February 12.

TO THE PATRONAGE OF A liberal and enlightened Community IS SUBMITTED THE PROSPECTUS OF A New Daily Paper,

TO BE PUBLISHED UNDER THE TITLE OF THE OBSERVER, AND

Daily Repository of useful Information.

IT will doubtless be deemed a hazardous undertaking to present to the public eye proposals for a new Gazette, when so many are already in possession of the public patronage.

His endeavors will be applied to render The Observer in some degree conducive to the attainment of knowledge as well as to the communication of news—to enlighten the understanding—to improve the mind—to direct, or to confirm, a reverence for the true principles of Christianity.

To furnish the most recent foreign and domestic intelligence; To give useful Prices Current at home and abroad, and other commercial information; To select from literary productions such portions as may gratify taste and induce improvement; To unfold and enforce founded just views of government; To aid the great interests of piety and morality; To present occasionally, Improvements in the arts and sciences—in agriculture and domestic economy; Proceedings of the General and State Legislatures; Reports of the Heads of Departments, and of interesting cases adjudged in the several courts of the United States, &c. &c. Reviews of foreign and domestic literature; Anecdotes and characters of distinguished personages; &c. &c.

With these proposals the subscriber dissentfully submits himself to the public. He is well aware of the importance and magnitude of the undertaking. Solicitous for the fate of his native land, and viewing with anxious fears and hopes the success of a government created by the joint exertions of wisdom and virtue, and conducted with sound policy and genuine patriotism, he feels himself liberally interested in promoting such measures as principles as he believes essential to public happiness and national prosperity.

CONDITIONS.

- I. The Observer shall be printed with a neat type, and on paper of good size and quality with the present Philadelphia daily papers. II. It shall be published every evening, and regularly sent to the houses of the city subscribers. To others it will be forwarded according to their respective instructions. III. The price will be Eight Dollars per annum to those who reside in the city—and Nine Dollars to all others. The additional dollar is to defray the expense of a closing and directing their papers. IV. One half of the price to be paid at the time of subscribing—and the other half at the expiration of the year. The publication of the first number will be the beginning of the year. V. Advertisements shall not exceed in length the breadth of the column, and be 67 cents for the first line, 33 cents for every additional insertion. Those of greater length will be charged in the same proportion.

The Year 1800 is arrived!

UNION TAVERN, In George-Town, upon the Potomak, is FOR SALE.

THIS Tavern was built by the subscription of a number of gentlemen as a necessary and useful improvement to the town—It cost 16000 dollars in the year 1796 when materials and workmanship were much cheaper than at this time.

It is a handsome, substantial brick building, of three stories, fronting sixty feet on the most public street in the town, and running back sixty three feet upon a wide and convenient street.

There are Tables sufficient for the accommodation of fifty parties, with convenient sheds for carriages—attached to the building are three lots of 60 feet by 120 each, which front on three streets, and in the back yard and not 20 yards from the kitchen is a copious and never failing spring of most excellent running water.

THE NATURE of improvements and their convenience to the city of Washington must render this property a most desirable acquisition to any person who may wish to carry on a tavern upon an extensive scale.

THOMAS BEALL, of Geo. Trustees. DANIEL REINTZEL. February 25. [March 8] sawtf. May.
