Foreign Intelligence.

BOMBAY, June 8.

Intelligence had reached Mocha from va-fious quarters, of a party of French from Suez having made an unfuccefsful attack on Colir, a fea port of Upper Egypt, in a dow and three or four finalier boats, wherein the dow was blown up, on which the others re-tired. This was confirmed beyond doubt by the declaration of a French teamen who by the declaration of a trender to be only had reached Judda, and was one of the only two furvivors of the detachment which was on board the dow that was blown up : he is faid to have reported that the party confilted of 120 foldiers and 80 failors, embarked in of 120 ididiers and 80 lattors, empared in a dow and 3 boats under the command of a general of brigade, about the beginning of February 1aft; that on entering the har-bour, feveral dows began to fire upon them, and that when the dow, in which this informant and the general were came nearly abreaft of the Arabs, three fmall guns were difcharged from her at them ; that this firing blew up fome annunition on deck, which communicated to the powder below, and the veffel blew up. This man adds, that their conforts immediately made the beft of their way out of the harbour, with-out making any effort to fave the poor wretches who were fwimming about, whom the inhabitants of Cofir came out in boats and put to death without mercy. The in-formant and four others, fwam after the other three boats with a view to attract their notice but in vais? they then made towards the fhore, and reached it during the night, the thore, and reached it outring the night, from whence they took refuge in the tronn-tains, where after wandering three days with-out any fuffenance, they fell in with fome Arabs, to whom they made figns that they wanted water; that the Arabs brought them wanted water; that the Arabs brought them three fmall pots, but transfixed three of his companyons with their fpears while in the act of drinking; the Arabs fpared the lives of the informant and another who were car-ried to Cofir, from thence to Yambo, where his companion was detained and he was fent to Judda. This was detained and he was fent to Judda. This wan would not allow that the French had ioft any men in action with the Mamalucs, but acknowledged that their lofs by ficknels and affaffination was com-puted at 5000 men. He further flated, that puted at 5000 men. He further finted, that the French at Suez were 400 foldiers and failors previous to the embarkation, of which he made a part, and 50 artificers, and that when he and his companions left it, there only remained one dow belonging to the Arabs and eleven or twelve boat, fuch as are ufed in loading and unloading veffils. The French at Suez had expected a vifit from the Englift flips in the Red Sea, and had a boat flationed a confiderable way down the Coulob to zing, notice of their approach.

June 29. Letters add, that Lieutenant Col. Wifeman with a brigade of Seapoys, was pre-paring to march for the Canary country, to take possession of Deelah, Mangalore, and a few other polts, before the rains fet in violently; and that General Hartley was expected to move with the reft of the army to take complete poffefion as foon as the fraion would admit. It was reported that

NEW-YORK, Dec. 2. Translated for the Daily Advertiser.

By the Nancy, Allen, from Hamburg arrived on Saturday laft, we obtained the lateft German papers; from which we have translated the following interesting paragraphs :

VICTORY OF THE ARCHDUKE, And the taking of MANHEIM.

FRANCKFORT, Sept. 21. The Archduke Charles, has, as I have n-utioned to you before now, through his-peedily marching towards Philipfburg, televed that fortrefs from the bombardment heved that fortrets from the bolibardinent of the French, and forced them to retire to-wards Manheim. This day I have to com-municate to you, the important intelligence that the Duke has completely beaten the enemy, near Neckerau, and Manheim, drove him out of all his flrong holds, and took the whom are the generals De la Mafon and Le Solle, and 61 officers are made prifoners, 2 Randards, 18 cannon, 3 howitzers, 13 ammu-nition carts, and 7 waggons loaded with balls fell into his hands. The following 18 an extract of the Duke's letter, dated the 18th, which he transmitted from head quarters at Schwetzingen, respecting this glorious affair.

