Payments to be made on delivery of each

Substribers will have it at their option, either to fubstribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkners and of feurity, owing to a carelessness, in the fucceding generation, to preferve the public records, and the attration of the nation, in theferuse ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to singage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to sur days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americaes will, therefone, chearfully contribute their affishance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

The work will certainly be advanced with expediction and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

The Swift-Sure. ANEW LINE OF STAGES, NOW BUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK By the thort and pleafant road of

By the short and pleasant road of Busselson, Newtown Scotch Plains, Spring-field and Newark.

The excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with fundry other advantages, which render is to far preserable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great fafety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles short in that half the time required at the least of its advantages, became daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort is travelling principally depend on the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents aone of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road fo farigting between the Delaware and Newark. The foll, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little outs in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a condectable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter feason pocularly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADEL.

The Swift Sure flarts from PHPLADEL-PHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth Rreet. It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Bustletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Peuny, town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quib-sletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon. York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it flarts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For feats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John Breets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich Breets, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad freet.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars.
Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.
Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of laggage carriage free; but all other baggage, aken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

with respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprieters prelume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation. They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent, on the value, as infurence, and for which cent. on the volue, as influrance, and for which be will roceive a receipt. Thus, for inflance, it he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent, and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like pro-portion for packages of any other value.

will pay one dollar infurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few perfons it is prefumed, will diffike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himfelf of this fecurity or not. But the proprietors think it right to flate very explicitly, that they will be refponsible for the fafe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an infurance receipt caunot be produced.

In the discibution of the route, the greatest care has bren taken to fix on such places and tavers as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most costonable rates. The stages are well equipped furnished with sleet and steadyhorses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no fort of chicanery or infosence is practifed upon them; in short, they have sparedneither pains nor expense to render the SWIET-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

The line has now run searly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviou of their drivers, and the treatment at Tavernst spokes of with the highest satisfaction.
