WATER-OFFICE.
Centre Squares, February 5, 1800.

IN compliance with the instructions of the Committee for watering the city, and with my own inclinations, every possible assistance and information has been given to those citizens who have visited the Works during their progress. The Engines are now arrived, and are immediately to be put up, and it is hoped that it will be thought reasonable and just, both to the Public, and to the Contractor for the Engines, that the workmen should not be interrupted. As a very few months will fully gratify the curiosity of the citizens, by showing them the Engines in full operation, a temporary exclusion of all visitors from the Engine houses cannot appear improper.

B. M. LATROBE, Engineer.
February 13.

Horses to Winter.
HORSES will be taken to winter at Prospect Hill, at the 12 miles stone on the Bristol Road, where they will have good Timothy and Clover Hay, well littered and cleaned and a field to run in when the weather is good.

Esquire of Mr. William Bell Merchant, or on the premises.
N. B. Will not be answerable for accidents or escape, but will take every precaution to prevent either.
November 13.

Twenty Dollars Reward.
STRAYED away yesterday evening just after dark from the New Market, from whence he broke loose, a dark bay Pony Stallion, about 13 hands high, with a small star in the forehead and his feet white. The said Pony carried off with him a double reined bridle, silver bit and yellow head stall, and an old saddle with plated stirrups.

Whoever will deliver the said horse at the Spanish Minister's in Market-street, shall receive the above reward.
March 4.

Three Cents Reward.
RUN away from the Subscriber on the evening of the 28th inst. a bound Servant GIRL, named Elizabeth Howel, had on and took with her three different changes of garment and money, proud, bold and impudent, a noted liar; any person apprehending her shall be entitled to the above reward—no costs or charges will be paid.

TO THE PATRONAGE OF
A liberal and enlightened Community
IS SUBMITTED
THE PROSPECTUS
OF
A New Daily Paper,
TO BE PUBLISHED UNDER THE TITLE OF
THE OBSERVER,
AND
Daily Repository of useful Information.

IT will doubtless be deemed a hazardous undertaking to present to the public eye proposals for a new Gazette, when so many are already in possession of the public patronage.

News-papers to much more generally diffused throughout America than perhaps any other portion of the globe, may become either engines of mischief or the implements of usefulness—they disseminate good, or scatter poison, among thousands; and although it may be presumptuous in the Editor of that now proposed to expect that its utility will be great, yet he may be admitted to declare, that it shall not willingly be made the means of doing evil.

His endeavors will be applied to render The Observer in some degree conducive to the attainment of knowledge as well as to the communication of news—to enlighten the understanding—to improve the morals—to beget, or to confirm, a reverence for the sacred principles of Christianity.

For this purpose it is intended—
To furnish the most recent foreign and domestic intelligence;
To give useful Prices Current at home and abroad, and other commercial information;
To select from literary productions such portions as may gratify taste and induce improvement;
To unfold and enforce sound and just views of government;
To aid the great interests of piety and morality.
To present occasionally—
Improvements in the arts and sciences—in agriculture and domestic economy;
Proceedings of the General and State Legislatures;
Reports of the Heads of Departments, and of interesting cases adjudged in the several courts of the United States, &c.
Reviews of foreign and domestic literature;
Anecdotes and characters of distinguished personages;
Statistical tables;
Meteorological observations;
Appointments;
Marriages, Births, Deaths.

With these proposals the subscriber confidently submits himself to the public. He is well aware of the importance and magnitude of the undertaking. Solicitous for the fate of his native land, and viewing with anxious fears and hopes the success of a government created by the joint exertions of wisdom and virtue, and conducted with sound policy and genuine patriotism, he feels himself sincerely interested in promoting such measures and principles as he believes essential to public happiness and national prosperity.

