

SOMERSET HERALD.

Somerset, Pa.,

TUESDAY, JULY 28, 1846.

V. B. PALMER Esq. of Philadelphia at his Real Estate and Coal Office, is our authorized Agent for obtaining Advertisements and Subscriptions for the "HERALD" and is clothed with full power to receipt for any monies paid to him on these objects.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER. JAMES M. POWER, OF MERCER COUNTY. FOR CONGRESS. ANDREW STEWART, OF FAYETTE COUNTY.

Something about Dunning.

We dislike the practice, so prevalent with publishers, of frequently dunning their subscribers for money, or we should ere this time have thrown out a few hints to persons who are indebted to us one, two, three years, and upwards, for subscription, advertising and job-work; but, much as we dislike the practice, we find that we shall have to adopt it; and if the class of patrons alluded to do not come forward before or during the ensuing court week and "fork over" at least a part of what they severally owe, we shall then be under the necessity of sending them—not a dun—but a dummer.

Our Candidate.

Mr. STEWART having been unanimously nominated by the Whig conferees of the District, we have raised his name to our mast-head as the candidate of the Whig and Antimasonic party for Congress at the ensuing election. The nomination of Mr. Stewart, so far as we have heard an expression of opinion, gives general satisfaction to the true friends of American industry, and we are happy to be able to add, to the personal friends of the other gentlemen whose names had been suggested for the consideration of the conferees. Of Mr. Stewart's election we entertain not a doubt. He has thus far faithfully served his constituents and the nation, and if he did not accomplish all that was desirable, it was only because facts and arguments could not prevail against numbers. We cannot speak for the other counties of the District, but feel persuaded that in Somerset county his majority at the ensuing election will be greater than it was on either of the former occasions when he was a candidate.

DANIEL WEYAND, ESQ.

We should like to learn what are Mr. Weyand's views of a protective Tariff. He is now a candidate for public favor, and we are desirous of giving our readers all the information we can as regards the "position" of each of the opposing candidates for Congress on great questions of national Policy. The Tariff is at this time the all-absorbing question with the people of Pennsylvania. The passage through the House of McKay's bill has alarmed them—and whether that bill becomes a law or is defeated in the Senate, the subject is not going to be put to rest the present session. It will engage the attention of the next Congress perhaps as much as it has done that of the present one—and hence the people have a right to expect that each candidate for a seat in that body will give his views in regard to it before soliciting their suffrages. On the part of Mr. Stewart no expose on this subject is necessary. From one extremity of the country to the other he is the known and acknowledged champion of the protective policy in Congress. No one can have a doubt as to what will be his course, if elected. Not so with Mr. Weyand. He is known to have been a warm supporter of Mr. Polk in 1844.—Many in Pennsylvania were led into the support of that gentleman under a belief that he was a thorough-going Tariff man, but now find that they were most grossly deceived. No one who is a real friend of the protective system can any longer adhere to an Administration that is acting so contrary to his expectations and adverse to his interests. The Administration and a Tariff are inconsistent with each other; they are as opposite as the poles; and we want no better evidence of a man being opposed to the latter than the fact that he is an adherent of the former. Mr. Weyand's "position" can therefore perhaps be best judged of when it is ascertained whether he is still a supporter of the Administration, or whether Mr. Polk's free trade doctrines, as promulgated in his messages and the reports of his Secretary of the Treasury, and recently put in form by Mr. McKay, have induced him to abandon it.

GOOD NEWS!

We have late advices from Baltimore, the purport of which are, that the Pittsburgh Committee has had a satisfactory interview with the directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, and that the probability is, that a Corps of Engineers will be immediately placed on the Pittsburgh and Conneville route to prepare the line for contract.—Pitts-Gazette.

HOPE.—The United States Gazette of yesterday says, we are gratified to give our readers the following few lines, which come as a postscript to Mr. Oldschool's letter:

"P.S. I think I can hold out a hope that the tariff will be saved in the Senate. Letters are being received from Locofocos in other parts of the country, denouncing McKay's bill and the administration in unmitigated terms. They are not without effect!!"

THE WAR WITH MEXICO.

A Washington letter writer says:—"The recent orders from the War Department, contemplate a movement by three divisions of the army of invasion into the interior, on or about the first of August; one via Monterey, under General Taylor in person, another under Gen. Wool, via the Presidia of the Rio Grande in a parallel line; another under General Kearney, and General Butler, via Santa Fe to California.

Adjournment.

Both Houses of Congress have resolved to adjourn on the 10th of August.—The present session will then have lasted over eight months.

The proceedings of the Whig conferees of this Congressional District will be given in detail next week.

A bill, appropriating $12,000,000, to pay volunteers, has passed Congress. This makes $21,000,000 for the war so far.

Acknowledging the Corn.

The editor of the Lancaster Democrat, a leading locofoco sheet, acknowledges straight up and down, that he and his party in Pennsylvania were cheated when they supported Mr. Polk as a Tariffman. Would that all locofoco editors were as honest as he of the Democrat.

Query. Are polk-stalks as plenty in these diggins now as they were in 1844?

In the House of Representatives recently, Mr. King of Georgia stated, that the prizes brought into the United States during the last war were 113 public vessels, and 2,083 private vessels.

CELEBRATION AT PETERSBURG.

The anniversary of our National Independence was ushered in by firing of a national salute of twenty eight guns at day break. At 10 o'clock, A. M. Capt. Ross and West's Volunteer companies, (the Addison Infantry and Allegany Riflemen,) formed at the house of William Reynolds and marched to the Methodist E.P. church, under command of A. Newlon, Esq., Chief Marshal; Andrew Craig, Sam'l Elder, Simon Keller and James Barton, Esqs. Assistant Marshals, and escorted the Petersburg Sabbath School, accompanied by the officers of the Washington Temperance Society and citizens generally, near William Reynolds's Hotel, where the Sabbath School refreshments were partaken of. The company then proceeded to the public square, between A. Newlon's and Samuel Elder's Hotels, where an American flag was presented to the Addison Infantry by A. J. Huxr, Esq., on behalf of the ladies of Petersburg and vicinity.

