AUTHENTIC LIFE OF SUWOROW.

JUST PUBLISHED, AND FOR SALE, AT THIS OFFICE, A SKETCH OF THE Life and Character OF PRINCE ALEXANDER SUWOROW-KUM-NIKSKI, Field-Marshal General in the service of His Imperial Majesty, the Emperor of all the Russias, WITH THE History of his Campaigns.

Translated from the German of Frederick Aulung, To which is Added, A concise and comprehensive History of His Italian Campaign.

Portrait of Marshal Suworow, Gentlemen desirous of possessing a capital likeness, executed in the first style, of this illustrious Christian Chief, may be furnished with particular proof impressions, at this office, price one Dollar.

TO THE PATRONAGE OF A liberal and enlightened Community IS SUBMITTED THE PROSPECTUS OF A New Daily Paper, TO BE PUBLISHED UNDER THE TITLE OF THE OBSERVER, AND Daily Repository of useful Information.

IT will doubtless be deemed a hazardous undertaking to present to the public eye proposals for a new Gazette, when so many are already in possession of the public patronage.

News-papers so much more generally diffused throughout America than perhaps any other portion of the globe, may become either engines of mischief or the implements of usefulness—they disseminate good, or scatter poison, among thousands; and although it may be pre-emptuous in the Editor of that now proposed to expect that its utility will be great, yet he may be admitted to declare, that it shall not willingly be made the means of doing evil.

His endeavors will be applied to render The Observer in some degree conducive to the attainment of knowledge as well as to the communication of news—to enlighten the understanding—to improve the morals—to begot, or to confirm, a reverence for the sacred principles of Christianity.

To furnish the most recent foreign and domestic intelligence; To give useful Prices Current at home and abroad, and other commercial information; To select from literary productions such portions as may gratify taste and induce improvement; To unfold and enforce sound and just views of government; To aid the great interests of piety and morality. To present occasionally—Improvements in the arts and sciences—in agriculture and domestic economy; Proceedings of the General and State Legislatures; Reports of the Heads of Departments, and of interesting cases adjudged in the several Courts of the United States, &c. Reviews of foreign and domestic literature; Anecdotes and characters of distinguished personages; Statistical tables; Meteorological observations; Appointments; Marriages, Births, Deaths.

With these proposals the subscriber confidently submits himself to the public. He is well aware of the importance and magnitude of the undertaking. Solicitous for the fate of his native land, and viewing with anxious fears and hopes the success of a government created by the joint exertions of wisdom and virtue, and conducted with sound policy and genuine patriotism, he feels himself sincerely interested in promoting such measures and principles as he believes essential to public happiness and national prosperity.

CONDITIONS, I. The Observer shall be printed with a neat type, and on paper of equal size and quality with the present Philadelphia daily papers. II. It shall be published every evening, and regularly sent to the houses of the city subscribers.—To others it will be forwarded according to their respective instructions. III. The price will be Eight Dollars per annum to those who reside in the city—and Nine Dollars to all others. The additional dollar is to defray the expence of enclosing and directing their papers. IV. One half of the price to be paid at the time of subscribing, and the other half at the expiration of twelve months from the publication of the first number. The succeeding payments to be half yearly. V. Advertisements that do not exceed in length the breadth of the column will be 67 cents for the first, and 33 cents for every additional insertion. Those of greater length will be charged in the same proportion.

Removal of his office.

THOMAS CLAYTON RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public in general, that he has removed the whole stock in trade of the late firm of J. J. MALCOM & Co. druggist's to sign of Pothergill's Golden Head, No. 97 South Second Street, directly opposite to the City Tavern, where the business in all its branches will be conducted as heretofore in conjunction with WILLIAM LEHMAN, under the firm of WILLIAM LEHMAN & Co.

A MISTAKE, AS Mr. Thomas Clayton, in his advertisement above, has indirectly asserted that I have declined business, I feel it my duty to inform my friends and the public, that I continue the Drug and Apothecary Business, as usual, at the old stand, sign of Pothergill's golden head, No. 26, fourth Second Street, a little below opposite Black Horse Alley, where may be had, constantly, every article in the line. JOHN J. MALCOM. March 6. dtf.

MEDICINE CHESTS, For shipping, with plain approved directions, put up at an hour's notice. March 7.

QUESTIONS To Merchants, Store keepers, and Tradesmen in general, &c. 18, PRAY Gentlemen, is a perfect standard of discount, or interest, calculated on every dollar (without exception) from 1 to 2000, from one day to sixty-four days inclusive, of any value, whether used as a standard, or as a check upon the enquirers' own calculations and its of any importance to know the best methods of computing the exchanges, between this country and the principal maritime trading place in Russia, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Prussia, Poland, Germany, Holland, Flanders, Spain, Portugal, Italy, in several of the Windward and Leeward West India Islands, and many ports in the East Indies? 3d Is a table of all the coins and monies of account in the places aforesaid, of any use? 4th Are the coins and monies of account in the aforesaid places, when reduced to dollars and cents, of any service? 5th Is a table of compound interest of any utility? 6th Is the table by which the banks determine the value of gold, desirable? 7th Is the amount of interest, accurately calculated for each month from one to twelve months, and on every dollar (without exception) from 1 to 2000, of any value? 8th Is a table of all the post towns in the United States, and rates of postage therewith, of any use? 9th Will not all these together make a book, as generally useful and convenient as ever entered a counting house or store? 10th Will not the whole, when comprised in a quarto volume of from 200 to 225 pages, be worth two dollars? And lastly, Is the person, who at the expence of FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS undertakes to perform upwards of one hundred and sixty thousand calculations of interest, and of giving all the preceding information to the public in the most complete manner, deserving of your Encouragement and Support?

If the answer is in the affirmative, you are individually and respectfully invited to subscribe in one of the specimen books, exhibited at the City Tavern, Hardy's Hotel, Francis's Hotel, the Indian Queen, Dunwoody's Tavern, the Franklin Head, and at the George.

Nothing is to be paid in ADVANCE, neither will it be expected of subscribers to take the work when published, if it is not delivered rigorously conformable to my agreements with the public, expressed in the conditions affixed to the specimen books, each of which consists of six detached pages of the work.

I am, with respect, Gentlemen, Your humble servant, JOHN ROWLETT, Accountant, Bank of North America.

POSTSCRIPT, The work is dedicated, by permission, to the President and Directors of the Bank of North America, and has already received the patronage of JOHN ADAMS, President of the United States; of THOMAS JEFFERSON, Vice-President of the United States, and President of the Senate; of a large number of Senators and Members of the House of Representatives of the United States; and of the Presidents and Directors of the different Banks unanimously. The Specimen Book in the Bank of North America, is filling very fast with subscriptions, some for 5 copies, some for 3 copies, and some for 1 copy, and I take this opportunity of gratefully acknowledging all favours.

10 Gentlemen having business at either of the Banks may subscribe there as well as at the Taverns, &c. already mentioned. Copy-right secured according to all of Congress, dtf.
