JAMES M. POWER. OF MERCER COUNTY.

COUNTY MEETING.

The Whigs and Antimasons of Somerset County are requested to meet at 2, P. M. on Tuesday the 14th of July, at the Court House in Somerset, for the put in nomination a candidate for Con-

By order of the County Committee.

THE 4TH.

The 4th was celebrated by the citizens quite pleasantly. Proceedings next week.

GRAND MILITARY ENCAMP MENT AT SOMERSET.

We are requested to state that on the 4th inst., the Somerset Guards and the citizens of Somerset, took the initiatory steps for a meeting of the Volunteers of this and the adjoining counties, in encampment at Somerset, some time during th month of September next. Committees of invitation and arrangement were appointed, whose names, together with the time fixed, will be published in our next. We have heard the third week in September suggested as the probable time to be agreed upon.

FOR MEXICO!

ington, reached this place on Wednesday encamped over night in Mr. Lichteberger's grove, half a mile from town. They are a set of fine looking fellows, and will no doubt do their country good service .-Capt. Washington very politely furnished us with the following particulars relative to his command.

His company numbers 85 men, besides some 8 or 10 attached to the baggage train. He carries with him 6 pieces cessary to the forming of a complete battery. Number of horses, 100. /The company left Carlisle on Thursday the 25th ultimo, and travelled from 14 to 20 miles per day. From here they proceeded to Wheeling, where they are to take steammarch by land 400 miles to San Antonio de Bexar, in Texas. They are to be attached to Gen. Wool's command, intended for the invasion of Mexico, and expect to proceed from San Antonio to some point on the Rio Grande.

Capt. Washington, we regret to state, had the misfortune on Wednesday morning of losing one of his men, near the summit of the Allegheny. The deceased, a young man named Samuel Poucher, had been seated on one of the gun-carriages, and, in consequence of the horses taking sudden fright, was precipitated to the ground and run over by the carriage. He survived the accident but a few minutes. His corps was brought to this place and interred the same evening with appropriate military honors, in the grave yard of the Lutheran Church. Divine service also was performed on the occasion by the Rev. P. Rizer. The deceased was a native of Owego county, N. Y., only 18 years of age, and had enlisted on the 25th of May last, in Harrisburg. Peace to his ashes.

Another of Capt. Washington's men also received some injury on Wednesday, by being thrown from his seat on the carriage, occasioned by the breaking of a bolt, but had so far recovered next morning as to be able to be conveyed forward in an omnibus.

Congressional Candidate.

Our locofoco friends in this Congressional District appear to have determined that Daniel Weyand, Esq., of Somerset, shall be their candidate for Congress at the ensuing election. Mr. Weyand is, what in common parlance is termed a "good-natured clever fellow," and will be able to bear a defeat as well as the next man-and as the "party" are bound to keep up appearances in the district by running one of their number every two years, Mr. Weyand may as well take his turn now as at any other time. We have no Whig candidate in the field as yet, and shall therefore add "no more at present," having offered her mediation between the as the letter writers say, barrin' this, that United States and Mexico, is not conwhen the election is over we shall proba- firmed. bly announce the result in something like the following manner:

Count the Cost. Now, that the Oregon Question is settled-permanently, we hope-it might be well enough for some one who has the means of doing it accurately, to count up the expense to which the nation has been subjected within the last half year on account of the difficulties which the Administration and its friends had thrown in the way of an amicable adjustment of that Question. All are aware that the main difficulty had its origin in the Baltimore Convention that nominated Mr. Polk which Convention resolved that our title to the whole of Oregon was "clear and unquestionable," and the principle of which resolve Mr. Polk, it appears felt himself bound to try to carry out. Finally however, -after months spent in fruitless endeavors at negotiation upon the basis assumed-after Congress had been engaged, more or less, from December till purpose of appointing conferees, to meet June in discussing the merits of the claim the conferees of Fayette and Greene, to set up by the Baltimore Convention and reiterated by the Executive in his Inaugural Address and again in his Annual Message-after having kept the nation in doubt and excitement for half a year or more in regard to this Question-Mr. and military of this place, and passed off Polk recedes from his position, gives up all, or nearly all that England claimed, and accepts a proposition to settle upon the basis of the 49th Parallel. Now, it must occur to every rational mind, that in claiming the whole of Oregon, Mr. Polk, either acted contrary to his own judgment, or that he had not until quite recently given the subject such attention as should enable him to understand it correctly .-Whatever the cause of it, certain it is that he has entirely changed his course in re gard to the Question, if not his opinion. None will complain, or at least none have cause to complain, of the settlement of the difficulty; but we think Mr. Polk has justly made himself liable to censure by his ready obedience to the fiat of the Baltimore Convention, and by adhering to A company of flying Artillery from the principle laid down by that body, as Carlisle, under command of Capt. The correspondent of the Diario de la Marina, of Havana, wries from the city of Mexico on the 29th, that not a sufficient number of members of Congress assembled to form a quorum; nevertheless, a preparatory session was held, and the writer adds that Sr. Bustamente, the ex-President may be considered as the President of Congress, and that there is every probability that Sr. Paredes will be elected President of the Republic, the Congress appearing to be devoted to him. It is added that should Paredes take the now in command of the troops at Vera Cruz, will be elected Vice President.

It is believed very generally that Congress will at once invest Paredes with dictatorial powers for a limited period, and then suspend its sessions. Many deputies had openly declared in favor of this course, and the country appeared to have reached such a crisis, that the concentration of all power in a single hand was called for. There had been another dissolution of the Ministry. The Secretaries of War dency. and the Treasury-Tornel and Hurbeare known to have resigned. The former it was thought, would be succeeded by Gen. D. Ignacio de Moray Vallamil, and the latter by D. Antonia Garay, a mer-

The great topic of conversation at the capital was the proposed departure of Paredes to take the command of the Army of the North. He himself was bent upon doing so, although dissuaded by many considerations of policy and by the advice of his friends. Should he take the field, it is said he would have under the troops of Arista.

Reports were in circulation in the city that Genecal Arista was to be called to the capital to answer charges preferred against him, but the correspondent of the Diario thinks this not at all probable.

The correspondent of the Diario de la Marina says, the finances of the nation remain in the same state; the payment of interest on the public debt is still suspended, and there were no transactions in the public funds. The Government had convoked a Junta with the view of procuring means for its emergencies. The President had failed to procure the relief which he had anticipated from the clergy.

P. S .- Since the above was written, the brig Emprescario, Capt. Collins, has arrived from Havana, bringing us dates one day later. We see little to add to what we have given above in regard to the Mexican news. The Mexicans set down their loss in the two battles at 262 killed, 335 wounded and 135 prisoners.
