Interesting Correspondence.

We publish to-day the principal part of the correspondence between Gen. Scott and the War Department, recently comthe Court House in Somerset, for the municated to the Senate under a call from little doing. The corn market was raththat body. It will be seen on reference er depressed, with slow sales to retail to it, that although Gen. MOSES HAMPTON, ESQ.

We are gratified to observe that this gentleman has been selected by the Whigs and Antimasons of Allegheny county as their candidate for Congress at pico. the ensuing election. If elected, as no doubt he will be, Mr. Hampton possesses both the WILL and the ABILITY to serve his constituents with advantage to them and honor to himself. Few men can boast a higher grade of talent, and none are more deserving of public confidence. He was for some years a resident of this county, and always sustained a high char- lic. acter for probity and integrity-and his numerous personal and political friends here rejoice at the prospect of his soon ness and honor.

Mr. Hampton did good service to the Whigs and Antimasons, not only in Allegheny county, whither he had then removed, but elswhere, whenever and wherever an opportunity offered to serve them-and to his zeal and ability, perhaps more than to obtained, because the clergy is not able those of any other individual, were they in. to pay the amount of $90,000 monthly, debted for the triumph which on that occasion they gained over their opponents in this State. In 1844 the power of his eloquence was again heard and felt in many of the public assemblies that were held in Western Pennsylvania to promote the election of MARKLE and CLAY-and altho' the contests of that year resulted unfavorably to the Whigs and Antimasons, he had the consolation of knowing that and fearlessly.

Mr. Hampton, when elected, will go into Congress with a reputation that cannot fail to give him an influence which, combined with his commanding talents, will render him, in a short time, one of the most useful members of that body-and the citizens of Allegheny, while they reap the benefits of his labors, will at the same time have cause to be proud of him as their Representative.

The suspension of payments continue and business remained in the worst condition. The Government had called a meeting for the purpose of procuring resources, which I believe can hardly be asked by the government; and on the othcr hand the actual condition of the several States is not such as to expect from them any resources.

It is rumored he had done his duty; fully, honorably, that as soon as the English hear of the declaration of war against Mexico, it will be the signal for them to take possession of the whole coast, and that it is their intention to do so. If they do attempt it look out for hard knocks. Although Com. Sloat's squadron is diminished by the return of Old Ironsides home, he will no doubt, when joined by Capt. Stockton, give a good account of himself."
