOWLEDGED HIMSELF TO BE AN IRISHMAN."

A letter from Port-au-Prince, dated Oct. 24, states, that Toussaint was rapidly making a conquest of the southern part of St. Domingo. New levies were marching from Port-au-Prince, to the reinforcement of Touffaint.

There are few emotions of the foul, more powerful than felf love: To express the extension of the quality to a body, we borrow, from the Bibliotheque of France, the phrase I. Esprit de Corps: It is that Spirit whereby the force and safety appertaining to a multitude, are combined with the vigour of in-dividual impulse. The Democrats have al-ways plumed themselves on the possession of this Spirit, and have always displayed it to admiration, though never in a more perfect degree, than in their lamentations over the

"A quantity of waste paper, fit for grocers and trunk-makers." HORACE, when talking of the nonfenfical productions of Rome, describes them as quickly passing

"In vicum, vendentem thus et odores, Et piper, et quicquid chartis amicitur ineptis." That is, in a language, which the children of Bache can more fluently construe, bad productions are at length configued to a blind alley, where allfpice and pepper, and whatever is wrapped up in stupid news papers are fold. How easy it is to suppose that a much graceful modelly the Aurora man, that "fon of the morning" impresses us with his confciousness of the definy, which awaits his diurnal pages. No one will deny that the paper of the Aurora is waste; that confidering its flimsiness, it is tolerably fit a literary journal in the capital of New Encold inclemency of a commercial port. He proposes the publication of a Monthly Magazine, entitled "The Columbian Phonix." But from the duft and asbes of Boston, this columbian toarer will hardly arise. This is to be deeply regretted by the lovers of literature and the friends of humanity, far, we understand that Mr. Hawkins is both a form, here into hell. He says that Mare was proble and unfortunate man. His fuccess warmly wished, but scarcely to be expected. Although it is faid he is to be aided by the claffical learning and attic wit of the author of the "Jacobiniad," the Bostonians will, probably, prefer, as usual, the perusal of some manner—" quinque juncta in trio," meanof their meagre and time-ferving newspapers, ing, I supposed thereby, that the nom nal or rather that informing and witty work five are to effect, but three; or that two of salled "An Advantisement" called " An Advertisement."

General Ira Allen has published in England a natural and political history of Vertions, &c. &c.—he supposed to form the mont. The general understands the politics golden bough of the hero. Democracy is the of his native State admirably well. He also Eburn gate, and sederalism the born. Ameleems to have a very correct notion of privice, rescued from the sangs of jacobinism, vate politics, when he publishes a book in London, from the press of Strahan and Calons, is destined to be the happy Elysium. dell, rather than at Bennington from the Twere to be wilked he might publish his press of Anthony Haswell, the very Town key to the world, and support it hy locional prets of Anthony Haswell, the very Tony key to the world, and support it by logical Lumpkin of Vermont democracy.

The Duke of Liancourt's book, lately annot only of foreigners but of fuch as have been miserably ignorant and stupid, or demo-eratic, wicked, and designing. First we nad the simple and credulous Abbe Robin; then the fuperficial and halty Chaftellux; then Briffot to whose notorious name it is unnecessary to append any epithet; then Master Cooper from Manchester, the friend and affociate of Priestly, the " Praise God Barebones" of Northumberland, and laftly " as one born out of due time" appears the Duke of Liancourt in the character of an author, and observing traveller through the United states. Perhaps, although Monsieur le Due is a very weak man, yet he can shift to the semblance of a man of letters, as eafily as to many other forms, which this rightful de-fcendant of the Vicar of Bray has long been in the habit of affuming. He began with the dutifulness of loyalty, a courtier and the King's friend. Next he was a mirror of moderate republicanism, and all the lukewarm tribe might recognize in him a fort of political inanity, like their own; next he appeared in Bolton, &c. and there he was a fort of a royal, patriotic, jacobinical, moderate, federal, anti federal, anti Gallo, anti Anglo, changeable filk politician, very much like the conductors of fome of our Columbian papers in that quarter. Next he wandered over the different parts of the United States, and doubtlefs, was a perfect Frenchman in them all. By and by we find him in Hamburg, willing to lose his garter, and quench his star, and blot his ducal escutcheon, and be ftruck off the lift of emigrants, and crouch at the feet of Pentarchy. Lastly, as not even the holy Talleyrand could receive him into the bosom of the new Gallic Church, we find this rejected Harlequin in England, and publishing, in the fanfculotte style, a book of travels through this country. This performance, from the recency of its publication abroad, we have not yet had an oppor-tunity to perufe, or criticife. But extracts from the volume have been received and examined. From the tenor of thefe it is evifrom this Jacobin at bottom, who, it is un-derstood, has calumniated public characters of integrity and worth; and, with the com-

" affidavit men."

