FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER. JAMES M. POWER, OF MERCER COUNTY. FOR CONGRESS: ANDREW STEWART, OF FAYETTE COUNTY.

The obituary notice of Mrs. Bedford was handed in only when our form was made up; and we are therefore compelled to defer its publication until next week.

GRAND RALLY—TURN OUT! TO THE WHIGS AND ANTIMONAS OF SOMERSET COUNTY.

The election is high at hand, and the question therefore presents itself: "how goes the fight?" Your opponents are quietly, yet actively engaged in mustering their forces and will make a vigorous effort to elect their candidates.

For the several offices of Assembly, Sheriff, and County Commissioner, there are a number of Whig candidates in the field, whilst the Locos have but a single candidate for each office.

Army Movements.

A letter from San Antonio de Bexar, (Texas) dated Sept. 5th, and published in the New Orleans papers, states that Capt. Washington's Artillery arrived at that place the preceding day, and made quite a formidable appearance.

The Election.

There are a great many voters in this county who, not taking a county newspaper, scarcely know who are the candidates; and as the Whigs have no township committees, it is to be feared there will be but a small vote polled at the ensuing election.

Appointment.

The Governor has appointed Hon. RICHARD COULTER, of Westmoreland, Judge of the Supreme Court, in the place vacated by the decease of Judge Kennedy.

Canal Commissioner.

We have printed and sent into the several townships, tickets for JAMES M. Power, for Canal Commissioner, and desire our Whig friends to see to it that every Whig voter will put one of them into the ballot-box.

Are you Assessed?

If any voter should not be assessed, let him attend to the matter at least ten days before the election, otherwise he will lose his vote.

Pittsburgh Synod.

The Synod of Pittsburgh (old school) met agreeably to adjournment, on Wednesday the 9th of September, in the 2nd Presbyterian Church of Pittsburgh, and was opened with a sermon by Mr. Young of Butler, the last Moderator, from Ps. 22: 30-31.

WILL PENNSYLVANIA BE RECEIVED?

It is a little surprising us, that the leaders of the Democratic party should have the hardihood so soon to beset the people of Pennsylvania with promises of modifying and bettering the free trade bill of '46 to the interests of the State.

He [Mr. WEYAND] would advocate the Tariff law of 1846, which discriminates in favor of American industry, and particularly in favor of Pennsylvania interests.

Very fair indeed; but we are disposed to doubt whether Pennsylvania will accept Mr. WEYAND's valuable services in adapting the free trade bill of '46 to the use of her people.

That State wants, and, in fact, needs, the Tariff of '42. To this measure the Democracy are opposed, and it is useless to suppose that the leaders of that party will uphold it.

There are a great many voters in this county who, not taking a county newspaper, scarcely know who are the candidates; and as the Whigs have no township committees, it is to be feared there will be but a small vote polled at the ensuing election.

will doom her to feel- But we have no fears on this score—we think Pennsylvania will do her duty.

MARRIED.

On Sunday evening last, by Rev. P. Rizer, Mr. JACOB FRIEDLEIN, to Miss SARAH ANN ZUFALL, both of Somerset tp.

DIED.

On Tuesday morning, the 21st inst., MAGDALENA, consort of Mr. Henry Bedford, in the 63d year of her age.
