Poetry.

I Love the Ladies Every One.

BY JAMES STILLMAN.
I love the ladies, every one
The laughing ripe brunette;
Those dark eyed daughters of the sun,
With tresses black as jet.
What rapture in their glances glow,
Rich tints their cheeks disclose,
And in the little dimples there,
Young smiling Love repose.
I love the ladies, every one,
The blonde so soft and fair,
With looks so mild and languishing,
And bright and golden hair;
How lovely are their sylph-like forms,
Their alabaster hue,
And their blushes far more beautiful
Than rose buds bathed in dew.
I love the ladies every one,
E'en those whose graceless forms
Are rugged as the oak that's borne
A hundred winter's storms.
The young, the old, the stout, the thin,
The short as well as tall,
Widows and wives, matrons, and maids,
O, yes, I love them all.
I love the ladies, every one,
None but a wretch would flout 'em
This world would be a lonely place,
If we were left without 'em.
But lighted by a woman's smile,
Away, all gloom is driven,
And the most humble home appears
Almost a little heaven.
I love the ladies every one—
They're angels all, God bless 'em
And what can greater pleasure give,
Than to comfort and caress 'em.
I call myself a temperance man,
So I'll drink their health in water—
Here's to the mother's one and all,
And every mother's daughter.

I want a Beau.

I want a beau!—I want a beau!
'Tis sweet, at least they tell me so,
To waltz or walk or sail, or row,
With him you mean to marry.
And then—but O! it must be sweet!
To have one kneeling at one's feet,
And hear him there his vows repeat!
By Jove, but I will marry!
I'm old enough to have a beau!
And oft I tell my mamma so;
As often she replies, "Oh, no!
You are too young to marry!"
Odd zooks! 'tis always thus with those
Within whose bosoms coldly flows
The streams of love, to bells and beaux
Who have a mind to marry.
Maids who have their hearts for sale
Some forty years—whose charms are stale
May—and they have cause to rail
At those who wish to marry!
And ma's who, by experience taught,
Know all the bliss with which is fraught
The wedded life, I think should nought
Object when girls would marry.

The Speed of Lightning.
An occurrence took place between Albany and Utica during the past week, that shows with what rapidity communications may be made and to what utility the Magnetic Telegraph may be applied. The circumstances as related to us, are that a gentleman died in Albany, making his will, and giving directions that his body should be removed to Massachusetts for burial. Upon opening the will, it was discovered that he had bequeathed a large portion of his property to a young lady, then in Utica. The time for advising her of the fact was short before burial must of necessity take place. The friends had recourse to the Magnetic Telegraph to convey the intelligence of her good fortune, and to inquire if the cars were then at Utica, desiring her immediate attention at Albany. The result was, that in ten minutes from the time the communication was started from Albany, the young lady was in the cars at Utica, taking leave of her friends, ready to be whisked off to Albany.
The usefulness and convenience of the Telegraph is being tested in an hundred ways. The Members of the Bar use it almost hourly.
A Western Merchant who purchasing Iron here, not finding the particular kind he wanted, supposed he should have to send to New York, but by asking a question upon the wires, he was answered that he could supply himself at the store of Sanger & Benedict, Utica.

On Saturday Gen. Yates, who, with Dr. Nott was looking at the operation of the Telegraph, requested Mr. Carter to inquire whether the Western Cars had arrived at Utica from the West. The answer was "No." In ten minutes the question was repeated, and the answer "Yes," was returned. The General then sent an order for a Salmon Trout, which, in the event of its coming by the Cars, he promised to divide with Dr. Nott, so that each might dine from a Fish ordered from Utica (96 miles) at 10 o'clock A. M. of the same day. When the Cars arrived, the Salmon Trout, as per order, made its appearance!—Albany Journal.

Naval Anecdote.