Some months ago, the editor of the Au-rora charged B it Roff I with a blunder in Geography. It feems that the latter, polli-bly from fome lunking remains of attach-ment to Mr. Genet and his republic, was willing to take Alitan, from its old fite, and murderer NASH, as a republican loft to the forcibly flation the aductions city in France But, alas, the triu upluing of the wicked is thori. For, a few days after this detection, In the paper, published by the tender and the beers of Bache, who, in the course of infant heirs of Benjamin Franklin Bache, we their juvenile findies, have certainly neglected offered for Tale at the Aurora office ed Morse, even in his abridged form, speaking of the Farmer's Mufeum, tell us that it is printed at Wulpole-in Connecticut. Mr. Ruffel, who, if he did not waver quite to much in his politics, occasionally maltreat his best friends, attack the members of his own party, and give his paper fuch a whim-fically variegated and rainbow appearance, is certainly to be praifed as an active, intel-ligent editor, must take care, or worse dewhatever is wrapped up in stupid news papers are fold. How easy it is to suppose that a "quantity of waste paper, fit for grocers and trunk-makers" can be readily found on the files of a factious printer, and week to government, should say of Duane and him that they were "Par noble of the files of a factious printer, and week to government, should say of Duane and him that they were "Par noble of the files of a factious printer, and week to government, should say of Duane and him that they were "Par noble of the files of a factious printer, and week to government, should say of Duane and him that they were "Par noble of the files of a factious printer, and the files of a factious printer, and the files of a factious printer, and the files of a faction of the files of the fil friends to government, thould tay of Duane | heep, four years are and indications of guilt, and him that they were " Par nobile fra- maffacre, he betrayed indications of guilt, tenm," or onste and apply an unlucky line | which led to his detection and punishment; from VIRGIL.

"Aracdes ambo"
Et caut are pares, et respondere parati."

MURDEROUS MONUMENT.

An hardened villain at Baltimore, propoffor "grocers and trunkmakers;" and that, es the erection of a monument to the mefrom the necessities of a young family, and the wants of an editor, it is always for sale, for any purpose, and for any price.

The hard sect which a Buttimete, proposed to the erection of a monument to the mefrom the necessities of a young family, and mory of Jonathan Robbins! It might not prove amils, if this design, conceived tho' it be, by the blackest guilt, were actually put is execution. It could not but be, in Literary projects have almost always proved abortive in Boston. Many attempts have been made to establish periodical works in that small town, but miscellaneous readers ask in vain for a magazine, or a review, or an accomplice, after the fact.

gland. The poverty of the inhabitants is the probable cause of this deficiency. But the hopes of authors, like the desires of lov-nearly, the addresses of a libertine to some ers, are not eafily extinguished; and a Mr. tenderhearted fair one, in whose ear he whis-Hawkins, in the fanguine spirit of a pro-jector, adventures to expose himself to the and for which he expects in return to be ad> phecying when he wrote the Eneid! that present France is the hell he contemplated, the five become dumb mouths at the nod of the majority; no uncommou case.] L'argent, beaucoup de l'argent, Dutch rescrip-

The cream-coloured patch fet into the Bilbury, it will be feen that this felf-named Robbins, but who was known on board the Hermione, only by the name of Nash, was a perjured impostor, and could easily say vels and tours in America has been the work lingf are address, of our new Sancho Panperforming a dignified character in an un-couth dreis. He is a blackguard, now; faid David, and by putting a patch or two on his coat, will make a good Scaramouch.

> Of the non-election of the proper governor for Pennsylvania, we may fay, and in good fet terms of honelt pride and explication too, that if dignity, property, fenfe, learning, reason and worth, could have aught availed, these things had not been so. And we may remember further, that in Philadel-phia, where his antagonist lives, and is best known, the fuid antagonist was left in the vocative-in the western counties, where Mr. Rofs lives, and is bell known, he had a large majority.

"The west yet glimmers with some streaks of day."

