Poetry.

(From the Ohio State Journal.)
My Boy.

I have a little bright haired boy,
With eyes of blue-bell hue,
And cheeks as rosy and fresh
As roses bathed with dew,
His lips as fragrant seem to mine,
As strawberries in May,
And with his lisping voice he sings,
Hurrah hurra for CLAY.

Three summers only hath he seen,
And when I hear his voice,
So full of melody and glee,
It makes my heart rejoice.
He sings full many a merry tune
And old familiar way,
But 'mong them all he loves the best,
To sing hurra for CLAY!

One said to him, "Don't sing that song,
My boy; 'tis quite too late,
Hurrah for Polk and Dallas now,
For Clay is out of date."
The boy looked up perplexed and sad,
As if he meant to say,
He's good, and I may sing for him,
Hurrah hurra for CLAY.

Yes, child, he is as worthy now
As in his palmiest days,
When voices joined the shout and song,
That now forget to raise:
Those voices will be heard again,
And join some other lay
As loud, as long, as bold and free
As when they sang for CLAY.

But I will teach thee, darling boy,
If I am spared by fate,
That noble deeds and daring truth
Are never out of date;
And teach thy infant lips to sing—
The world may say what it may—
Another, and as great a name,
The name of CASSIUS CLAY.

And when thou com'st to be a man,
Oh! may my gurdion be,
To see thee firm and fearless stand
The friend of Liberty.
The champion of the poor oppress'd,
Owning no tyrant's sway.
E'er struggling for thy country's weal
As true as CASSIUS CLAY.

Jonathan's visit to a Printing Office.

Did you ever go down to the printers,
And see all them "devils" at work?
I declare it beats all to flinters
Mother's fuss when we kill our pork.

Them fellers, they stand right up straight,
And pick up little pieces of lead,
Stuck in little cubby holes, thicker 'll beate,
Than seeds in our big parsnip bed.

Then they keep sneaking and ducking & bobbing,
And winking, like Patty's old drake
When he's gobbling up corn, or a robin
That stands on one leg on a stake.

Then they've got too, a cast iron press,
It beats father's for cider and cheese;
'Tis tarnation hard work I guess,
And it gives a confounded tight squeeze.

There's a thundering great roller, I snow,
They keep pushing, the Lord knows for what,
And the papers would cover our mow,
Such a whopping big heap they have got.

I'd no notion, I vum, 'twas such ternal
Hard work to print papers and books;
But I mean to subscribe for the 'Journal,'
And go home and tell all the folks.

Population of a Hotel.

The New Orleans Picayune gives the following notice of the St. Charles Hotel of that city. It is a perfect fourierite establishment in regard to numbers.

"We have been at some little pains to come at the population of the St. Charles Hotel, and other statistics in relation to the establishment, and have ascertained that no less than five hundred and two regular boarders, besides one hundred and seventy employers, servants &c. &c.—nearly 700 in all within the walls of the building. This would form quite a village in the country. The daily consumption of some of principal articles of food is as follows: 50 lbs. fresh beef, 150 lbs. mutton, 24 turkeys, 50 chickens, 30 pairs wild ducks, 30 dozen robins and other small birds, 120 lbs. ham, six to ten thousand oysters, 120 to 130 dozen eggs, 75 gallons milk, 350 loaves baker's bread, 50 lbs. coffee, 19 lbs. tea, 225 lbs. sugar, 6 lbs. potatoes, 75 lbs. salt beef and pork, besides any quantity of venison, deer, grouse and other items entirely too tedious to mention," as they say in the advertisements.

Mechanical Occupations.

It was lately stated that a well known builder in this city had contracts for building nineteen stores in the burnt district, besides other engagements in various parts of the city, the profits on which, in a single year, would realize a fortune. Is not this fact of sufficient importance to induce Parents to place well educated sons at mechanical pursuits in preference to liberal professions? Here is one calling only, that of a builder; look at its results. From being an educated man, understanding his business, having the confidence of the community, he commands their choice and profitable contracts. Go also to ship building, a business full as profitable, and requiring skill, neatness and dexterity. Look to our furnaces—to engineering, to working in gold, copper, tin and iron, and other profitable branches of the mechanic arts.—There is always certainty and security in these pursuits. What would those successful men, making their $10,000 per annum, do as Lawyers? Visiting their offices daily, reading periodicals, smoking segars or waiting for a client. As Physicians, finding the business overstocked; and thus drag out their best days in unavailing effort to secure employment, whereas in the mechanic arts employment seeks them. We hope to see a change in this system—and that children, uniting with parents for the promotion of their own good, will secure to themselves a business employment or calling that, with industry, cannot fail to make them independent.—N. Y. Sun.

