FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER.

JAMES M. POWER, OF MERCER COUNTY.

Both Houses of the Legislature have agreed to adjourn to-morrow, the 22nd.

A part of Mr. Stewart's speech on Internal Improvements and the Tariff, will be found on first page; the remainder will be given next week.

"THE TRIBUNE," is the title of a new Whig paper just commenced in Lancaster, by R. W. Middleton, Esq., formerly editor of the "Lancaster Union." The paper presents a handsome appearance, is conducted with ability, and is published at $1 00 per annum.

Rifle Regiment.

The bill for raising a regiment of mounted Riflemen passed the United States House of Representatives, on the 11th inst., by a vote of 137 to 35. It will no doubt pass the Senate also.

Enlistment.

The New Orleans Picayune states that orders had been received at the different recruiting stations of the South to push forward the enlistment of men for the ranks of the Army with all vigor, and to obtain as many soldiers as possible.

From Washington we learn, that the debate in the Senate on the Oregon resolutions was to be brought to a close on Thursday last.

Thomas Ritchie, Jr., and the others that were engaged in the fight which resulted in the death of John P. Pleasants, have all been tried and acquitted!

The Tariff Resolutions Defeated.

The "Democracy" in our State Legislature have finally defeated the Tariff Resolutions. They had passed the House some time ago, containing an amendment instructing our Senators and Representatives in Congress to oppose the passage of any bill for the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands. The Senate struck out the amendment and sent the Resolutions to the House, where the Resolutions thus amended were defeated by the following vote:

YEAS.—Messrs. Bachman, Barber Bartholomew, Bassler, Bentz, Bigham, Brough, Boyer, Brackenridge, Bright, Cochran, Connor, Cross, Donaldson, Eddie, Hilens, Jacobs, Johnson Keller, Kunkel, Ladley, Larkin, Magehan, Morrison, M'Crum, M'Curdy, M'Curley, M'Farland, Nicholson, Power, Purnoy, Franklin, Pomerooy, (Morcer), Price, Robinson, Shuman, Steel Stewart, (Franklin), Strauss, Thomas, (Chester), Trege and Wadsworth—42.

NAYS.—Messrs. Armstrong, Bird, Boughner, Burns, Burnside, Burrell, Clark, Daly, Dotts, Enue, Fasset, Fernon, Forsyth, Funston, Galloway, Gray, Gwin, Hallowell, Haymaker, Hill, (Montgomery), Hineine, Hoffman, Ives, James Kain, Knox, Levan, Means, Merrifield, Mitchell, Murphy, M'Abbe, M'Clelland, Owen, Piolet, Rider, Rupert, Samuels, Snyder, Stetler, Taggart, Thomas, (Susquehanna), Tice Van Hoff, West, Webb, Wilson, Worman and Patterson, Speaker—49.

The Sub-Treasury.

The Loco Foco Baltimore Convention is in a fair way to produce consequences more disastrous to the country than ever proceeded from any other body of men. They commenced their labors by repudiating the Presidential candidate they had been instructed to nominate. This was done to "enlarge the area of FREEDOM," by extending the boundaries of SLAVERY! Mr. Van Buren was rightly served, though for a wrong reason.

That Convention, in its Resolutions claimed the whole of Oregon, demanded the adoption of the Sub-Treasury scheme, and the destruction of the Tariff. The President elected under these Resolutions is endeavoring to carry them out. His own friends, however, hold him back on the Oregon Question, so that it is probable that the war may blow over. The Sub-Treasury bill has passed the House of Representatives, and will, it is said, pass the Senate. The Tariff may or may not go by the board. If both of these Baltimore outrages are perpetrated, the prosperity and the hopes of the country and the people will be blasted and darkened. Or, if the Sub-Treasury bill, with its grinding specie clause, passes, it will, to revive the emphatic figure of Senator King, of Georgia, "silver the head of this young republic with grey hair."—A. B. Journal.

FROM HARRISBURG.

The Right of Way Bill.