One of the passions that lead great minds to acts of enterprize and daring, or of long toil and pain, in the fervice of their country, in its perversion, stimulates ignoble natures most splendid monument of his age, and thus Jacobins, aim, without intermission, at the ouleversement of our religion and laws. Such is the lot of mortality, that its very aliment will be at times converted into its bane, without the intervention a more powerful curb to the licentioninefs of evil fpirits, than the virtue of every age has been sufficient to Schr. Concord, Lamb, Savannah

From affailing Justice and Equity in the utline, Jacobins have begun to attack it in detail: Having long been in the habits of reviling those laws oy which pirates and murderers are rendered up to justice, they now attack, in the very natural progress of their fystem, the particular operations of the laws. Thus does impunity ever embolden crime! Thus does the dog-logic politician of the day, progrefs, step by step, from liberty and equality, to open sedition—from sedition to dabbling in flour contracts—and from dabdent that a system of general misrepresenta-tion of American affairs may be expected grand Conspiracy against the laws, religion of integrity and worth; and, with the com- It is at length proved, by evidence the mon arts of a democrat, has differred and most irrefragable, that Robbins was not a falfified circumstances, with the unblushing native of America. This, though it be ineffrontery of an Old Bailey witness, and with relevant to the general question of his case, the slexible conscience of one of BUTLER'S would have been highly flattering to men would have been highly flattering to men The sch. Fanny, capt. Skiddy, 19 days Colebr feeling a pride in the honor of their country, from Cape Francois. October 23d, spoke (O18) were not that confideration detracted from, were not that confideration detracted from, the Conflitution frigate, capt. Telletby the diffraceful fact, that Americans have seen found ready to approve and justify his Little—an English 74 then in fight. seen found ready to approve and justify his foul, unnatural deeds; this is full a confolation, however. It has been afferted, with a bold countenance, that Robbins, alias ThoMAS NASH, was an impressed American framen. It being proved that he was not an American, his impressment becomes a question, of which we have no cognizance, even tho' it were proved; which it has never been. .. Nasu, it appears, was so will pleased with his lituation, as to make many cruises in the ship, in the course of which, he rose to the rank of warrant officer. Having touched often during these cruises, at different ports, where abundant opportuni-ties mult have offered, of deferting the ship, had there existed an inclination on his part, it is fair to conclude, that he took the lead-ing part we find he did in the cruel murder which enfued, folely from a thirst for plunder. But disappointment, in this instance, at least, attended on crime; and in his fleep, four years after the perpetration of the much to the grief of all virtuous demo-

"Thus tho' the villain 'scape awhile, he feels, "Slow vengeance like a bloodhound at his heels."

A Mr. Van Zandt, of Hope (Niagara) lately shot a Mr. Harris, for unlawful intimacy with his wife. Pursuit was making for Mr. Van Zandt.

Mr. Robert Pollard, an industrious man of family, was killed last week by being run over by one of two stages that were racing

DIED,

On the 9th inflant, in the Pennfylvania Hospital, Hannah Lewis, in the 87th year She was a native of this City, and for the last 17 years, a patient of the house.

Supposing herself to be a daughter of king George II. and having a mind to see ber father, she made several attempts about forty years since to go to England, but wss always detected and prevented by her friends. At length she eluded their vigilance and efcaped to New-York, carrying her plate with her, and about £.300 in cash. There she concealed herself in a ship bound to London, where she arrived and remained about seven years, till her money and plate was all expended; her curiofity being gratified, the fet-tled her tribute money as the called it, at the rate of a heaped buthel of gold per annum, and returned to Philadelphia fupremely happy, in the idea of receiving punctual remit-tances every year. With this she suppor-ted the Hospital (which she called her own house), and allowed all her domestics to live in splendor, equal to the pre-eminent dignity and rank, the always imagined the fultained

NASSAU, (N. P.) October 11.

Yesterday the Duke of Orleans, his two Brothers, and count Mountjoy, embaiked on board his majesty's ship Porcupine, capt. Evazs, which sailed in the afternoon for Halifax. On the Princes going on board they were faluted with fifteen gu's.

October 18.

On Wednesday his excellency the Governor returned to town from Harbour .Ifland, in perfect good health,

The General Affembly meets h Tuesday eext; agreeaby to the Governor's proclamation, for the dispatch of public besides

In addition to former inducements for our Planters to raife grain for the support of themselves and Negroes, a very strong one is now furnished. In Georgia and the Carolinas, from whence our principal supplies of Corn are obtained, the planters have gone fo extensively upon Cotton, that ferious apprehensions are entertained of their next crop of cora being inadequate to home con-

> NEW-YORK, November 14. From Port Repu licain.

By the floop John, capt. Ledet in 16 days from Port Republicain, we are informed that Toussaint progresses rapidly towards the possessions of Rigoud—That about 4000 of Toussaint's troops had lately arrived at Leogan from the Cape, Gonaivee to attempts of equal magnitude in a contra-ry cause: thus Erostratus burnt down the had recently taken possession of three of Rigaud's camps, after having driven the folpiery therefrom.

ARBIVED. Fanny, ----, Cape François 19 Hiram, Roger, Charletton John, Levet. P. Republicain Nancy, Evance, Edenton N. C.

Yesterday morning arrived here, the ship Favourite, capt. Bl ckhouse, 22 days from Montego Bay, Jamaica-Left there the brig Venus, of New York.

