FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER.

JAMES M. POWER. OF MERCER COUNTY.

FOR CONGRESS: ANDREW STEWART, OF FAYETTE COUNTY.

NEXT TUESDAY!

STEWART vs. WEYAND! American Interests vs. British Interests!

PROTECTION VS. FREETRADE!

"STEWART AND PROTECTION!" ought to be the watch-word of every friend of American interests in this Congressional district-and all ought to go to the election on next Tuesday and sustain by their votes the champion of those interests.

Friends of the protective policy! friends of the Tariff of 1842! all who prefer their country's prosperity to their counprinciple; all who would rather give encouragement to their neighbors-their fel- PROTECTION. low freemen-than to the pampered lords and nobles of France and England; all who are favorable to rendering the nation truly independent; and all who are opposed to the introduction of British systems into our national policy; opposed to Trade Act of the late Congress and to British influences such as were attempted to be exerted by a British agent at Washington last session; all these should feel it their duty to go to the election and cast their votes for Andrew Stewart.

The friends of Free Trade in this disboldly in favor of the British policy, have nevertheless gone far enough to show to which side of the question they adhere, and have determined on making a bold means of a well-concerted plan to elect tion. their Congressional candidate, DANIEL WEYAND. Hireling scribblers at Washington city have been engaged for months in attempts to destroy the fair fame of Mr. Stewart-and if their efforts should unfortunately prove successful, their victory would be celebrated wherever free traders could be found, and the British agent at Washington would no doubt heartily join in the jubilee! ANDREW STEW-ART has been a sore thorn in their sides, and to give him a defeat would be a triumph too great to be suffered by them to pass in silence.

Friends of Stewart and the Tariff! be not deceived. Your opponents will have at the polls every voter that can be got out. We know something of their plans that if you think they are as indifferent in regard to the result of the election as they appear to be, you deceive yourselves.

But Andrew Stewart cannot be defeated if the friends of Protection do their duty. The only danger we apprehend is, that as almost every body considers Mr. Stewart's election sure, many may be induced to remain at home on election day under the impression that their votes would not be needed. Such, however, must not be the case. No: turn out! one and all. Turn out early; and if you know a neighbor who may think his vote is not necessary, take him along. We repeat, we have no fears for the result, if anything like a full vote be polled; on the contrary, we look for a largely increased majority for Mr. Stewart. He deserves it at your hands. The eyes of the whole nation are upon you. SOMERSET of the 18th district-SOMERSET, the Gibraltar of Pennsylvania-whose citizens are known and respected almost the world dishonorable to the nation, and has for- respect to her piety, more highly than over for their steady adherence to principle and unshaken attachment to the best interests of the country-always excites high expectations throughout the Union whenever any great question is to be decided. The friends of Protection look to you now to sustain-triumphantly sustain-Mr. Stewart; and the free traders are as anxious for his defeat. The result will be awaited by all parties with the greatest interest. Go, then, and do your

BE Will our friends in the several districts of the county be good enough to furnish us with the election returns, either by mail or otherwise? We should like to have all by Wednesday evening.

Next week's paper, though dated on Tuesday, will be issued on Monday. Advertisements intended for that number, ought therefore be handed in by Friday morning.

JACOB CUSTER has withdrawn his name as a candidate for Sheriff, and tenders his thanks to those of his friends who had offered him their support.

BJWM, F. Divery withdraws his name os a candidate for Commissioner, with many thanks to those who had intended supporting him.

A Voice from Greene County!

The last Waynesburg Messenger contains the proceedings of a Free Trade meeting held in the Court House at Waynesburg, on the 22d ult. Mr. WEY-AND was in attendance and addressed the meeting. Resolutions were passed approving of the Administration of James K. Polk, of the course pursued by Geo. M. Dallas, and of the "repeal of the speadoption of the advalorem revenue Tariff of 1846"-and also a resolution pledging the "united and unanimous support" of the party to Mr. Weyand.

Thus after all their former professions to the contrary, we find now, just on the eve of the election, that Mr. Weyand and his friends are uncompromising advocates of the British Tariff of 1846, and that they not only sanction but approve the vote of George M. Dallas on that question. Mr. Weyand, therefore, is fully committed on it, and the friends of Mr. Stewart accept, unhesitatingly, the issue try's ruin; all who are truly American in which has thus been tendered-WEVAND AND FREE TRADE VS STEWART AND English Mediation.

Lord Palmerston stated in Parliament that since he had come into office, he had made a direct offer to the United States of mediation with Mexico and communicated the fact to the government of the latter country-that the communication to the odious Sub-Treasury and the Free the government of the United States, was of a character, that would require an

Mr D'Israeli considered the reply of Lord Palmerston to be anything but satisfactory. He insisted on the necessity of our arresting, in a determined spirit, the system, on which the United States were acting: a system which menaced at once our North American and our West trict, tho' afraid to come out openly and India Colonies, and evinced a desire for universal empire. Mr. Bernhard expressed his satisfaction at the speech of Lord Palmerston, and contended that we ought to wait and see what answer would be returned by push against the protective system by the United States to his last communica-

Wages in England. Elihu Burritt, the learned Blacksmith, s travelling through England on foot, lodging on his way at road-side inns, and associating with the mechanic and laboring population, from whose own lips he obtains a true history of their condition. In one of his letters to the Christian Citizen published in Worcester, he states that a full grown man employed in the nail making business, by working from four o'clock in the morning until ten o'and of their efforts; and we tell you now, clock at night-Eighteen Hours!-can earn eighteen pence sterling, or THIRTY-SIX CENTS per day, AND NO MORE. The wages of a nail maker, in full work, will average about seven shillings sterling, or ONE DOLLAR AND SIXTY-EIGHT CENTS PER week. Here is testimony which may be relied on. Are those men in this country who are earning nearly as much in a single day as their brethren in Edgland can earn in a week, prepared to go for free trade and have their wages reduced to correspond with their prices?-Lanc.

A Disappointed Party.

The remnant of the fifty-four forties in the West are giving vent to their wrath in such manifestations as this, which the Ohio Statesman, with some severe strictures of its own, copies from the proceedings of a Democratic meeting in Ohio:

From Fort Leavenworth. The St. Louis Republican of the 22d instant states that a gentleman just arrived from Independence reports that an individual had arrived from Bent's Fort, who stated that he had met and passed AN EX-PRESS from Gen. KEARNEY to Fort Leavenworth, with the tidings that Gen. KEARNEY had entered Santa Fe without any opposition. This was the report, (savs the Republican,) and we give it as cific restrictive Tariff of 1842, and the such-remarking, however, that Colonel WHARTON, in command at Fort Leavenworth, was in daily expectation of an express with advices from Gen. KEARNEY. That he has captured Santa Fe we have no sort of doubt.

> OUTRAGE IN POTTSVILLE .-The Pottsville Press states that "on Mon- thenticated. day night last about 12 o'clock, Mr. Ja-COB MILLER of Lebanon, (who had arrived in that borough about two hours previously by the Harrisburg Stage,) was attacked on Centre street, a few yards below Geis' American Hotel, by two or three unknown ruffians, who knocked him down and beat him unmercifully with clubs and stones. Mr. Daniel P. Harris, and his wife, who reside a short distance below, hearing the disturbance, hastened in his blood and apparently lifeless .-They kindly took him in, sent for a physician and paid him every possible attention; altho' still very low, hopes are entertained for his recovery. Robbery was added to this murderous assault, for Mr. Miller's pocket book containing about $100 was taken by the ruffians, who are still at large."