The Buckeye Women.

The ladies of Ohio are regular amazons, when they have a will to exterminate a social pest in the shape of liquor distillers, as may be inferred from the following incident related in the last Western Washingtonian:

In Medina county, the last distillery has been stopped, and converted into a Temperance Hall by the ladies. The incident related by the delegate from that county is as follows:

The ladies appointed a committee of six to wait upon the distiller and requested him to desist. He refused,—but happened that the husband of a lady in the neighborhood (who was a strong athletic woman) was in the habit of visiting the distillery, and remaining often days at a time, in the most beastly state of intoxication. She had often remonstrated with the distiller, but to no effect—he would sell. One day, being absent longer than usual, she went to the distillery to hunt him. The distiller informed her that he was not there, she persisted in the declaration that he was. He attempted to put her out, when she turned upon him and threw him into a mud hole some two feet deep, and his clerk coming to the rescue she threatened him in the same way. She then found her husband laying in a dying state in the office. She lifted him up, supported his feeble frame to her humble home, told the distiller she would give him three days to close up his business, and if he did not, she would bring a reinforcement of ladies and tear it down.—On the second day he sent her word that he had closed up, and opened his distillery for a temperance meeting!

Charcoal for Peach Trees.

A friend of mine has just informed me of the success he has met with, by the application of charcoal to his peach trees; a few years ago he had some fine trees in his garden which invariably had wormy fruit; and the trees full of gum; when the fruit was about the size of marbles, he had the earth removed from each tree about 2 feet around and 3 inches deep, and filled up with charcoal; the result was that the fruit grew to a fine size free from worms; and every year since, the fruit has been good, and the trees became healthy and free from gum; while two trees left without the charcoal, continue to bear wormy fruit, and the trees unhealthy; as this will be in time for the readers of the Cultivator to make a trial this year, and should it prove as good with others as in this case, it will certainly be of great benefit to the fruit grower.

If farmers will plant their pumpkins, melons and other vines on land that brought corn the past year, they will never be troubled with the striped bug. This course has been practiced here for many years, and has always proved successful, when vines planted on land that had any other crop, even vines the year previous, are destroyed by the bug.

A new Feature for Oregon.

Should the United States ever come into possession of the whole of Oregon we will then have within the bounds of the Union a curiosity far greater than either the Falls of the Niagara or the Mammoth Cave, Kentucky, according to the following from the Newburyport Herald:

"Should we ever extend our possessions over North Oregon as far as the Bonanzoli mountains, near the seventh parallel we shall reach that latitude where the sun does not set in summer.—Near the mountains, in summer the sun appears to stand as still as it did in the days of Joshua. In June it is twenty-five degrees above the horizon at "midnight," and the only mode of knowing that it is "midnight," is watching the sun when it begins to ascend. Fowls go to roost at 7 P. M. and repose until the sun is well up. In winter it is of course the reverse, as in the high latitudes the sun is not seen for six weeks."

Valuable Farm AT Private Sale.

SITUATE in Shade township, Somerset county, adjoining lands of David Rogers, Jesse Berkebie, John Powell and others, containing about

350 ACRES of land, about one hundred and fifty of which are cleared, the remainder is covered with the best of timber; there is a good proportion of meadow and there may be one hundred acres made into the best of meadow, the

UPLAND will all produce clover and timothy, and every species of grain; the land nearly all lies to the sun, and it is decidedly the best tract in that part of the county. It lies about a mile and a half from the old furnace, and about three miles from the new one, it contains an abundance of

IRON ORE, and there is every indication of coal on many parts of the surface. The improvements are indifferent, consisting of an old log barn and house, and a new log stable; there are on the premises many fine never failing springs of the purest water; there is not perhaps in the county a farm combining more advantages as a grazing, dairy and grain farm, it has on it a small ORCHARD, and is under tolerably good fence. Persons wishing to purchase a good property are requested to call on Robert W. Mason living on the premises, who will show them every part thereof, or to enquire concerning it of Mr. Postlewhite in Somerset, or of the subscriber living in the borough of Stoystown.

HOTEL FOR INVALIDS AT PITTSBURGH.

