The Year 1800 is arrived!

UNION TAVERN,

In George-Town, upon the Potomak, is FOR SALE, Upon the premises, on the first Monday in May next,

THIS Tavern was built by the subscription of a number of gentlemen as a necessary and useful improvement to the town—it cost 16000 dollars in the year 1796, when materials and workmanship were much cheaper than at this time. The terms of subscription were that it should be sold to the highest bidder on the day above mentioned.

It is a handsome, substantial brick building, of three stories, fronting sixty feet on the public street in the town, and running back sixty three feet upon a wide and convenient street—The house is admirably calculated for a tavern. It contains upon the first or four large rooms, one of them 30 by 20 feet and another 23 by 20, besides a large bar and dress 12 x 7 room, upon the second floor is an elegant sitting room, 60 by 30 feet, and three convenient lodging rooms. Upon the third floor are ten excellent lodging rooms—the garret admits of a division of ten more. There is also a good kitchen and commodious cellars sufficient for such a house. Passages and cross passages intersect the house in such a manner as to make each room private.

There are stables sufficient for the accommodation of fifty-horses, with convenient feeders for carriages—attached to the building are three lots of 60 feet by 120 each, which front on three streets, and in the back yard and not 20 yards from the kitchen is a copious and never failing spring of most excellent running water.

The nature of improvements and their convenience to the city of Washington must render this property a most desirable acquisition to any person who may wish to carry on a tavern upon an extensive scale. The immediate removal of the government of the United States must require to fill and complete such.

The terms of sale are, one third in cash—one third in 120 days and the other third in 240 days, to be secured by approved notes negotiable at the Bank of Columbia or at either of the Banks in Baltimore, possession to be given on the day of sale and a perfect title made clear, of all encumbrances, on the last payment being made.

THOMAS BEALL, of Geo. Trustees. DANIEL REINTZEL. February 23. [March 8] 1800 May.

Sixty Dollars Reward.

DESERTED

FROM the quarters of the Subscriber, in the night of Monday the 24th instant, an enlisted Soldier, named JOHN MARSHALL, born in Salem, New-Jersey, by occupation a Labourer, aged 23 years, five feet 7 inches high, blue eyes, black hair, sallow complexion, and it is said this is his true complexion.

All, at the same time, ALEXANDER TEEL, born in Suffex county, New Jersey, a Tanner by trade, aged 18 years, 5 feet 5 and an half inches high, remarkable small hazel eyes, short brown hair, which has been lately cropped, fair complexion, his upper teeth large and projecting, speaks much thro' his nose; was enticed from his duty by the art and persuasion of the above named Marshall.

Whoever shall take up said Deferters and lodge them in jail, or shall deliver them to the subscriber, at his Quarters in Filbert, between Ninth and Tenth streets, Philadelphia, or to any officer of the army of the United States, shall receive the above reward, and reasonable charges, or for either of them a proportionate compensation.

BENJAMIN GIBBS, jun. Capt. 10th regt. U. S. February 26. daw.

FOR THE CURE OF FITS.

The patent Antispasmodic Elixir.

Convulsion Hysteria, or Epilectic Falling Fits, Are effectually cured by this excellent medicine. Its virtues are absolutely specific and unparalleled. It has failed in no instance within the knowledge of the proprietor (where taken agreeable to the directions, and with perseverance) the most dreadful Fits ever known. One case of cure only is subjoined out of a considerable number, as proof of its efficacy attested before the Lord Mayor of London.

AFFIDAVIT.

"I, James Pocock, of No. 40, North-street, in the Parish of St. Luke's Middlesex, do make oath—that I was grievously afflicted with fits for upwards of 17 years! and that to so violent a degree, as to require 12 men to hold me in them, to prevent me dashing myself to pieces. They would generally last me 3, 6, and often 7 hours; in consequence of which my constitution became quite emaciated. I made application to many eminent gentlemen of the faculty, who afforded me no relief whatever till I applied to Dr. James Church of the City Road, who prescribed his Antispasmodic Elixir for me, which I took, and which alone cured me of these most dreadful fits, and restored me to perfect health. This deponent further maketh oath, and faith, that it is now two years since he was first cured of his fits, and he has no return whatever of them since.

