The Whig and Antimasonic citizens of Somerset county are requested to assemble in County Meeting, at the Court House, in Somerset, on Tuesday evening of the ensuing court week (February 9.) for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State Convention which is to be held at Harrisburg on the 9th of March next, and to adopt such other measures as may be deemed essential to a complete organization of the party in this county.

WAKING UP.

Some of the Northern Democrats in Congress appear to be waking up to the danger that threatens the Union from the Southern influence that is brought to bear upon her affairs through the Administration, and hence they avow their opposition to the annexation of any more slave territory. Though the leaders of that party must have known when they were electioneering for Mr. Polk, that his election would operate injuriously upon the Free States, the rank and file evidently had no such apprehensions. But Mr. Polk's policy as President has opened their eyes, and most of them are no doubt at this time heartily sick of his administration—and it is no wonder if they are! What has he done for them since his elevation to power? Has he originated or carried out a single measure intended or calculated to benefit the North? He has revived the Sub-Treasury, destroyed the Tariff, prevented the improvement of the Western Rivers, and plunged the Nation into an expensive war. For all these acts he could have had no other motive than that of benefiting the South at the expense of the North; or, if he had any other, it has not yet been explained, either by himself or his friends. The result is, that Southern Locofocoism has lost its magic power over the Northern Democracy—and the efforts of Polk's official organ to drive these again into the traces will be unavailing.

THE ARMY BILL.

The Bill, providing for the raising of ten thousand additional troops, passed the U. S. House of Representatives yesterday a week. The clause providing for the appointment of a Lieutenant General was finally stricken out.

Capt. S. S. Austin, of Uniontown, the services of whose company were refused by the Governor has gone to Mexico as a private, "solitary and alone," determined, he says, to "fight on his own hook." "This, we presume, comes under the President's rule of "aid and comfort."

LOAN BILL.

On Monday a bill was reported in Congress, authorizing loans and the issue of Treasury notes to the amount of TWENTY THREE MILLIONS.

The Whig delegates of Fayette co. are instructed to support Mr. COOPER in the State Convention for Governor.—Allegheny has instructed for Mr. Forward.

In Pittsburgh and Allegheny cities, Whig Majors have been elected by large majorities.

LATEST FROM THE ARMY.

Highly Important Intelligence.

The intelligence from Mexico is that Santa Anna is advancing against Gen. Worth at Saltillo, with 15,000 men, and that Gen. Worth is falling back upon Monterey.

STILL LATER.

ARRIVAL OF THE STAMER EDITH.—A BATTLE EXPECTED.

Washington, Jan. 12.—7 P. M. The U. S. Steamship Edith has arrived at New Orleans from Brazos Santiago, which place she left on the 30th ult. She brings a confirmation of the reported advance of Santa Anna upon Saltillo with a large force. The Mexican Army under his command is reported to number thirty thousand.

Gen Taylor had only advanced eight or ten miles on his march for Victoria, when Gen. Worth's express had reached Monterey; and the troops under Generals Twiggs and Quitman, were but twelve miles in advance. Orders were immediately issued to this division to retrace its steps, and proceed immediately towards Saltillo.

General Butler had already marched with all the troops he could collect, to join General Worth. Gen. Lane started for Saltillo on the 26th, with his command. Marshall started the next morning with the remainder of the forces except Hunter and Swarwout's commands.

The troops from Camargo were on a forced march in order to reach Saltillo in time for the anticipated attack.

Reports having prevailed before positive advices had been received of the movements of Santa Anna, and as Gen. Wool was at the last advices only ninety miles from Saltillo, it is supposed that he would have joined Gen. Worth in time to assist in repelling the enemy.

Rumor states that Santa Anna had thrown a force of 17,000 men between the forces of Generals Worth and Taylor, to prevent the junction of the troops, but it was generally discredited. It was the general impression of the passengers of the Edith, that the battle was fought about the 25th, but they thought, however, that the American forces above mentioned, reached Saltillo before that time, and if so, Gen. Taylor had about 7000 men to repel the attack of the forces under Santa Anna.

The number of the Mexicans is believed to be overrated.

The whole valley of the Rio Grande was in a ferment, on account of the apprehended attacks from rancheros under Canales, upon Camargo, Matamoros and other points. Colonel Clark had called on the citizens of Matamoros to enroll themselves at the Brazos. Gen. Jesup had done the same thing. Both points were sadly deficient in arms and men, and it was thought Canales had 2,000 rancheros under his command.

Gen. Scott arrived at the Brazos on the 28th ult., and proceeded for the mouth of the Rio Grande on the following day; where he was waiting the arrival of the horses belonging to the regiment of mounted riflemen, when the Edith left. It was understood that he would proceed immediately to Camargo.

It was believed that an express had been sent to Gen. Patterson, countermanding his march in the direction of Victoria.

The steamship Alabama was at the mouth of the Brazos when the Edith sailed, and by her arrival in a few days we shall probably receive more definite intelligence.

A letter in the Picayune of the 5th instant, dated Camargo, 19th December, 12 o'clock at night, puts at rest all doubts as to the facts of the advance of Santa Anna. An express had been received there from Gen. Worth at Saltillo, announcing the march of a large Mexican force. The letter gives in detail all the facts above stated.

A letter published in the Picayune, dated Tampico, December 23d, from a reliable source, states that the Mexican Congress had decided that the war shall not cease, nor will they receive Commissioners to treat for peace until every hostile foot has left the soil of Mexico, and every ship that lines her coast shall have been withdrawn. The Congress has also resolved that they will accept of no foreign intervention whatever to bring about a peace.

Jayne's Medicines.

CANCER, SCROFULA & GOITRE. Ample experience has proved that no combination of medicine has ever been so efficacious in removing the above diseases, as Dr. Jayne's Alterative, or Life Preservative. It has effected cures truly astonishing, not only of Cancer and other diseases of that class, but has removed the most stubborn Diseases of the skin, Dyspepsia, &c. &c. This medicine enters into the circulation, and eradicates diseases wherever located. It purifies the blood and other fluids of the body, removes obstruction in the pores of the skin, and reduces enlargements of the glands or bones. It increases the appetite, removes headache and drowsiness, and invigorates the whole system, and imparts animation to the diseased and debilitated constitution. There is nothing superior to it in the whole materia medica. It is perfectly safe and extremely pleasant, and has nothing of the disgusting nausea accompanying the idea of swallowing medicine.
