

Foreign Intelligence.

PARIS, September 15.

The 15th of this month was set aside as a fast, in commemoration of Joubert. The Presidents of the two Councils delivered orations in praise of him, and the Republican Oath was taken again.

Formerly Joubert was known as a parliamentary lawyer at Lyon, and in the year 1792 he obtained a commission as Lieutenant, shortly after he was taken prisoner, and carried before the King of Sardinia, in the presence of whom and his nobles he valued himself most upon the title of a French citizen.

On the 11th of August Pichegru had a private conference at Augsburg with Dandré and Percy (the latter of whom was commander in chief of the siege at Lyons) directly after which Pichegru set off for Ueberlingen, which place is pointed out to all emigrants as their rendezvous. They are to set against each of the French departments as are most contiguous to Switzerland.

ITALY, Sept. 16.

We have intelligence, that the Austrians have taken the city of Pignerol, by assault.

HARLINGEN, Sept. 27.

Twenty-seven English frigates, brigs, &c. covered the Zuyderzee, before Enckhuysen. Two English gun-boats, each carrying eighteen 12 pounders, are off Lemmer.—Sept. 30. Lemmer has surrendered.

SCHAFFHAUSEN, September 29.

We have not received intelligence from Zurich, since that city has been occupied by the French; and we have no knowledge of the articles of capitulation. Many of the Russian wounded officers and soldiers are here, who in the retreat lost some of their baggage. In the council of war, held yesterday, by Generals Korfakow, Naueendorf and Keimmaier, it was resolved, that all the Russian and Austrian troops in this vicinity, should immediately advance.

LINDAU, September 29.

The bridge over the Rhine, which was taken up yesterday morning, will be thrown over to night, and the corps of Gen. Petrarich, whose head quarters have been at Bregenz, is to advance in haste, as he has been apprized that Generals Jellachich and Aulinberg, have united with Marshal Suwarow, who was advancing into the heart of Switzerland. He already occupies Lucerne.

September 30.

The retreat which the imperial troops made on the 25th and 26th from Urtwich, by the Toggenbourg, and the canton of Appenzel, was very fatiguing. After the good news which has arrived of the progress of Marshal Suwarow in the South of Switzerland, General Petrarich and Cruber are preparing to advance by the Rhinthal.

The French appeared the 29th before Constance, but were driven therefrom the same day. It is not Marshal Suwarow who has arrived at Feldkirch as reported; but it is Gen. Jellachich. The French have been in the environs of St. Gall, but in such small numbers, as easily to be dispersed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 30.

On the 30th Aug. we received advice, of the arrival of the Grand Vizir, at Damascus. We have no recent news from Egypt.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 30.

General Moriau takes the command of the army of the Rhine, on the 10th Oct. Gen. Macdonald, is to command the army of the North.

Fast reinforcements are in march, to reinforce the Batavian armies.

DONAUESCHINGEN, Oct. 1.

The Austrians are advancing from Felkirk. The Austrian Col. Laur, has attacked the French in Glaris, beaten them, and taken 1500 prisoners, and two standards. The Austrian Generals are to march against the left wing of the French, while Suwarow takes them in the rear by St. Gothard.

VIENNA, October 2.

The Court Gazette, this day contains the following authentic details:—The Prince of Rohan has informed his Imperial Majesty, that on the 28th September, the enemy, to the number of 8000 advanced to Domo d'Osold, to attack his position at Vogogna. The Prince not expecting formidable force, was necessitated to retreat; but on the 22d, he unexpectedly attacked the enemy with various success, and having recommenced the battle on the 23d, the enemy was completely beaten and driven beyond Simpson to Brigg, in the Valais, which last place the Prince has occupied. The Cadet Hagen, who brought the dispatches, estimates the loss of the French, at between 3 and 4000 men. This Cadet, the Prince writes, entered a battery of the enemy, and with his own hand took the standard, which bore to his Imperial Majesty.

The reports of the surrender of Genoa, on the 23d September by capitulation, is not mentioned in the Court Gazette.

