

Foreign Intelligence.

HAMBURG, November 7. COMMERCIAL.

We beg leave to rectify the erroneous statement of several English and continental prints respecting the bankruptcy of the great banking house of Wolff, Levin, Popper and co. in Hamburg.

Not only the above house, but three more respectable ones, obliged to stop payment, have been placed under administration, and their business continues as usual.

The Commercial Journal of Paris mentions the failure of Messrs. Rucker and Westphalen, which we hereby think ourselves likewise obliged to contradict, and to beg of our readers henceforth not to place too much confidence in reports of this kind, unless they are confirmed in this Journal.

The merchants of Hamburg having of late been supplied with cash and bullion, public credit and confidence begin to revive on the exchange, and we flatter ourselves that trade will soon resume its wonted activity, notwithstanding some failures have taken place at Berlin, Frankfurt &c. which might be expected as the unavoidable consequence of those which happened at Hamburg.

In short it is more or less useful to almost every Class of Citizens - And the Editor trusts that such an Expensive and laborious Undertaking will meet with suitable Encouragement. Jan. 3.

TO THE Holders of Military Land Warrants.

ZACHARIAH BIGGS

AND JOHN MATHEWS

OFFER their services to the holders of military land warrants, to make the location on the 17th of February next, agreeably to the advertisement of the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, relative thereto. They will receive a less quantity of warrants than for four thousand acres, and arrange them with others, so as to complete that number (which makes a location or quarter township) and have them registered. They each surveyed a district of the military tract, and have since explored the interior parts of the townships and sections, and will be able to designate with precision, the preference in the choice of the several locations or quarter townships throughout the whole body of the military lands - One tenth part of the land will be demanded for making the location, &c. to be taken by lot in such manner that their proportion of a section or quarter township will lie together. For further particulars enquire of the subscriber; at No. 9, fourth Fifth street, two doors above the Secretary of State's office, where satisfactory general information relative to the Army laws may be obtained.

PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY EVENING, JANUARY 20.

TREATY

Peace and Friendship,

BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, AND THE KINGDOM OF TUNIS.

JOHN ADAMS,

President of the United States of America. To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting:

WHEREAS a Treaty of Peace and Friendship was definitively arranged and concluded, between the United States of America, represented by William Eaton and James Leander Catcott, Esquires, Commissioners for that purpose specially appointed, and the most illustrious and most magnificent Bey and Government of Tunis, which Treaty is in the following words, to wit:

(TRANSLATION.)

GOD IS INFINITE.

UNDER the auspices of the greatest, the most powerful of all the princes of the Ottoman nation, who reign upon the earth, our most glorious and most august Emperor, who commands the two lands and the two seas, SELIM KAN, the victorious, son of the Sultan Moullah, whose realm may God prosper until the end of ages; the support of kings, the fall of justice, the emperor of emperors.

The most illustrious and most magnificent prince Hamouda Pacha, Bey, who commands the Odgiak of Tunis, the abode of happiness, and the most honored Ibrahim Dey, and Suliman, Aga of the Janisseries, and Chief of the Divan, and all the elders of the Odgiak; and the most distinguished and honored President of the Congress of the United States of America, the most distinguished among those who profess the religion of the Messiah, of whom may the end be happy.

We have concluded between us the present treaty of peace and friendship; all the articles of which have been framed by the intervention of Joseph Stephen Famin, French merchant, residing at Tunis, chargé d'affaires of the United States of America; which stipulations and conditions are comprized in twenty three articles, written and expressed in such manner as to leave no doubt of their contents, and in such way as not to be contravened.

Art. I. There shall be a perpetual and constant peace between the United States of America and the magnificent Pacha, Bey of Tunis; and also a permanent friendship, which shall more and more increase.

Art. II. If a vessel of war of the two nations shall make prize of an enemy vessel, in which may be found effects, property and subjects of the two contracting parties, the whole shall be restored: The Bey shall restore the property and subjects of the United States, and the latter shall make a reciprocal restoration; it being understood on both sides, that the just right to what is claimed shall be proved.

Art. III. Merchandize belonging to any nation, which may be at war with one of the contracting parties, and loaded on board of the vessels of the other, shall pass without molestation and without any attempt being made to capture or detain it.

Art. IV. On both sides sufficient passports shall be given to vessels, that they may be known and treated as friendly; and considering the distance between the two countries, a term of eighteen months is given, within which term respect shall be paid to the said passports, (without requiring the consge or document (which at Tunis is called Testa) but after the said term, the consge shall be presented.

Art. V. If the corsairs of Tunis shall meet at sea with ships of war of the United States, having under their escort merchant vessels of their nation, they shall not be searched or molested; and in such case, the commanders shall be believed upon their word, to exempt their ships from being visited, and to avoid quarantine: The American ships of war shall act in like manner towards merchant vessels escorted by the corsairs of Tunis.

Art. VI. If a Tunisian corsair shall meet with an American merchant vessel, and shall visit it with her boat, she shall not exact any thing, under pain of being severely punished: And in like manner, if a vessel of war of the United States shall meet with a Tunisian merchant vessel, she shall observe the same rule. In case a slave shall take refuge on board of an American vessel of war, the consul shall be required to cause him to be restored; and if any of their prisoners shall escape on board of the Tunisian vessels, they shall be restored: But if any slave shall take refuge in any American merchant vessel, and it shall be proved that the vessel has departed with the said slave, then he shall be returned or his ransom shall be paid.

Art. 7. An American citizen having purchased a prize vessel from our Odgiak, may sail with our passport, which we will deliver for the term of one year; by force of which our corsairs which may meet with her, shall respect her; the consul, on his part, shall furnish her with a bill of sale, and certify the distance of the two countries, this term shall suffice to obtain a passport in form: But after the expiration of this term, if our corsairs shall meet with her without the passport of the United States, she shall
