Convultion Hyfleric, or Epiledic Falling Fits.

Are effectually cared by this excellent medicine.

Its virtues are abfourely specific and unparalleled. It has failed in no instance within the knowledge of the proprietor (where taken agreeable to the directions, and with perfeverance), the most dreadful Fits ever known. One cale of cure only is subjoined out of a counderable number, as proof of its esseate attested before the Lord Mayor of London.

AFFIDAVIT.

"I, James Focock, of No 40, North-street, in the Parish of St. Luke's Middlefex, do make oath—I hat I was grievously afficied with fits for upwards of 15 years! and that to so violent a degree, as to require 12 men to hold me in them, to prevent me dashing myself to pieces. They would generally last me 5, 6, and often 7 hours; in consequence of which my constitution became quite emaciated. I made application to many eminent gentlemen of the faculty, tion to many eminent gentlemen of the faculty, who afforded me no relief whatever; till I apwho allorded me no relief whatever; till I applied to Dr. James Church of the City Rood, who preferibed his Antispalmodic Elixir for me, which I took, and which alone cured me of these most dreadful sits, and restored me to perfect health. To the nervous, weak, debilitated, sedentary and consumptive, is recommended. The celebrated BOTANICAL TEA, Instead of Foreign Tea.

THIS Tea is univerfally approved of in preference to foreign tea, as the most pleasant, wholesome, enlivening, invigorating, and powerful restorative ever adopted, for persons of all ages, but particularly those of the above description; as it will infallibly strengthen, and eventually repair a bad constitution.

It is taken for breakfast instead of foreign tea, and as our first aliment in the morning is designed to recruit the waste of the body from the night's insensible perspiration; it is well known, and an important sact which ought to be borne on the mind of every one, that foreign teas are inade, quate to such purposes, as all will allow; it unnerves and wears the substance of the folids. This substitute is prosessionally approved as a radiation and nourithing diet, or as a morning and afternoon beverage.

As proofs of the evil tendency from the use of foreign teas, is subjoined the opinions of some of the first physicians in Europe.

ON FOREIGN TEA.

"The cause of the palfy is drinking too much tea; many imagine tea has no ill effect upon the nerves, this however is a mistake it effects the nerves, which is evident from its causing the hands to shake, preventing sleep, occasioning giddiness, dimness of sight, sickness, &c. Dr. EUCHAN.

" Strong infusions of India Tea, not only un-nerves but destroys the bodily functions."

And in another publication, Dr. Hugh Smith fays, "Tea is hurtful both to the fromach and nerves; it causes phrensies, delirium, appoplexies, and other disorders of the brain, which are produced by the nerves being thus disarranged and debilitated, the digestive faculty of the stomach is much weakened, and the body failing of the recruiting juices, must tend to emaciation and the whole frame thus rendered one system of distress and infirmity."

and infirmity"

The juitly celebrated Dr. Tillot fays, "This fashionable beverage, India Tea, is extremely permicious, it destroys the strength of the stomach, the vicera, the blood, the nerves, and eventually the whole body."

Dr. Moliere tays, "In Lilious complaints, tea is extremely hurtful."

Dr. Fothergill. "Tea is very offensive to the lungs, and impedes respiration; it is therefore highly improper for persons who have a difficulty of treathing, or any complaint of the lungs or
