Philadelphia Academy.

SAMUEL MAGAW, D. D. Rector of St. Paul's church, and formerly Vice Provost of the University of Pennsylvania.

JAMES ABERCROMBIE, A. M. One of the Assistant Ministers of Christ church and St. Peter's.

On Tuesday the 15th of next month, (April)

An Academy.

An English School, in which will be taught Reading, Writing, English Grammar, Composition, Elocution, and Natural History.

A Mathematical School, in which will be taught Writing, Arithmetic, Mercantile Accounts, Geography, and the use of the Globes, Geometry, and Trigonometry, with their application to Mensuration, Surveying, Navigation, Nautical Astronomy, &c.

A Classical School, in which will be taught the Latin and Greek Languages, in conjunction with Chronology, Civil History, Rhetoric, and the Institutes of Moral Science.

A well-grounded conviction of the expediency of the foregoing plan, has been our principal inducement to undertake it. When it is considered that this populous and flourishing Metropolis contains only one Public Institution on an extensive plan, and that many of our youth are obliged to resort to other States, to receive even a Grammar-School Education, the Seminary now proposed, will, we trust, be regarded as eminently useful.

Actuated by these considerations, many gentlemen, friends to Science, and to Literary Establishments, have urged, with great warmth, the present undertaking, and excited the most flattering expectations of its success.

Thus encouraged by the countenance and promised aid of liberal men, no less than by a firm persuasion that well-regulated Academies have a most important influence upon manners, habits, and principles; it will be our earnest endeavor to conduct this Seminary of Learning, as to subserve the great Interests of Religion and Morality, to promote Decorum of Behavior, Correctness of Taste, Liberality of Sentiment, and every other attribute of an ingenious mind, which, in connection with good principles, and sound literature, constitute the distinguished ornaments of the gentleman, and the scholar.

The building, engaged for this Academy, though affording excellent accommodation, will be relinquished for a more central situation, if such a change should be found necessary.

A matter of distinguished abilities will be procured to conduct the Mathematical Department.

Persons desirous to be employed as TUTORs in this Seminary, are requested to apply, without delay, to either of the subscribers, to whom all Parents willing to send their children, will please to make application.

J. S. LEWIS, Adjutant Marine Corps.

January 16.

WHEREAS.

AN attachment was lately issued out of the inferior court of common pleas of the county of Essex, in the State of New Jersey, directed to the Sheriff of the said county, against the rights, credits, monies and effects, goods and chattels, lands and tenements of John Cleves Symmes at the suit of William Hall, in a plea of trespass on the case to his damage three thousand dollars. And whereas, the said Sheriff did, at the term of June last past, return to the said court, that he had attached the defendant by a certain bond given by Matthias Denman and Samuel Wecker to the said defendant, to the amount of near two thousand dollars, and also by sixty land warrants.

Now therefore, unless the said John Cleves Symmes shall appear, give special bail, and receive a declaration at the suit of the plaintiff, judgment will be entered against him, and his property herein attached, will be sold agreeably to the Statute in such case made and provided.