CONDITIONS.
I. The Observer shall be printed with a neat type, and on paper of equal size and quality with the present Philadelphia daily papers.
II. It shall be published every evening, and regularly sent to the houses of the city subscribers.—To others it will be forwarded according to their respective instructions.
III. The price will be Eight Dollars per annum to those who reside in the city—and Nine Dollars to all others. The additional dollar is to defray the expense of enclosing and directing their papers.
IV. One half of the price to be paid at the time of subscribing, and the other half at the expiration of twelve months from the publication of the first number. The succeeding payments to be half yearly.
V. Advertisements that do not exceed in length the breadth of the column will be 67 cents for the first, and 33 cents for every additional insertion. Those of greater length will be charged in the same proportion.

Justum et tenacem propositi virum,
Non civium ardor prava jubentium,
Non vultus instans tyranni,
Mente quatit solida.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Philadelphia to his friend in Lancaster, March 8, 1800.

"You enquire 'what are Congress doing.' I am sorry to inform you that they have not yet finished the subject of Robbins, learnedly investigating abstract questions of no sort of public utility, as for instance, if Nath had been Robbins and Robbins had been an American, and as an American he had been impressed, and having been an American and having been impressed and supposing him to be really guilty of the crimes charged, whether in that case it was committing murder within the stipulation of the treaty, or was it piracy, and if it were piracy and not murder, did it come under the demands of the treaty, and supposing it piracy and murder, whether (coming under the national obligation to deliver him up) 't would be proper or improper for the Executive to direct that he should be surrendered to the officers of his Britannic Majesty, provided, &c. or whether the Judiciary ought to have complied with the demand without such direction or requisition, & a dozen other such like and suppositions that would defy the subtlety of Aristotle to analyze and explain—nor is this all—I am told there is something about Toussaint to follow immediately, of the same nature; and when they have finished Randolph, Robbins and Toussaint, 'tis thought they will be ready to adjourn.

"Believe me, dear Sir, this war of speeches is the greatest calamity ever befallen a nation; it is manifestly worse than an English war, an Indian war, or a French war. Its first operation is an enormous expence; the next is national degradation, and the last is national immorality and loss of public virtue, poisoning and enervating the whole community, and leaving the body politic totally incapable of discharging those functions absolutely necessary for its own preservation; it has done so in all republics and will inevitably do so here if the causes are not corrected in time.

"I know prophesying is generally a vain pursuit; yet I do not hesitate to declare it, as my firm belief, that unless this howling spirit of discord is allayed by wisdom and patriotism it will prostrate the glories of America in less than seven years."

(CIRCULAR.)
The Philadelphia Medical Society, desirous of increasing the stock of useful medical knowledge, have determined to offer a MEDAL of the value of sixty dollars, for the best dissertation in answer to the following question: "What are the effects of the following medicines upon the human body, especially upon the pulse, viz.—Hyocyanus niger (Black Henbane), Datura Stramonium (Thorn-Apple), Conium Maculatum (Hemlock), Campbor, Amber, Musk, Digitalis Purpurea (Fox-glove), Scilla Maritima (Squill), Rhododendron Maximum (an indigenous American plant, called Mountain Laurel), and the principal preparations of Lead."

Dissertations on this subject competing for the prize, and written either in the English, French, or Latin languages, must be forwarded (post paid) to the Secretary of the Philadelphia Medical Society, on, or before the first Saturday in February 1802. To each of the dissertations a motto must be prefixed, and the said motto must be put upon the back of a sealed letter, containing the name of the Author. All the dissertations, excepting that to which the prize shall be adjudged, will be returned to any place that may be directed, with the letters which accompanied them unopened. Thus the names of unsuccessful candidates will be known only to those to whom they may themselves communicate them.

Hans Galen Hippocrates Von Quackenburg, High German Dutch Doctor, &c. &c.
To all de peuples call'd Doctors of de Fellelfa showisiety, &c. Grating.

