Each volume will contain about one third lefs of letter-prefs than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet a tabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot afortain this number of volumes which will comprife the work. Payments to be made on delivery of each

Subfribers will have it at their option, either to unferibe for the whole of the Journals, up to the prefere time, or to thois only of the Old Congress' prior to the organization of the Federal Govern-ment.

In all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are loft in dark-inels and obferrity, owing to a carelefenels, in the produceding generation, to preferve the public resords, and the attention of the nation, in thefe rule, ges, being called off from their domeflix conterns, to angage in wars and conquet. Of what infinite and would the laws of Alfred be, had they been trainfinited to our days? Time, that defroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenti-stated buble records, and renders them almost instimites to our days? Time, that defroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenti-stated buble records, and renders them almost it instimutes to our days? Time, that defroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenti-stated buble records, and renders them almost it instimutes. It is hoped, that Amoricats will, there-fore, chearfully centribute their affilance in tranf. Institute to policity the labours of their anceflors. - outders of the Columbian tation.
The work will certainly be advanced with the function and promptitude. The following will actually bis affine to grave the function of the Columbian tation.