The first section of the Bill to grant the Right of way to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company passed second reading in the House of Representatives on Thursday.

The amendment of Mr. Kunkel, providing that in case three millions should be subscribed by the Central Railroad company, ten per cent paid in, and thirty miles put under contract by the 30th July, 1847, then the act to be null and void, was adopted, yeas 50, nays 48. This amendment, however, was further amended, requiring 30 per cent of three millions to be paid in; after which the first section passed by the following vote:—Yeas 50, Nays 48. This vote, it is believed, is decisive of the fate of the Bill. No doubt is entertained of its passage in this form.

LATER.—We have intelligence from Harrisburg, by way of Stoytown, that the Right of Way Bill had passed finally in the House on Friday; in what shape, we know not. The Bill would go to the Senate immediately for concurrence, as it had been materially altered after the passage in that branch—and it was probably not finally disposed of until yesterday.

OBITUARY.

Departed this life on Monday the 6th inst., a few minutes after mid-night, Mrs. JANE KIMMEL, wife of Mr. Samuel Kimmel, Merchant, near Stoytown; aged 37 years and 5 months.

"Nil mortuum nisi bonum" was an adage among the ancients, though it was very frequently departed from, in ancients, as it is in modern times, for it too often happens that "the evil that" persons "do live after them, whilst the good is oft interred with their bones." Let the adage of the day be what it may, "truth is powerful and will prevail," the faults of individuals will be spoken of whether they be living or dead and is still virtue enough left in the community, to praise their goodness. The deceased can neither be benefited by our praises, nor injured by our censures, but when an individual, who, (like the much lamented Mrs. Jane Kimmel,) has lived for years in our midst and been exemplary for every virtue calculated to adorn a woman, is snatched away by the hand of death, it is but a tribute of respect which we owe to her memory, to make allusion to those many good qualities which could be known only to her more immediate relatives and friends.

There are but few individuals of whom evil things are not sometimes said, but the writer can say that he has never known even the breath of slander to breathe aught that was not in her praise. Though filling an elevated station in life, she was kind and complaisant to the poorest and most humble, being superior to that petty pride, common to low and grovelling minds; she was a kind and affectionate wife and a tender mother; as the head of a large family she was ever attentive to its interests, being industrious and economical; in all her intercourse with her fellow creatures, she manifested the character of a lady, and last and best of all she was a Christian, having been for several years an exemplary and consistent member of the Presbyterian church; by her death female society has lost one of its brightest members; but who can calculate the loss of her husband and to those eight dear children whom she has left behind? No one; it is incalculable; yet, as she died in Christ, their loss is her eternal gain. VERITAS.

On Thursday evening last, Mrs. ANNE PARSON, consort of Mr. James Parson, of Somerset township, in the 35th year of her age.

Life tho' sweet, yet how uncertain, Held but by a fleeting breath; A tender thread suspends the curtain, And conceals approaching death.

On the 10th inst., near Lavansville, HERMAN, son of Jacob Flick, and adopted son of Henry and Elizabeth Young, in the 7th year of his age.

Oh! ever thus, from childhood's hour, I've seen my fondest hopes decay, I never loved a tree or flower, But 'twas the first to fade away.

Better to see and watch the ray And think thee safe though far away."

On the 9th inst., in Brothersvalley, MARY, consort of Jacob Flickinger, Sen. deceased, in the 76th year of her age.

On the 20th ult., in Stonycreek township, DANIEL, son of Daniel Will, aged 8 months and 27 days.

On the 24th ult., HENRY FRITZ, of Stonycreek township, aged 25 years 9 months and 23 days.

On the 23rd ult., in Somerset tp. SERRANA, consort of Jacob Good, aged 42 years and 23 days.

On the 1st inst., in Quemahoning tp. an infant child of Adam Warner, aged 1 year 7 months and 4 days.

On the 1st inst., WIDOW SWANK, of Somerset tp., aged 70 years.

On the 3rd inst., JONATHAN YODER, of Stonycreek tp. aged about 70 years.

MARRIED.