Before the war, says the Nautical Magazine, Captain Carden and the Macedonian were at Norfolk; Ducatur was there too, and a warm intimacy soon joined in friendship two kindred hearts. While discussing naval affairs one day, Carden said: "Ducatur, your ships are good enough, and you are a clever set of fellows; but what practice have you in war? There's the rub. One of these days we will probably have a brush together, and if I catch your ship at sea, I will knock her into a cocked hat, Stephen." "Will you?" said Ducatur; "I will bet you a hat on it." The bet was agreed on, and the conversation changed. But a few months elapsed ere the war that had been threatening commenced, and the two captains, by some singular coincidence, met. The results of the action are known. Captain Carden, on going on board the United States, was received by a Lieutenant at the gangway, to whom he tendered his sword. "Not to me, sir," said the officer, "but to the Captain." "And where is the Captain?" said the embarrassed Englishman. "He is standing aft, there; that is the gentleman, sir, in a tarpaulin hat and round jacket." Carden went aft—and his feelings on meeting, under such circumstances, his old friend, may be imagined. As he offered his sword to Ducatur, the officer said: "No, Carden, I never take the sword of a brave man—you have fought gallantly. But," said he, laying his hands on the other's shoulder, "I will take that hat my dear fellow." In transferring to the United States the suite of Capt. Carden, a fine band was included. In the afternoon, when dinner was announced in the cabin, Capt. Carden said to Ducatur: "Those musicians are very skilful, and I have always had them on deck while at dinner." "Very well," said Ducatur, "we will have them up." The band was ordered on deck to play, and Com. Ducatur was asked what air he would like to hear. "Let them play Britannia Rules the Wave," said he, with a slight laugh.

Nullifying a Pardon.

Sometime last fall a pedlar was convicted in Cumberland county of selling goods without license and sentenced to pay a fine of $50, in default of which he was committed to prison. He immediately received a pardon from Governor Shunk, remitting the fine. A motion was then made to the Court for a rule to show why the F. F. A. should not be set aside on the ground that the defendant had obtained a remission of the fine by the Governor's Pardon. When the rule came up it was argued by the defendant that the Governor has the power of remitting any fine due the commonwealth before the money is actually paid. It was contended on the other side that the commonwealth had nothing to do with this fine, as one half was to go to the county and the other half to the informer, and that, therefore the Governor could not remit the fine, as the informer and the county had obtained a vested interest.—Judge Hepburn, sustained this view of the case, and accordingly decided that the pardon was ineffectual to relieve the defendant from the fine. The Judge's opinion is given in full in the Carlisle Volunteer, from which we gather these facts, and we believe it fully sustains the position he has taken in the matter. The independence he has shown in resisting the improper interference of the Executive with the ends of justice, we hope will have the effect to restrain him from exercising his pardoning power in all doubtful cases, if nothing more.—Lancaster Union.

THE SLAVE TRADE.—The schooner PATUXENT was recently captured by the American ship YORKTOWN, on the coast of Africa, as being engaged in the slave-trade. Both vessels put into Bermuda, from whence they are hourly expected to arrive.
The Liberia Herald states that the slavers at Gallinas are at length forced into a rather unpleasant predicament. They have been lately so closely watched by the cruisers as not to be able to ship any slaves since the Atalanta left. The Patuxent's cargo of three hundred was ready, (as the Herald states,) and had been marched down to Cape Mount, somewhere in the vicinity of which they would have been shipped in two or three days, if she had not been taken. This last hope being cut off, it seems, the slavers, in despair of an opportunity to ship, and unwilling to bear any longer the expense of feeding the slaves, emptied their barracoons, and gave away the slaves, or divided them among the head-men of the country, to labor for them as an equivalent for their food, with the promise given that they should be promptly returned when there was an opportunity to ship them.

TEXAS.—It is stated that Texas is divided into 35 counties. Galveston is the largest city, and Houston the next. Austin the seat of government, has a population of 1500, and Washington about the same number. Saint Antonia de Bexar, the oldest town in the State, has the largest church & monastery in the country & has fallen to a population of about 2500.

Valuable Farm Private Sale.

SITUATE in Shade township, Somerset county, adjoining lands of David Rogers, Jesse Berkebile, John Powell and others, containing about 350 ACRES of land, about one hundred and fifty of which are cleared, the remainder is covered with the best of timber; there is a good proportion of meadow and there may be one hundred acres made into the best of meadow, the UPLAND will all produce clover and timothy, and every species of grain; the land nearly all lies to the sun, and it is decidedly the best tract in that part of the county. It lies about a mile and a half from the old furnace, and about three miles from the new one, it contains an abundance of IRON ORE, and there is every indication of coal on many parts of the surface. The improvements are indifferent, consisting of an old log barn and house, and a new log stable; there are on the premises many fine never failing springs of the purest water; there is not perhaps in the county a farm combining more advantages as a grazing, dairy and grain farm, it has on it a small ORCHARD, and is under tolerably good fence. Persons wishing to purchase a good property are requested to call on Robert W. Mason living on the premises, who will show them every part thereof, or to enquire concerning it of Mr. Postlethwaite in Somerset, or of the subscriber living in the borough of Stoystown.