"After raifing the fiege of Philipiburg, the bombardment of which had lafted for fix days, the greatest part of the hoffile troops drew acrols the Rhine, and took a polition on the left bank from Ogerfheim towards Wurms. The division Le Roche garrifoned the fortre is of Manheim, and the entrench-ments which were erecled during fummer at Neckerau : the fortrels of Manheim was not in the leaft demolified as has been announcin the leaft demolifhed as has been announc-ed in the public prints, the works were partly as before, and partly fo improved, that they appeared perfectly fecure against any Coup de Main ; the village Neckerau, which is totally furrounded by an anaccelfable broad and fwampy dirch, and feems to form an Island, has for its accels two bridges which are guarded by formidable entrenchments and batteries, this adds much to the ftrength, with which patter has favored this island. with which nature has favored this ifland,

" By the polition and operation: of the enemy, I wasfully convinced, that he meant to defend to the uttermost the fortrefs of Manheim, and its adjacent entrenchments, he was bufied unintermittingly day and night to extend his batteries. Further I received Muller extraordinary influctions to main-tain, and not to relinquifh Manheim at any rate, in confequence of which preparations were made, to move the cannon from the left Rhetaufer to Manheim. " This induced me to accelerate the premeditated attack, the enemy made the moft refolute and obflinate refiftance at Neckerau and icemed to rifque all for the maintenance of that fortified place, his fire was excellive heavy and without intermition, yet notwithflanding all this, an affault was made by our troops upon the bridges leading to Neckerau, which were carried, with a determination that feemed to pervade all ranks alike, the enemy entirely diflodged out of his entrench-ments and in this manner not only the vil-

ige of Neckerau but the whole fortified Iffe

HAGUE, September 27.

After an armiffice of 8 days, the Britifi army received a confiderable relatorcement of Ruflians-and the day before yelterday, the 19th inft. the fecond most obtlinate an the fight milt the feedback between them an the Gallo Batavians, near Alkmaar, b which, though we gained the advantage, th operations of the armies have not been ma-terially altered. Laft night, the 19th, inft. already avrived two expresses feat by Gen. Brone to the French Conful here, and yefbrune to the victory was announced by dif-playing the national flag from the objervato-ry and the national hotel. The cannon al-fo on the batteries of the Koc camp were to on the batteries, of the Koc camp were fired. Our lofs and that of the French is fuppofed to confift in 1500 men—the lofs of the enemy is more confiderable—it con-fifts in 5000 killed, wounded and prifoners: but as on the 17th and 18th a corps of 17,000 Ruffians were advancing, another battle may daily be expected—it is indeed confidently reported that the laft mail has brought news of another attack having been made by the combined Euglith and Ruffians.

AMSTERIJAM, September 21. This day paffed through this city 1000 prifoners of war, who were taken in the laft bloody engatement—they are to be transport-ed to Breda. Our lois in this battle is computed to confift in 1400 men. The avenues leading to our city are in the most formidable flate of defence, and are commanded by General Hinnifdal, who lately was fent here from France for that purpole. On the 19th about 2 o'clock in the morning, previous to the commencement of the battle, from to 6000 British troops took pollession of Hoorn, who however as soon as the issue of the battle was known, evacuated it again.

The village Schoorl was partly burnt b howitzer thells thrown in there, and has fut fored confiderably. After the engagement was] ended, there arrived at Alkmar 1200 Ruffian prifoners—they were quartered in the large Church, where they were civilly received and humanely treated by the citizenis:

LOWER ELBE, September 25. On Monday evening we received our Pa-ris letters and papers up to the 16th, but at too late an hour for yefferday's publication. The Sittings of the Council of Five Hundred, on the 14th and 15th, were remarka-bly ftormy, manifefting every fymptom of revolutionary diforganization, by valgar per-fonalities, tlenching of fills, and deficending even to blows—a' conduct not to be expectto extend his batteries. Further I received intelligence from unquefionable authority that the Directory had transmitted to Gen. fures respect and obedience to its decrees. The question, whether France is or is not in danger, having been rejected, after great uproar, the Directory fent a meffage to the uprove, the Directory lent a mellage to the Council of Antients on the 15th, flating "that a royal confpiracy redoubles its activi-ty. Corruption, feduction and decoy, extend throughout the Republic. Even in the midfl of Paris, Royal proclamations are printed The particidal prefies have been feized, the culpable authors or editors are in the hands of the large, but they much be indeed by a set of the law ; but they muft be judged by the common tribunals ; yet, thould they not be fent to military comm flions, for having provoked royalty ?" The meffage was ordeted to be printed, and referred to a special commission.