JAMES POCOCC. Sworn before me at the Mansion-house, this 29th day of August, 1796. William Curtis, Mayor.

Prepared (only) by the Inventor and sole Proprietor, Dr. James Church, at his Dispensary, 137, Front Street, near the Fly-Market, New-York; and sold by Messrs. H. & P. Rice, 16, South Second Street, Philadelphia. February 16. cotw.

TO the nervous, weak, debilitated, sedentary and consumptive, IS RECOMMENDED, THE CELEBRATED BOTANICAL TEA, Infused of Foreign Tea.

THIS Tea is universally approved of in preference to foreign tea, as the most pleasant, wholesome, enlivening, invigorating, and powerful restorative ever adopted, for persons of all ages, but particularly those of the above description; as it will infallibly strengthen, and eventually repair a bad constitution.

It is taken for breakfast instead of foreign tea, and as our first aliment in the morning is designed to recruit the waste of the body from the night's insensible perspiration; it is well known, and an important fact which ought to be borne on the mind of every one, that foreign teas are inadequate to such purposes, as all will allow; it un-nerves and wears the substance of the solids. This substitute is professionally approved as a salutary and nourishing diet, or as a morning and afternoon beverage.

THE BOTANICAL TEA

is singularly efficacious in all cases of inward weakness, trembling or shaking of the hands, loss of appetite, (particularly in the morning) depression of spirits, windy complaints. It speedily relieves the head and stomach in gouty or rheumatic cases; and in cases of weak digestion, but particularly after taking too free with the constitution, by an immoderate use of wine, spirituous liquors, or any intemperance; it is happily suited to hot climates, and is adopted and approved of by some of the first families in the United States and in the West Indies, for its nourishing and invigorating properties; and in bilious cases where the appetite has failed, it is a sovereign remedy.

As proofs of the evi tendency from the use of foreign tea, is subjoined the opinions of some of the first physicians in Europe.

ON FOREIGN TEA.

"The cause of the palsy is drinking too much tea; many im-pig-tea has no ill effect upon the nerves, this however is a mistake; it effects the nerves, which is evident from its causing the hands to shake, preventing sleep, occasioning giddiness, dimness of sight, sickness, &c. Dr. BUCHAN.

"Strong infusions of India Tea, not only un-nerve but destroys the bodily functions." Dr. H. SMITH.

And in another publication, Dr. Hugh Smith says, "Tea is hurtful both to the stomach and nerves; it causes phrenitis, delirium, apoplexies, and other disorders of the brain, which are produced by the nerves being thus disarranged and debilitated, the digestive faculty of the stomach is much weakened, and the body falling of the securing juices, must tend to emaciation and the whole frame thus rendered one system of distress and infirmity."

The justly celebrated Dr. Tillot says, "This fashionable beverage, India Tea, is extremely pernicious; it destroys the strength of the stomach, the viscera, the blood, the nerves, and eventually the whole body."

Dr. Mollere says, "In bilious complaints, tea is extremely hurtful."

Dr. Fothergill, "Tea is very offensive to the lungs, and impedes respiration; it is therefore highly improper for persons who have a difficulty of breathing, or any complaint of the lungs or nerves."

Dr. Saunders says, (see his Medical Mam.) "Indian tea renders men impatient and women barren; hence we may account for the persons in the higher circles having few children, and those in general very sickly and unhealthy."

For more accounts of this tea, see the second edition of Dr. Church's pamphlet. This botanical tea is calculated to produce the contrary effects, is the result of long and indefatigable study and experience, and by perseveringly adopting its use, will be found to answer the effects herein mentioned.

It is cheaper than India tea—one packet at 75 cents, will last one person for breakfast nearly one month—contains containing eight packets, five dollars. * * The celebrated BOTANICAL TEA is prepared only by Dr. James Church, at his Dispensary, No. 137 Front-Street, near the Fly-Market, New York, and sold wholesale and retail, by Messrs. H. and P. Rice, 16 South Second Street, Philadelphia, and Mr. Jas. Rice, Baltimore. February 13.