Drs. Speer and Kuhn. THE object of this establishment is to supply a want greatly felt by respectable travellers on our western highways—by residents, without family, taken sick—and by patients from the surrounding towns and country who resort to this place for relief from surgical and other diseases. Such have often suffered from the want of the various comforts and attentions so necessary and agreeable to the sick, and from careless and unfaithful nurses; and been subjected to heavy and unreasonable charges.

Invalids will here be provided with constant, faithful and comfortable attendance, and at a rate much below the usual charges.

While the care of both physicians will be extended to every variety of disease, it is intended by Dr. Speer, to give special attention to

ALL SURGICAL DISEASES, PARTICULARLY TO DISEASES OF THE EYE. To these branches of his profession he has given a large share of his attention for the last twenty-five years, and he will continue to devote to them the experience acquired by a constant practice during that time.

The Hotel for Invalids is not an experiment. Its establishment is suggested not only as necessary to supply an evident want in this city, in the entire absence of any special provision for the sick, but is warranted also by the success of similar institutions at Cincinnati and New Orleans—the former under the care of Drs. Taliaferro, Marshall and Strader—the latter under that of Dr. Stone.

The building selected for the purpose is situated at the corner of Federal and Robinson streets, in Allegheny city, adjoining the city of Pittsburg. It is commodious and roomy, and furnished with all accommodations necessary for the sick.

Applications for admission to be made to the subscribers, at their office on Penn street, Pittsburg, or at the establishment. No contagious diseases will be admitted.

DR. McLANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS.

For the cure of Hepatitis or Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and Sick Head-ache. THIS remedy having been for several years employed by the proprietor in his practice, on a very large scale in Monongalia, Preston, Harrison and Randolph counties, in Virginia, besides several other places, and having been attended with the most happy effects, he has been from time to time solicited to adopt such a course as would give it a more extensive circulation, with a view to lessen the amount of human suffering. Aware of the fact that many useless nostrums have been palmed upon the public, he hesitated for several years until thoroughly convinced that the above medicine, if properly used, would not fail to effect cures in a great many instances, and even to alleviate those cases which are quite incurable.

Symptoms of a diseased Liver.—Pain in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increased on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for a rheumatism in the right arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels, in general, are constive, sometimes altering with lax, the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having flesh undone something which ought to have been done. A slight dry cough is sometimes attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body after death has shown the liver to have been extensively deranged.

CERTIFICATES. This is to certify, that having been associated with Dr. McLane in the practice of medicine for nearly two and a half years, I have had many opportunities of witnessing the good effects of his Liver Pills, and I believe they have cured and relieved a much larger proportion of the diseases of the liver, than I have known cured and relieved by any other course of treatment.

Patent Vermifuge.

Dr. McLANE'S AMERICAN WORM SPECIFIC Promptly expels Worms to an almost incredible number!

Testimonies could be adduced, out of which the following are selected, from individuals of standing and veracity. Indeed, it is confidently affirmed that each new trial of the powers of this remedy will have an additional tendency to widen and confirm its fame, and that if it were universally known and diffused over the United States, it would not save less than many hundreds, if not thousands of lives annually.

CERTIFICATES. I do certify that a trial of Dr. McLane's American Worm Specific expelled five hundred and two whole worms and pieces that would have made sixty more, from a boy of John Lewelling, which, if laid in a straight line, would have most probably measured the enormous length of one hundred yards. JOSHUA JACKSON, owner of Wate's Forge, and other works, Monongalia county, Pa.

This is to certify that I purchased from Holmes & Kidd a trial of Dr. McLane's American Worm Specific, and gave two doses to a boy of mine about three years of age. He passed fully half a pint of worms. The quantity was so large I was really alarmed, and called in several of my neighbors to see them. Had this story been related to me, I could not have credited it, without being an eye-witness to the same. My child's health improved much after.

SAM'L MORRISON, Merchant Tailor, Wood st, Pittsburg.

Some two months ago I purchased a trial of Dr. McLane's American Worm Specific. I gave a boy of mine most of a trial; he passed forty very large worms. From that time his health improved very much. I had tried two other Vermifuges to no purpose. I believe Dr. McLane's is the best article before the public. D. GALHOUN, Millin township, Allegheny county.

HEAR MEDICAL TESTIMONY. From a regular Physician, Dr. G. S. Smith, Smith, Ohio.

Mr. J. Kidd—Dear Sir—I have used in my practice Dr. McLane's American Worm Specific, and have often witnessed its efficacy in expelling worms from the system. A patient of mine, a short time ago, gave a trial of the Worm Specific to a child; in a short time upwards of sixty worms were expelled.