Whereas in de newspaper you haf publickly offer'd sixty tollars to all dose parsons who will tell you in sekret vat ish de affect of lawrel hen beans and homelack, &c. &c. pon de humming body and pon his pulse: now I will tell you, dat you are a pack of fools to waste your munny so: why dont you com to me? You all knows I give de vice greatis at my stor of muddytoll nolege to all ignoramous and yung doctors; and I will tell you and de hole world dat dem der tings is all poison, and dare affects pon de body ish to kill burn and destroy it: and as for de pulse if you com to my lekcturs you will here me lay dat vat kills de base body will kill all de parts of de body, and now as dis is all you haf shk pon de public, I have don wid you as to doctors: put if you shk my pinions as lord mare or as justis of peace, I will tell you dat tis dangerous to give munnies to all peples goot, bad, and indifferent. Doctors and no doctors, quacks and no quacks of all perfeshuns and of no perf shuns at all to make dem try de fecks of so many dangerous poishuns pon de humming bodys: and I beleve tis felony, buglary, bigamy and manslaughter in de eyes of de laws of all kingdoms and hemphires pon bearth—Tis true dat you haf got some purcautions and promish to keep de names sekret of all dat shall tite to you, but if it shud be sekreted dat yore publickshun shall cause many poishuns, murders and deeths, by de pribery and corrupshan with yure shifty tollars, what will de lawyers, de gudges and kunsplaps and jurs and gaylor say to you? Dis you will own ish a very friendly question and hint from

Yure friend and ferent,
Doctor H. G. H. Von Quackenburg.

The Senate of the United States, was engaged on Friday and Saturday last, in discussing the resolution instructing the committee of privileges to enquire what measures ought to be taken in respect to sundry publications in the Aurora—and on Saturday the question was taken by yeas and nays, and carried—yeas 19—noes 8.

The United States Ship Trumbull, Captain Jewitt, lying at New London, is completely manned, and will sail in a few days.

Extract of a letter from an officer on board the Congress, dated Hampton Roads, February 24.

"We are now in the Bay, about two miles from Hampton Roads, where we were obliged to come to an anchor, in consequence of carrying away our [Jury] fore-top mast, which will be replaced this evening, and with the morning tide we shall go as far up towards Norfolk, as the water will admit. It is very uncertain what arrangements may take place with respect to the officers and crew of this ship, as it will be a considerable time before she can be fitted for sea. From the important nature of our voyage, it is probable, if the frigate Cheapeake of 44 guns, now fitting out at Norfolk, is in a forward state, she will be ordered out in our stead, and our ship's company turned over to her.

"The fate of the Essex is to us unknown. We are willing to hope that she weathered the gale without sustaining much injury, and has proceeded on the voyage.

"Poor Bofworth perished in discharging with alacrity and gallantry, a most important and hazardous duty. The word to cut away the main-top mast, was no sooner passed, than he was up the shrouds."

New York, March 8.

Last evening, the East India ship Orion, from Boston, anchored in this harbor, in ballast. In coming out from Boston, by the inattention of the Pilot, she was ran on shore, since which, from the injury received, she has made six feet of water an hour, and it was with great difficulty she reached this port: her crew, however, were relieved on Tuesday last by 20 men who were sent from this port to aid in getting her up.

We are informed that the Orion was formerly an English East India ship, called the Raymond; but having been captured by the French, and sent into the Isle of France, was there purchased by an American Consul for a house in Boston, where she arrived in May last, with a valuable cargo. She is burthen one thousand tons, and carries 36 guns, and 3 carronades—is to be loaded here by Messrs. Government and Kemble, and proceed on an India voyage.

On Friday last, touched in the Port of Stenington, a Vineyard Sound Pilot boat; by the people we learn, that a'out a week since, a schooner from the Scuthward, arrived at Holme's Hole, the captain of which informed, that a few days before, at the distance of 6 leagues S. W. from Greyhead, he came across a sloop, with her mast laying across her, it being calm he sent his boat on board, found no person on board, found no person nor boat, but several ozen and one bundle of hay; she was nearly full of water, but from several circumstances they concluded that she had not been long in that situation. On her stern was printed, "The _____ of Saybrook."
* Our informant had forgotten her name.
