The speal of Sir Sidney Smith to Egyptian diferimination, in favor of an English and Chriftian Knight against an Iufidel and a Frenchman, recals to mind thofe golden days, "now to the duft gone down," when Democracy and temporizing cowardice were not to truth and honor paramonat. The appeal was touching and though the appelte was neither independent, nor except fively enlightened, nor was probably fuffor cated with dignity; yet he had an heart to feel, and it felt for Sir Sidney, whole appeal waying once reached it, excites no calculations, nor any thing, but his flowed from its feabbard. Waving his gleaming, bladet high in air, he advanced to the enemy, from thofe who show productions of Archer, it is verbeck, turgid, and dull. It thus concludes : Ming maniferant, 2016.

We could hardly conceive that the French on mander in Switzerland, would have com-mitted the flupid error of remaining in his mitted the flupid error of remaining in his putition before Zurich; and we predicted, that, if, by any infatuation, he fhould do fo, the cost quences would be ruinous to him. His obfinacy has accordingly eventuated in placing his army between two hres, and him-felf, wounded, into the hands of the enemy.

A poet, of great (weetnefs and merit, who files himfelf, "Peter Pencil" has published in John Ruffell's Bolton Gazette a beauti-ful little poem, under the title of an elegy, fuppofed to be written by himfelf during his decline. This plan gives him an opportuni-ty feelingly to deferibe the mileries of a man of genius, when unfortunately fituated in a new country and compelled to fruggle against the overwhelming tide of commercial ava-rice, and flockjobbing fundidity. The pen-five bard formally takes an affectionate leave of those dear girls, The Muses. In one couplet he tells the whole truth, and no-thing but the truth, but pays a wretched thing but the truth, but pays a wretched compliment to bis dear native county.

"Thy country's voice declares thy haplefs doom ; Gives cheerle's penury for the painter's lot, And dark oblivion for the poet's tomb.

The celebrated Lady Wallace has the man-agement of an English prefs at Hamburg, and actually conducts a political Journal. Madame Roland used to affift her husband in drafting dispatches, but we think the Ca-ledonan Dame, above referred to, is the first newspaper Editress on record.

It is fingular circumflance in the life of the admirable Edound Burke that his firft literary effay was the exposure of a fedicious demagogue. In the year 1749, one Lucas; a demagogue apothecary, wrote a number of very levelling papers againft government, and acounced as great popularity at Dublin, as Wilkes afterwards did in London. Burke perceived the noxicus tendency of leveling dedrines. He wrote feveral effays in the fyle of Lucas, initiating it fo completely, as to deceive the public ;---purlung Lucas's principles to their obvicus confeguences, and, at the fame time, fhewing their abfurity and

I acknowledge, with heart felt gratitude, the public kinduels, con-idence, and fupport, which I have uninter-ruptedly enjoyed for the greater portion of an active and anxious life. I thall forever reflect, with pride and pleafurs, upon the can-dor and liberality, which I have experienced in my intercourfe with the fuceffive Legifla-tures, that have been convened during the Conflictutional term of my administration. As the proof of my fenfe of fuch obligations, I have endeavered to execute an ardinous office with diligence and fidelity : And while, furrendering the tafk to an able and upright fuce ff.s., I implore for him, for youy and for my country, the guidance and bleffing of an all-wife, and all-powerfal Providence.

at the fame time, flewing their abfurity and danger. The first literary effort, therefore, which the crowded flate of our paper preof a mighty mind, of that accurate and prescient politician, Edmund Burke, a man of longeft views, the pureft principles, and incient pirtue, was AN EXPOSURE OF THE ABSURDITY OF DEMOCRATIC INNO-

There are three political feets in the United States. The first in number, as well as in fense and merit, are the Federalists,

The focumed are the Jacobius, who fee, in every book of acts and refaives, gibbits, pillories, and jails. The lean horfes that are flarving in the road, would naturally with to fee the downfall of all the fences round the clover fields. The laws fence out the jacobin rogues from trefpals and fpoil. They fee other men enjoy they own with jud as much good will as cattle in a pound would look through the rails at other cat-tle feeding in a pafture. Jacobinifin is of course as mevitable in a flate, as lazinefs

But there is a third felt who are lefs def-pifed, and yet are more contemptible. Thefe are the Illuminifis.* They will have it that government is on eccleary, or at leaft that its molt falutary refuraints are for. All the people want, they fay, is information. They would talk down whitky poles, and cut down whipping pofts and gallowfes. The Federalifts, like the great body of every nation, want liberty, and tranquility in the enjoyment of it. The Jacobins really want, though they deny it, power, plunder, and vengeange. The Illuminifts* want common fenfe to fuch a degree that they do not know their want of it ; for, if they had a ray of its light, they would fee that they are under-workers to the Jacobins. But there is a third fect who are lefs det workers to the Jacobins.

rectory of the power to introduce troops within the conflitutional limits. [ib.

The English government has received a late letter from Sir S. Smith, with a de-tailed account of a field action he had had as in fenfe and merit, are the Federalifis, who believe that mankind arc in need of all the reftraints of good government, and would be devils without it. The devils without it. not mentioned; but it was received Sept. Extract of a letter from an officer on board 26, and and oubtedly relates to an engage. of the Confiellation frigate, commanded ment, of which we have not before heard.

> An article dated at Conftantineple, Au-An article dated at Confiantinepie, An-gui. 24, flares, that the French had totall y defeated Kioffe Mullapha Pacha, near Aboukir, and afterwards re took Aboukir; but few of 6000 Turks ef aped, even the Pacha being taken prifener. Reinforce-ments of Turks were flowly moving towards Egypt. It remains to be aftertained whe-ther this news of ir S. Smith's is the lareft. We do not here find the date of the action.
