TO THE PATRONAGE OF

A liberal and enlightened Community IS SUBMITTED

THE PROSPECTUS

OF

A New Daily Paper,

TO BE PUBLISHED UNDER THE TITLE OF

THE OBSERVER,

AND

Daily Repository of useful Information.

IT will doubtless be deemed a hazardous undertaking to present to the public eye proposals for a new Gazette, when so many are already in possession of the public patronage.

News-papers so much more generally diffused throughout America than perhaps any other portion of the globe, may become either engines of mischief or the implements of usefulness—they disseminate good, or scatter poison, among thousands; and although it may be presumptuous in the Editor of that now proposed to expect that its utility will be great, yet he may be admitted to declare, that it shall not willingly be made the means of doing evil.

His endeavors will be applied to render The Observer in some degree conducive to the attainment of knowledge as well as to the communication of news—to enlighten the understanding—to improve the morals—to beget, or to confirm, a reverence for the sacred principles of Christianity.

For this purpose it is intended—

To furnish the most recent foreign and domestic intelligence;

To give useful Prices Current at home and abroad, and other commercial information;

To select from literary productions such portions as may gratify taste and induce improvement;

To unfold and enforce sound and just views of government;

To aid the great interests of piety and morality.

To present occasionally—

Improvements in the arts and sciences—in agriculture and domestic economy;

Proceedings of the General and State Legislatures;

Reports of the Heads of Departments, and of interesting cases adjudged in the several courts of the United States, &c.

Reviews of foreign and domestic literature;

Anecdotes and characters of distinguished personages;

Statistical tables;

Meteorological observations;

Appointments;

Marriages, Births, Deaths.

With these proposals the subscriber confidently submits himself to the public. He is well aware of the importance and magnitude of the undertaking Solicitous for the fate of his native land, and viewing with anxious fears and the joint exertions of wisdom and virtue, and conducted with sound policy and genuine patriotism, he feels himself sincerely interested in promoting such measures and principles as he believes essential to public happiness and national prosperity.

CONDITIONS.

I. The Observer shall be printed with a neat type, and on paper of equal size and quality with the present Philadelphia daily papers.

II. It shall be published every evening, and regularly sent to the houses of the city subscribers—To others it will be forwarded according to their respective instructions.

III. The price will be Eight Dollars per annum to those who reside in the city—and Nine Dollars to all others. The additional dollar is to defray the expense of enclosing and directing their papers.

IV. One half of the price to be paid at the time of subscribing and the other half at the expiration of twelve months from the publication of the first number. The succeeding payments to be half yearly.

V. Advertisements that do not exceed in length the breadth of the column will be 67 cents for the first, and 33 cents for every additional insertion. Those of greater length will be charged in the same proportion.

ZACHARIAH POULSON, jun. March 8, 1860.

TO BE LET,

THE LOT,

At the north-east corner of Arch and Ninth streets, now occupied by Mr. Benjamin Busby, as a Board Yard. Enquire at No. 418, Arch Street. March 17.

March 6.

A MISTAKE.

AS Mr. Thomas Clayton, in his advertisement above, has indirectly asserted that I have declined business, I feel it my duty to inform my friends and the public, that I continue the Drug and Apothecary Business, as usual, at the old stand, sign of Fothergill's golden head, No. 26, fourth Second Street, a little below opposite Black Horse Alley, where may be had, constantly, every article in the line. JOHN J. MALCOM.

And lastly, Is the person, who at the expense of FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS undertakes to perform upwards of one hundred and sixty thousand calculations of Interest, and of giving all the preceding information to the public in the most complete manner, deserving of your Encouragement and Support?
