The Kiss behind the Parlor Door.

BY J. WAKEFIELD.
 "Take all the pleasures, all those three
 Can give—wealth, fame and wine;
 Still all will be the same to me,
 While this remains but mine;
 But give me this—I'll nothing miss;
 For little needs he more
 Of pleasure, who can steal a kiss
 Behind the parlor door."
 If there's much pleasure in a kiss,
 That "wealth, and fame, and wine"
 Cannot compare with it, I'll make
 The precious treasure mine!
 Yes, though I meet with watchful aunts,
 And frowning "mas" a score,
 THE NEXT CHANCE I will steal a kiss
 Behind some parlor door!
 Now if it's as they say it is,
 That "stolen fruit is sweet,"
 It proves that kisses must be stolen
 To make the bliss complete.
 If so, I'll pluck them from the tree,
 Nor trouble heaven more!
 Oh, the kiss—the stolen kiss for me,
 Behind the parlor door!
 If KISSES WERE the fruit that graced
 The "tree of old fame,"
 In plucking them I do not think
 That Eve was much to blame;
 I find but one fault with the dame,
 Though some have found a score—
 To EAT the fruit she should have gone
 Behind the parlor door!

Cultivation of the Strawberry.

On a piece of ground intended for planting, spread a layer of long stable manure a foot thick. Trench the ground three feet deep, putting the manure at the bottom of the trench. Long manure is then spread on the surface of the trenched ground, to the depth of six inches, and afterwards dug in. Beds four feet wide are marked out, with a foot alley—between each—which is highly necessary, to prevent those who gather the fruit from treading between the plants; and, lastly the runners are planted two feet apart. A bed thus made, will last three years without requiring anything further, not even so much as top dressing; but should be removed and the beds kept free from weeds. As I make my plantations from July to October, the following spring—strawberries planted upon the ground thus prepared, do not require to be watered, even in the hottest weather, because of the depth to which the root will penetrate. I find that strong growing kinds, such as the British Queen, requires a more loamy soil than others.—If the planting is deferred until spring, the crop will not be half so large.—Gardener's Chronicle.

The Teeming West.

This name has been frequently given to the West, but it has never been so fully realized as during this fall. The arrival of 1,900,000 barrels of flour at the Hudson river in two months, is but an earnest of the future. It is hardly too much to say that the imagination can scarcely realize the fertility of the West. Michigan alone, under an active demand, could send 1,000,000 of barrels of flour to market, and yet that State does not comprise one-twentieth of the wheat land of the West. The amount of production is absolutely illimitable. It is even now considered enormous, when 2,800,000 barrels of flour came down by the Erie canal in the season of 1845, but that amount, if a market could be obtained, would expand in five years to 6,000,000 of barrels, and then the Western country would just begin to get cultivated.—Albany Argus.

PUBLIC DEBT OF TEXAS.

The House of Representatives of Texas have appointed a committee to inquire into the expediency of ceding to the Government of the United States the public lands of Texas for a just equivalent, for the purpose of providing means to liquidate the public debt of the State; to take into consideration the propriety of classifying and defining the public debt, and of appointing a board to ascertain and allot the same.
 A bill has been introduced into the Senate "for the liquidation and adjustment of the public debt." The bill proposes the appointment by the Governor and Senate of three commissioners to act upon the claims, at Austin, commencing on the 1st of June next, and thereafter on the first of every alternate month, with the powers of a court of law and equity, and whose decision is to have the effect of a judgment. The right of appeal is also to be allowed from their decision.

HOTEL FOR INVALIDS AT PITTSBURGH.

Dr. Speer and Kuhn.

THE object of this establishment is to supply a want greatly felt by respectable travellers on our western highways—by residents, without family, taken sick—and by patients from the surrounding towns and country who resort to this place for relief from surgical and other diseases. Such have often suffered from the want of the various comforts and attentions so necessary and agreeable to the sick, and from careless and unfaithful nurses; and been subjected to heavy and unreasonable charges.

Invalids will here be provided with constant, faithful and comfortable attendance, and at a rate much below the usual charges.

While the care of both physicians will be extended to every variety of disease, it is intended by Dr. Speer, to give special attention to

ALL SURGICAL DISEASES, PARTICULARLY TO DISEASES OF THE EYE.

To these branches of his profession he has given a large share of his attention for the last twenty-five years, and he will continue to devote to them the experience acquired by a constant practice during that time.

The Hotel for Invalids is not an experiment. Its establishment is suggested not only as necessary to supply an evident want in this city, in the entire absence of any special provision for the sick, but is warranted also by the success of similar institutions at Cincinnati and New Orleans—the former under the care of Drs. Taliaferro, Marshall and Strader—the latter under that of Dr. Stone.

The building selected for the purpose is situated at the corner of Federal and Robinson streets, in Allegheny city, adjoining the city of Pittsburg. It is commodious and roomy, and furnished with all accommodations necessary for the sick.

Applications for admission to be made to the subscribers, at their office on Penn street, Pittsburg, or at the establishment.

No contagious diseases will be admitted.

DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS.

For the cure of Hepatitis or Liver Complaint Dyspepsia and Sick Head-Ache.

THIS remedy having been for several years employed by the proprietor in his practice, on a very large scale in Monongalia, Preston, Harrison and Randolph counties, in Virginia, besides several other places, and having been attended with the most happy effects, he has been from time to time solicited to adopt such a course as would give it a more extensive circulation, with a view to lessen the amount of human suffering. Aware of the fact that many useless nostrums have been palmed upon the public, he hesitated for several years until thoroughly convinced that the above medicine, if properly used, would not fail to effect cures in a great many instances, and even to alleviate those cases which are quite incurable.

Symptoms of a diseased Liver.—Pain in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increased on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for a rheumatism in the right arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels, in general, are costive, sometimes altering with lax, the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning; he is complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few or them existed, yet examination of the body after death has shown the liver to have been extensively deranged.

CERTIFICATES.
 This is to certify, that having been associated with Dr. M'Lane in the practice of medicine for nearly two and a half years, I have had many opportunities of witnessing the good effects of his Liver Pills, and I believe they have cured and relieved a much larger proportion of the diseases of the liver, than I have known cured and relieved by any other course of treatment.