After the presentation of the flag, the companies accompanied by the orator of the day, proceeded to a bowery near Wm Reynolds's hotel and partook of an elegant repast.

The cloth being removed and the company assembled around a stand prepared for the occasion, John Bell, Esq., Pres't Rob't Hunter, Jacob Craver, Frederick Augustine, John A. H. William Burgess, James Roddy and Henry Wendling, Esqs., Vice Presidents, William Roddy and Robert Patrick, Esqs., Secretaries, took their seats.

On motion William Irvin, Esq., was introduced who read the Declaration of Independence.

On motion, F. M. Kimmel, delivered his address. The whole proceeding was interspersed with excellent music by the Military Musicians, and Somerset Independent Brass Band. On motion, they adjourned to meet on the 4th July 1847.

A correspondent of the N. York Sun, writing from Washington under date of July 15, gives the following, as part of that day's proceeding in the House of Representatives:—

The House went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Wentworth in the chair and took up the Bill to pay the mileage and per diem allowance of Members of Congress and for other purposes.

[Great merriment at the appearance of the chairman, who is celebrated for his extraordinary height.]

Various amendments were offered and rejected, one by Mr. Stewart proposed reducing the pay of the members to six dollars per day after a session of seven months, and to three dollars per day after a session of eight months. The bill was explained by Mr. McKay, and discussed and opposed by Mr. Hanneman. He did not like the provision in it for paying expenses to certain INDIANS.

Mr. Douglass got the floor and tried to speak, but nobody would listen to him—the House in its roars of merriment at the party decisions of the Chairman, would let no one be heard. Finally the Committee got up and the House adjourned, amid loud bursts of laughter on all sides.

SINNERS REPENTING.

We learn from the United States Gazette, that the locofocos are holding meetings at Reading and Pottsville, in Pennsylvania, to protest against the passage of McKay's tariff bill. They "look to the Senate," and implore the Hon. Geo. M. DALLAS, in case he has the casting vote, to save Pennsylvania from ruin. Were it not for the general distress that will ensue, we could almost rejoice at the prospect of their sufferings. These very men were told, over and over again, during the Presidential canvass, that the election of JAS. K. POLK would bring destruction to the protective policy. They had his votes and speeches against the tariff of '42 before them; and yet they turned traitors to their own interests, and made him President. They will now pay the price of their folly, and well do they deserve it.—They are full of repentance now, but let them escape the danger that threatens, and they will hug the free traders to their bosoms as fondly as ever. In less than three months—in time for the next election—they will have another set of banners bearing the inscription: "The Tariff of '42—the Whigs dare not repeal it."

Such is democracy, not the democracy of WASHINGTON, and JEFFERSON, and MADISON, but the bastard, cob-web democracy of our day, better known as Locofocoism.—Cumb. Civilian.

The American Sentinel, a Locofoco paper in Philadelphia, manly language in relation to the Tariff—thus:

"The spirit of a greatly excited people is abroad throughout our whole State, and threatens to call in judgment every man, that shall in any way lend his aid to destroy the Tariff of 1842. The whole body of the people say that the country is now prosperous and happy; and that they will not tolerate any experiments, that cannot fail to give the best interests of our country a fatal stab.

FROM FORT STERLING.

We are informed by Capt. Berger, of the steamer Red-Wing, which arrived from St. Peters yesterday, that some intimations had been received at Fort Snelling before he left, the Indians were collecting it that vicinity with an intention of making an attack on the Fort, for the purpose of effecting the liberation of one of the Sioux, who had been given up, and was held in custody, either as a hostage, or for being concerned in the murder of a chief some time ago. A demand for his release was sent in some days ago, which was refused.—St. Louis Rep. 4th.

JAYNE'S MEDICINE.

A Word to Mothers!

HEALTH is one of the best gifts of parents to their children, and without it, all the advantages of fortune are but evils in disguise. Nature always admonishes the parent when aid is required. If a young child cries much it must be ill, for it is not capable of being affected by any ideas, but those of bodily pain or pleasure. At such times mothers are apt to give their infants cordials, containing intoxicating or stupefying properties, and though this may answer their immediate purpose, what is the result? The children either die in convulsions, or live miserable and unhealthy, pined in their growth, with debilitated stomachs, and palsied nerves. The food designed by nature for children is so clearly pointed out, that it is marvellous how any person can be mistaken, the breast of the mother, or bread and milk for infants, is so clearly adapted to the delicate state of their stomachs, that nothing can be substituted equally nutritious and wholesome. It is at the critical period of "teething," or when the infant is withdrawn from the mother's breast, in order to substitute a stronger diet, that these fatal diseases arise which sweep off so many tens of thousands of infants annually. Who can estimate the ravages made by "Cholera Infantum?" And yet there is a specific for it, which has never been known to fail, when applied according to directions. "JAYNE'S CARMINATIVE BALSAM" is a remedy that has restored many a languishing babe to the arms of the delighted mother, restoring vigor to the system, at the same time that it eradicated the disease. As 'men are but children of a larger growth,' the same remedy will be found equally efficacious in Cholera Morbus, Nervous or Sick Headache, and indeed all diseases that arise from a disordered state of the stomach and bowels. Sold by J. J. & H. F. Schell, Somerset Pa. Also by Edward Bevin, Systowna Pa.