On the 11th of August Pichegru had a private conference at Augsburg with Dandré and Percy (the latter of whom was commander in chief of the siege at Lyons) directly after which Pichegru set off for Ueberlingen, which place is pointed out to all emigrants as their rendezvous. They are to set against each of the French departments as are most contiguous to Switzerland.

The reports of the surrender of Genoa, on the 23d September by capitulation, is not mentioned in the Court Gazette.

October 4.

The Cardinals have requested of his Imperial Majesty, the grant of the Venetian island of St. George, to hold the conclave on. About twenty of them have assembled at Venice; amongst them is the Dean of the Holy College; the Cardinals Albani, Caprara and Maury.

SWABIA, October 3.

It is believed, that for some days the united Imperial armies have advanced, and occupied their former position in Switzerland. The head quarters of marshal Petrarich, who commands the division of Hotze, was still on the 29th, at St. Gall. A body of troops have passed the Lake of Constance and the Rhine. General Korfakow's (Russian) head quarters are at Eglishau, upon the right bank of the Rhine. Some bodies of French troops advanced between the separated armies, and progressed to the suburbs of Selshausen, Winterthur, Frauenfeld and some even to Constance; but they are not numerous.

It is believed marshal Suwarow will take immediately the chief command at Eglishau. The main body of the army of the Archduke, has arrived at Donaueschingen (in Swabia). It is expected that the Royal Highness will make an attack on the side of Balle.

The French have evacuated Auenheim, near Kehl; 3000 men who were there, have gone to Strasburg; the Austrians immediately took possession of the post. The French are making movements, as if to penetrate into the Brigaw, by the side of Briffich.

It is not expected that Massena will advance from Zurich, towards the Lake of Constance, and the Rhine, while he has such bodies of enemies in his rear.

The news respecting Fieldmarshal Suwarow, are contradictory. By that from Feldkirch, it would seem, that he had joined the corps of Gen. Petrarich, after having beaten a division of French troops, and killed and made prisoners of 2000, who was actually advancing in Switzerland, on the other side. The other account is from Augsburg, dated Oct. 1, as follows:—"We have this day received by an extraordinary messenger the important news, that Marshal Suwarow, on the 28th September, entered Lucerne with his army, and that he was preparing to march against Berne. The inhabitants of the little cantons all join him. Orders have been sent to the Grisons at Rhintal and Shauflaufen, with generals Naueendorf and Keimmaier. On the 29th, a heavy cannonade was heard near Ravenbourg."

BRUSSELS, October 3.

The Russian Gen. Hermann, accompanied by his aids-de-camp arrived here yesterday. The other Russian prisoners, in all about 700, are expected to-day. They made a three day's stay at Antwerp, where a collection of 3000 florins was made for them amongst the inhabitants. The English prisoners to the number of 400, are sent to Ghent, whence they will be transferred to the citadel of Lille.

HANAU, October 5.

Gen. Muller has been ordered to surrender the chief command of the French army of the Rhine, to Gen. Ney.—The capture of Mannheim is said to be the cause. General Ney's head quarters are at Hageneau, in Alsace. It is estimated there are 10,000 French in the Environs of Mayence and Ehrenbrieslein, who are preparing to advance.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 5.

In the action of the 2d, we took 107 highlanders, who have been sent to Utrecht. There has just arrived here 100 other prisoners. Within two days, 3000 French troops have passed this city, on their way to the armies.

The English are masters of Lemmer, and have taken post in Friseland; from whence they can easily march to this city by land. We are, however, continually at work on the batteries upon the dyke at Naerden.

The greatest loss in the battle of the 2d, fell on the French; and the most part of the officers of General Brune's staff, have perished. Some corps were cut off, so that the inundations ordered by us, have been more fatal to us than to the enemy. We were beginning to fet the water mills at work, but the English have set them on fire with their artillery.