October 28, spoke the United States brig Pinckney, cruizing off the Havanna.

20th, spoke brig Maria, from Montegobay for Norfolk—the captain of which in-formed, that he had picked up in in a loug boat, the crew of a fch. in the Gulph stream which had founded and funk.

30th, spoke ship Hibernia, from New-bury-port to the Havanna, 20 days out, who had exchanged several shots a few hours before with a French privateer schooner.

The Conflitution and Bollon, were and

The United States frigate Adams, cant Morris, on her passage from thence to be. Kitts, retock a Virginia brig from the French, and carried her into that place.

TO PRINTERS.

FOR SALE,

ONG Primer, Small Pica on Pica body. English, Ten and Sixteen Line Pica, Quotations, Leads, Type Metal Ornaments, Chafes, Composing Sticks, &c. with a Variety of other Articles necessary in a Printing Office.

Apply at this Office. November 15.

codrw

fust Imported,

In the PACIFIC, and other vessels lately arrived from England, and

FOR SALE BY THE SUBSCRIBER, 2 Bales of low priced Broad Cloths, 2 do. Rose Blankets,

1 do. Striped Duffil do.
1 do. Twilled Coatings,

do. Flannels afforted.

do. fine Plains and Swanfdowns.

i do. Moreens, Wildbores, Tambo-rines and Ruffelets, do. Brown Sheetings, 1 cafe Mulinets-and

Ton of Shot afforted and in 1-4 cwt. ALSO,

A few Tierces of Rice. THOMAS GILPIN,

No. 149, South Front Street.

FOR SALE.

SEVERAL VALUABI BUILDING LOTS. Near the corner of Arch and Ninth Breets.

To be Sold or Let,

A number of excellent Pasture Lots, On the Wiffahickon road, about haif a mile from the city.

 Enquire at No. 39 North Sixth freet.
November 15. dotrawtf

Notice is hereby given,

To all persons having claims against the Estate of WILLIAM SLUBEY, late of Kent county in the State of Maryland, deceased, to appear, either in person or by attorney, on the eighth day of April next, at the house of the subscriber in Chester town, Maryland, between the hours of nine and twelve o'clock, AM. with their claims against the deceased, properly authenticated; at which time the affects then in hand will be divided among, and paid to the several creditors of the deceased, in such proportion and manner as the law directs.

WILLIAM JONES, Executor of William Slubey, deceased.
Chester town, Maryland,
October a8 22w4w¶

UNSEATED LANDS.

THE owners of Unfeated Lands in Allegheny County, Pranfylvania, are hereby notified, that unless the Taxes due on faid Lands for the Years 1795, 1796, 1797, and 1798 are paid into the hands of John Wilkins, Efquire, County Treasurer, on or before the 20th day of February next, they will be advertised for sale as the law

Ebenezer Denny, William Dunning, James Robinson, Commissioners. Pittsburgh, November 5, 1799.

BANK OF THE UNITED STATES. November 15, 1799.

NOTICE. THE STOCKHOLDERS of the Bank of the United States are informed, that according to the Statute of Iscorperation, a General Election for twenty five Directors will be held at the Bank of the United States in the City of Philadelphia, on Monday the 6th of January next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon. And pursuant to the eleventh section of the bye-laws, the Stockholders of the said Bank are also notified to assemble in general meeting, at the same place, on Tuesday the 7th of Jauuary next, at six o'clock in the evening. G. SIMPSON, Cashier.

Second Fundamental Article. Not more than three rourths of the Directors in office, exclusive of the President shall be eligible for the next ensuing year, but the Director who shall be President at the time of an election, may always be re elected.
November 15

ALL PERSONS

INDENTED to the Effete of JOHN WHARchant, deceased, are requelted to pay the same, and those having demands against his Estate, to produce their accounts legally attested to KEARNY WHARTON, Acting Executor, No. 11, Spruce street.

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

R AN AWAY on Saturday evening the 13th July instant, from Colebrook Furnace, Lancaster county, a Negro Man named Cato, he is about 40 years of age, five feet six or seven inches high, tolerable black, with a down ill look, squints, he is a cunning artful sellow, a great liar, and very fond of strong liquer, has been brought up to the sarming business, is very handy at any kind or laboring work; he took with him a number of clothing, amongst which were, one suit plain Nankeen; (some took with him a number of clothing, amongst which were, one suit plain Nankeen; (some money). It is expected he has shaped his course for Philadelphia or New York.

† The above reward will be paid for securing him in any gool in the United States, with reasonable charges if brought home.

SAMUEL JACOBS.

Colebrook Furnace, July 16, 1799: