The NEW TRADE DIRECTORY, FOR PHILADELPHIA,
ANNO 1800:

OR, a Complete List of all the occupations and trades (SEPARATELY and alphabetically arranged) practised in the City and Liberties with the names and residences of those who follow each of them respectively, also in alphabetical order: to which is added an Alphabetical List of all the Streets, Lanes and Alleys in the city and liberties.

If a MERCHANT or SHIP OWNER wishes for any reason to be acquainted with all the Tobaccoists, Grocers, Importers, Quaggers, Manufacturers, Shipwrights, Ship carpenters, Ship Joiners, Mast-makers, Boat builders, Book-makers, Sail-makers, Riggers, Caulkers, Stewards, Mariners, or any Tradesman, he needs only look to the Index for the TRADE, and he will be referred to the pages which contain all the names and residences of those who follow it.

If a HOUSE-KEEPER wishes quickly to find a Baker, a Cask Baler, Seamstress, White Washer, Washer, China Mender, School-maister or Mistress, Glazier, Paper Hanger, Painter, Order Cooper, Lock Smith, Black Smith, Bricklayer, Plasterer or Joiner. He can also turn to the Index and be referred to the TRADE in question. In like manner can the Ladies find out the residences and names of all the Mantua makers, Bonnnet makers, Stay makers, Dyers and Nurses, &c. or a STRANGER the most convenient Boarding House, Hair Dresser, Hatter, Taylor, Trunk maker, &c.— Nor is the utility of the work confined to these alone; for any Tradesman may trace at once the names and residences of the Masters and Journeymen in his own line.

In short it is more or less Useful to almost every Class of Citizens.—And the Editor trusts that such an Expensive and laborious Undertaking will meet with suitable Encouragement.

THE DEMOCRATIC MONKEY;

An Eastern Apologue.

THE Sacerats are a religious order of Priests in the kingdom of Siam. They are highly respected, and enjoy very considerable privileges, but they are wholly excluded from the secular concerns of the country: whenever they attempt to interfere (which they are apt to do) with the civil departments, their conduct is considered as irregular, and they are recalled to their duty.

Chou Narays, who governed Siam about a century ago, employed a singular device to punish the impertinence of one of these priests, who had undertaken to expostulate with his sovereign on his severity towards criminals. The monarch seemed to attend to the Sacerat's remonstrance very patiently; but, in a few days afterwards, he sent him an enormous Monkey to be kept at board—with strict orders that the animal should be treated kindly, and not restrained from doing any thing he pleased.

The Monkey, who was one of the most vicious of his kind, soon displayed his singular talents for mischief: there was not a piece of furniture in the house which he did not in a short time either break in pieces, or cover with his filth. But, besides spoiling the furniture, he flew at the priest, and every person who came to visit him, and did not quit them 'till he left the marks of his teeth on their hands or faces. The Sacerat was soon weary of his guest, and petitioned the king to be delivered from so troublesome an inmate. The Monarch, who was pleased with the success of his scheme, heard the petitioner with his wanted attention, and answered him as follows: "What, Holy Father, you have not patience enough to bear with the freaks of a single monkey, "even for a few days, and yet you expect "that I should perpetually overlook and "pardon the crimes and insolence of a whole "nation, who are a thousand times more "malicious and dangerous. Begone, and "from this time forward be more cautious "of meddling with business, for which you "are incompetent; but be assured that, al"though I am resolved to punish offences "against the peace and order of the State "with severity, I know also how to cherish "and reward merit when I meet with it."

From the Lancaster Journal.

A correspondent in the paper printed by the Dicksons, (the correct "narrators" of the order of Procession) is much surprized that a committee were not appointed to wait on the governor at an early period, to request his attendance on Tuesday last, "I take the liberty to furnish the cause as follows:

1. That possibly the committee did not know the Governor lived in Lancaster.— No man will certainly think this an unreasonable surmise.
2. It is possible they might have thought that when a man descends from the high and exalted dignity of Chief-elect of a free state, to the blackguard exercise of branding 32,641 free electors with the epithets of "traitors, Tories, refugees, French aristocrats, British agents, or apostate-whigs," he is not much entitled to the respect of his fellow-citizens. It is dignity that commands respect, and until we perceive something like dignity, we cannot consistently respect the officer nor the man.

At a stated Meeting of the Academy of Medicine, the following persons were elected

NOTICE.

A Stated Meeting of the AMERI-CAN PHILOSOPHICAL SOCIETY will be held at their Hall on Friday, January 17th, at 6 o'clock in the evening.

N. B. New Members to be balloted for.
THOMAS P. SMITH, Sec'y.

The report made by the Secretary of War, to the President, and submitted by the President to Congress, we find upon enquiry, contains a greater variety of matter than was stated in the account we gave of it, taken from one of the daily papers. We shall, if it can be obtained, publish the whole, in some future paper.

It submits among other things, 1st. The establishment of a Military Academy, including as part of the system, a School for the Navy.

2d. A modification of the two Regiments of Artillerists and Engineers, in such manner, as to form in their stead, one regiment of Foot Artillery, one Regiment of Horse Artillery, and one Regiment of Engineers, and also to leave a considerable surplus of the expence of the existing regiments to be applied towards the support of the military Academy.

3d. To change the terms of enlistment, for the troops, yet to be raised, for the twelve Regiments of Infantry, to run for five years, or during the existing differences between the United States and the French Republic, unless sooner discharged, with a view to economy, by giving the power of transferring such, as may be so enlisted, when the specified differences no longer exist, to fill up the deficiencies in the old Regiments.

4th. To authorize the President at all times, to accept the services of Volunteer Companies, for the Provisional Army, immitting only the time, for which the engagement shall continue, after acceptance.

5th. Certain improvements in the militia system.

6th. A revision of certain parts of the articles of war.

7th. A view of the whole military force—constituting the army of the United States and its distribution.

At a meeting of the Stockholders of the Insurance Company of North America, on the 14th inst. the following Gentlemen were chosen Directors for the year ensuing, viz.

- James Ash,
- Joseph Ball,
- Andrew Bayard,
- Thomas Bell,
- Peter Blight,
- David H. Conyngnam,
- William Cramond,
- James Crawford,
- Daniel W. Coxe,
- James C. Fisher,
- Thomas W. Francis,
- Godfrey Haga,
- Henry Hawkins,
- Alexander Henry,
- Francis Ingraham,
- Ebenezer Large,
- John Leamy,
- Philip Nicklin,
- James Olden,
- Charles Pettit,
- William Read,
- James Read,
- John Simpson,
- Robert Smith,
- John Stille, Junr.

The Directors elected, CHARLES PETTIT, Eq. President.

AT a respectable meeting of citizens specially convened at Hardie's Hotel, Market-street, on Saturday the 11th of January, 1800, for the purpose of considering the propriety of addressing the State Legislature by Petitions, on a Bill now before them, for appointing, by law, the mode of choosing Electors for electing a President and Vice President of the United States. Levi Hollingsworth was chosen Chairman, and Benjamin R. Morgan, Secretary.

The object of the meeting being offered to their consideration, and the reasoning heard for and against petitioning, the following Resolutions were unanimously agreed to.

Resolved,
That on questions of a constitutional nature, the authority of the people is delegated by the constitution of this State to their representatives in the two branches of the Legislature, and that although the people have a right to express their opinions by decent petitions or memorials to their representatives, yet there is an impropriety in expressing this right on every occasion as it hath a tendency of assuming by the people the delegated authority vested by the constitution in their representatives.

Resolved,
That we, confiding in the wisdom, patriotism and firmness of our State Legislature, confidently trust this important business with their deliberative wisdom and determination, at the same time observing that the dividing the State into Election Districts in our opinion comports best with the general principles of our State Government, and with the practice of our Sister States.

Resolved,
That these Resolutions be signed by the Chairman and Secretary and transmitted by them to our Senators and Members of the House of Representatives at Lancaster, as the sentiments of this meeting.
LEVI HOLLINGSWORTH, Chairman, Benjamin R. Morgan, Secretary.