HOTEL FOR INVALIDS AT PITTSBURGH.
Drs. Speer and Kuhn.
THE object of this establishment is to supply a want greatly felt by respectable travellers on our western highways—by residents, without family, taken sick—and by patients from the surrounding towns and country who resort to this place for relief from surgical and other diseases. Such have often suffered from the want of the various comforts and attentions so necessary and agreeable to the sick, and from careless and unfaithful nurses; and been subjected to heavy and unreasonable charges.
Invalids will here be provided with constant, faithful and comfortable attendance, and at a rate much below the usual charges.
While the care of both physicians will be extended to every variety of disease, it is intended by Dr. Speer, to give special attention to
ALL SURGICAL DISEASES, PARTICULARLY TO DISEASES OF THE EYE.
To these branches of his profession he has given a large share of his attention for the last twenty-five years, and he will continue to devote to them the experience acquired by a constant practice during that time.
The Hotel for Invalids is not an experiment. Its establishment is suggested not only as necessary to supply an evident want in this city, in the entire absence of any special provision for the sick, but is warranted also by the success of similar institutions at Cincinnati and New Orleans—the former under the care of Drs. Taliaferro, Marshall and Strader—the latter under that of Dr. Stone.
The building selected for the purpose is situated at the corner of Federal and Robinson streets, in Allegheny city, adjoining the city of Pittsburg. It is commodious and roomy, and furnished with all accommodations necessary for the sick.
Applications for admission to be made to the subscribers, at their office on Penn street, Pittsburg, or at the establishment.
No contagious diseases will be admitted.

VALUABLE Real Estate FOR SALE.
THE subscribers, agents and attorneys for A G Cole, offer for sale on advantageous terms, the following described real estate, to wit: That well known TAVERN STAND AND FARM, late the property of Jacob Probasco and John Baker, Esq., on the National Road, in Henry Clay township, Fayette county, Pa, and one mile west of the village of Somersfield in Somerset county, together with the appurtenances thereto belonging. This property consists of about one hundred and fifty-three acres of land, a greater portion of which is cleared and under cultivation and in meadow. The buildings consist of a large and convenient DWELLING HOUSE, partly stone and partly frame, commodious stabling and other out-buildings. The location of this property being one mile from the town of Somersfield, abounding in wood and Stone coal; having a Saw Mill and Grist Mill adjacent thereto and plenty of water remaining through the land, renders it an important and valuable situation for any kind of business. The premises have been for a long time occupied as a Tavern Stand. The stand is admirably adapted for the accommodation of all kinds of Drovers. Persons desirous of purchasing the property, are requested to call on Joshua B. Howell and E. P. Oliphant, of Uniontown, Pa., who will give every information desired, concerning said property.

This is to certify, that having been associated with Dr. McLane in the practice of medicine for nearly two and a half years, I have had many opportunities of witnessing the good effects of his Liver Pills, and I believe they have cured and relieved a much larger proportion of the diseases of the liver, than I have known cured and relieved by any other course of treatment.
Dec. 7, 1836. OLIVER MORGAN, M.D.
This is to certify, that I purchased from Holmes & Kidd a vial of Dr. McLane's American Worm Specific, and gave two doses to a boy of mine about three years of age. He passed fully half a pint of worms. The quantity was so large I was really alarmed, and called in several of my neighbors to see them. DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILL.
For the cure of Hepatitis or Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and Sick Head-Ache.
THIS remedy having been for several years employed by the proprietor in his practice, on a very large scale in Monongalia, Preston, Harrison and Randolph counties, in Virginia, besides several other places, and having been attended with the most happy effects, he has been from time to time solicited to adopt such a course as would give it a more extensive circulation, with a view to lessen the amount of human suffering. Aware of the fact that many useless nostrums have been palmed upon the public, he hesitated for several years until thoroughly convinced that the above medicine, if properly used, would not fail to effect cures in a great many instances, and even to alleviate those cases which are quite incurable.

Symptoms of a diseased Liver.—Pain in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increased on pressure sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for a rheumatism in the right arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels, in general, are costive, sometimes alternating with the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight dry cough is sometimes attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body after death has shown the liver to have been extensively deranged.

CERTIFICATES.
This is to certify, that having been associated with Dr. McLane in the practice of medicine for nearly two and a half years, I have had many opportunities of witnessing the good effects of his Liver Pills, and I believe they have cured and relieved a much larger proportion of the diseases of the liver, than I have known cured and relieved by any other course of treatment.
