

of north latitude. If the Senate should support these resolutions, it is clear that the question can only be settled thereafter by force of arms; and should this be the case, and a war be commenced between this country and Great Britain, no peace can ever take place between the two countries but by our dictation at the cannon's mouth.

Mr. President, the vote upon these resolutions will draw a broad line, which cannot be misunderstood, between those who are in favor of settling the question by an appeal to arms, and those in favor of a more pacific course. I myself am in favor of a pacific course—of an adjustment, if possible, by negotiation; and under these views and impressions, Mr. President, I have prepared a series of resolutions antagonistic to those of the Senator from Indiana, and asserting the opposite principles, which I propose to move by way of amendment to the resolutions of the Senator, and ask also that they be printed. I think it is a proper occasion for avowing the sentiments which I entertain upon this subject. I am for peace, if peace can be honorably preserved. I am in favor of adjusting the difficulty, if it can be adjusted, by negotiation; if it cannot be adjusted by negotiation, I am in favor of that course to be pursued by this Government which shall throw the onus of a war from our own shoulders upon Great Britain. I approve of the course taken by this Government in offering the 43rd parallel, under all the circumstances of the case, as the boundary. I believe that the desire of the Executive is, like my own, for peace—for an honorable peace; but if an honorable peace cannot be preserved, if we are to have war, I will stand by my country in every emergency. I shall never be found antagonist to her, though overruled by those who take an opposite view from my own. But should a war take place, it is not going to be an ordinary war, and while I will give every support to my country, I will hold those responsible who rashly precipitate the country into a war. Sir, on a deliberate view of the question, I hope that whenever it comes fairly before the Senate for discussion, we shall discuss it in the calmest manner, and when its true grounds are clearly seen and understood, we shall come to the conclusion to avert a war if possible; but if not, that we shall be united as one man in support of the country.

Mr. C.'s resolutions were then read as follows:
RESOLVED, That the President of the United States has power, "by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to make treaties, provided two-thirds of the Senate present concur."
RESOLVED, That the power of making treaties embraces that of settling and fixing boundaries between the territories and possessions of the United States and those of other Powers, in cases of conflicting claims between them in reference to the same.

A HUSBAND KILLED BY HIS WIFE.
At a fair held last week at Lancaster, Ohio, a man, named Maxfield, behaved so outrageously, that it was resented by a young fellow, named Jenkins, who dealt a blow on Maxfield's head with a weapon called a "colt," that is, a heavy leaded ball enclosed in one end of a strip of cloth. The blow injured the man so much that, when he got home, he was incapable of relating what had happened, but manifested evident symptoms of insanity, which his wife attributed to a freak of foolery; when she snatched up the tongs and dealt him a severe blow on the already wounded head, remarking that "she would cure him of his foolery by beatin' sense into his head." The unfortunate stroke of the tongs finished the work; the poor fellow died in the course of a day at two. Young Jenkins and the wife of the deceased have been arrested.

THE END.—The end—the end—always have the end in view. If you take a cigar, drink a glass of spirits, violate the creed of virtue, speak an untruth, or lift a copper from your master's drawer, think of the consequences—the end of your course. Will it be pleasant to reflect upon at night? Will it add to your respectability and reputation? If the young men would always have the end in view, the number of transgressors would be small indeed.

EDUCATION.—Education is a companion which no misfortune can depress, no climate destroy; no enemy alienate; no despotism enslave. At home a friend; abroad an introduction; in solitude a solace; in society an ornament; it chastens vice; it guides virtue; it gives at once ornament to genius.

OLE BULL, a foreign fiddler, who came to the United States last spring, has it is said, held 200 concerts in various cities, realizing nearly $80,000—took passage for Europe a few days since. Great country this. $80,000 would furnish many destitute with clothing and a Bible—but our elite preferred giving it to a fiddler.—Ohio Repository.

New Counterfeit.
Mechanics' Bank, Newark, N. J.—10's altered from 2's. Vignette, female holding a child in her arms. Reapers, &c. in the distance. Unlike the true 10's. Dedham Bank, Dedham, Mass.—5's letter A. Vignette, a female figure with a scroll in her hand—trains of cars in the background.

DELAWARE COUNTY.—The good people of this county are beginning to get up an excitement about the removal of their seat of justice. A recent convention decided, on the 5th ballot, that the county property in Providence township was the proper place for it. This is some miles inland from "Old Chester," and was believed by our House to be there located.—Penna.

MAIL TO TEXAS.
A regular mail now leaves New Orleans for Galveston about every five days. It is necessary that the postage on all letters and papers should be pre-paid, not only to New Orleans, but from that city to Galveston.

WHAT NEXT?—The Emperor of Russia has sent in a claim for the Oregon Territory, and has just given notice to all American vessels not to frequent any of the creeks, bays, and harbors north of the latitude of 54 degrees 40 minutes.

GREAT FIRE IN COLUMBUS GEORGIA.—A destructive fire broke out in Columbus, Geo., on the 21st ult., at midnight, which consumed nearly a whole square, occupying an area of about 600 feet by 300. The loss of buildings is supposed to be from $109,000 to $150,000.

SHOCKING!
The Portland Argus states that a poor old woman froze to death on the Hill, in that city on Thanksgiving night! A shocking finale to Thanksgiving day.

CAUTION.—It ought to be generally known that white swellings are frequently induced by pressing bureau and other drawers into their proper position with the knee.

The Revenue of Boston.
The net revenue, for the four quarters, 1844, was $5,934,945 14; for the four quarters, 1845, $5,230,759 19; being a decrease for 1845 of $704,184 95.
