CORRESPONDENCE OF THE NEW ORLEANS PICAYRNE.

MIER, JULY 31 .- Capt. VINTON'S command entered this place this morning without the least show of opposition, the inhabitants thronging to the Plaza in crowds as the troops filed into it and stacked the loose stones lying about; vet not a hand was raised.

MIER is by far the most pleasant, cleanly, and well regulated place we have yet seen in this part of Mexico. It is built on a hill overlooking a clear running stream of the same name, three miles from the Rio Grande, and is said to contain 6,000 inhabitants, although I do not know where they stow them all. You may well recollect that it was in this place that the Texans, under Col. Fisher, were compelled to surrender, after they had killed twice their number of Mexicans. The houses occupied by the Texans during the battle were pointed out, and still bear the marks of the desperate conflict. I have stated that the number of the inhabitants is put down at 6,000; admitting that it is 4,000. it was still entered and taken possession of by 93 men only -85 regulars and 8 of McCulloch's rangers, acting as mounted guard. You could not serve any town in the United States in that way, and this place is a perfect fortification, from its position and the Capt. Vinton's command occupies a large lery, or "red-legged infantry," as it is now called, from the fact that the men are at CAMARGO, AUGUST 3 .- Troops still continue to pour in, several companies having arrived since I wrote yesterday. Gen. We have no further accounts of the ravages of the Camanches in the neighborhood of Mier or Guerrero. No American troops have started for the latter things so very differest from any thing place, and I do not know that it is the intention of the commanding officer to certainly should not transfer it to our col- dispatch any; but he has authorized the authorities to enlist an armed company of mounted men for home protection.

IMPORTENT MOVE OF TROOPS .- The "Delta" has the following extract of a let-

. Hay's regiment cannot leave here for two or three days. This expedition is more than an ordinary ranging party. They are being equipped with tents-something unusual; all the horses have to be shod, and a paymaster, I hear goes along. All the prominent men who are here from the United States or Texas, accompany it. Look out for squalls; do not be surprised, if the water don't prevent, if you hear of them having possession of Tampice, and of the mass of the volunteers being shipped that way, and marched from that point through the country."