The enemy entered Alkmaar the 3d inst. at five o'clock in the afternoon; and we learn that the head quarters of Gen. Brune has been transferred from Beverwijk to Harlem; from whence they will be removed here should the enemy advance any further. The English head quarters, we learn, are at Alkmaar; and some of their troops have advanced to the neighbourhood of Harlem. The batteries which the English erected on the Dunes, in the action of the 2d, made great destruction amongst the French.

ZWOLL, Oct. 6.

The English having made themselves masters of all the coasts of the Zuder Zee, in Friseland and Gueldres, have summoned the city of Harderwick to surrender. This day we hear a lively cannonade.

Our loss in the battle of the 2d, has not yet been accurately ascertained, and we have had no official account on the subject. This delay is ominous, of its being more considerable than the Gallo Batavians wish should be known.

HAMBURG, October 10.

As far as can be learned from the favorable and unfavorable accounts of the late events in Switzerland, it appears that both armies attacked, on the same day, at different points, according to different plans, and with various but mutual success. The consequences can alone decide the victory.—We will, however, grant all possible success to Massena, and let him freely pursue his victories near Utznach and Zurich towards the Rhine, and the Lake of Constance.—Four renowned Generals are at his heels, who may in all probability bring his army before two fires.—But supposing the worst of chances to befall the Austro-Russians, and the most favorable for the French General, we cannot find any advantage for him in his last victory, which tended only to weaken, in a considerable degree, his exhausted forces.

TO THE PUBLIC. THE time being fixed on, when the MILITARY LAND (commonly called Knox's) WARRANTS, granted to the United States army, are to be registered and located,—the subscribers have explored that tract of land on which those warrants are to be laid; with a view, and for the purpose of offering their services as locators.

We take the liberty of suggesting, "that we are at least as well acquainted with the situation, quality of the soil, &c. of the different townships in the aforesaid tract, as any other person;" this will, perhaps, appear more clearly, by observing, that WILLIAM C. SCHENCK assisted in running the Indian boundary line; at which time he considerably traveled that tract; he also assisted in surveying and laying it off into townships, and at other times ranged over it, to gain information. But to obtain a more complete and accurate knowledge, we have lately spent between two and three months, with several assistants, in particularly examining the different townships and quarter townships; by which means we have acquired an accurate knowledge of the whole district.—We now offer our services to the public, as locators, with assurances that we will locate every persons warrants intrusted to us to the best advantage, agreeably to their rights of location, which is to be determined according to law. For our services we demand the one equal tenth part, either in lands or warrants, when we locate a full tract of four thousand acres or more, for one person or firm; the land to be taken in a square, at a corner of the tract; which corner is to be equitably determined before the time of location.—The one equal sixth part, in cash or warrants, when we connect and locate any amount less than four thousand acres. We will be in Philadelphia from December next, until after the time of location, to transact this business. Any person wishing to satisfy himself farther, will please to call on us, by letter, (postage paid) or otherwise; when due attention will be paid, and such vouchers may be seen as we have to offer, which we hope will be satisfactory. MARTIN BAUM, WILLIAM C. SCHENCK. Philadelphia, Oct. 9, 1799. 2011

Mr Patterson being apprised of the miscarriage of these drafts, will not pay them to any person or persons without hearing further from the Commissioners. THOMAS MUNROE, Washington, 2d December, 1799.

AT a Court of Common Pleas held at Union

Town, for the county of Fayette, the fourth Monday of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, before the Judges of the same court, on the petition of John Wilson, praying that the act of Assembly, providing that the person of a debtor shall not be liable to imprisonment for debt after delivering up his estate for the use of his creditors, may be extended to him. The Court appoint the first day of next term, to hear the petitioner and his creditors, and order that he give his creditors public notice hereof, in Fennos's Philadelphia paper, and in Yundt and Brown's Baltimore paper, for one week, ending at least four weeks before the day of hearing; and that he also give to John Gillespie and Jacob Everhart personal notice in writing, to be served on them, at least fifteen days previous to the hearing. At September term, this order was continued to the first day of December term. By the Court, EPHRAIM DOUGLASS, Prothonotary.
