WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

A State Convention, to be composed of Delegates from the City of Philadelphia and the several counties equal to their representation in the General Assembly of this Commonwealth, will be held at Harrisburg, on TUESDAY, the 9th day of MARCH NEXT, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of selecting candidates for Governor and Canal Commissioner to be supported by the Whigs and the friends of the Protective Policy at the next ensuing election, and to transact such other business as may be deemed important to the success of the Whig cause.

- J. P. SANDERSON, SAMUEL D. KARNS, JOSEPH KONIGSMACHER, MORTON McMICHAEL, GEORGE ERETY, H. JONES BROOKE, THEO. D. COCHRAN, JAMES FOX, JAMES MARTIN, WILLIAM BUTLER, J. J. SLOCUM, JOHN R. EDIE, EDWARD COWAN, JOHN B. JOHNSON, WM. J. HOWARD, Whig State Committee.

THE PRESIDENCY.—Many of the public journals, of both parties, are beginning to discuss the merits of their respective favorites for the Presidency, and it is quite apparent that neither party will lack material from which to make a selection.

Among the names mentioned by Whig journals we notice those of Gen. SCOTT, General TAYLOR, Mr. CRITTENDEN and Judge McLEAN, all good men; and we might add to the list, the name of JOHN M. CLAYTON, of Delaware, than whom there is not a more substantial Whig in the nation.

Gen. Cass, Silas Wright, John C. Calhoun, and Thomas H. Benton are the prominent aspirants in the Democratic ranks, though there may be others looking for the nomination.

The indications at present are, that neither Mr. Clay nor Mr. Polk will run again.

THE WAR.—The war with Mexico has already cost the nation a large amount of money and many valuable lives, and will in all likelihood cost much more before it is over. The opinion has been frequently expressed, that Mexico must indemnify our Government for all the expenses of the war, and that a peace would not be concluded upon any other terms. Yet, in the face of this opinion, promulgated by the friends of the Administration, the President asks for $3,000,000 to enable him to conclude a peace. How is this? Which party is to pay the piper?

In an other column we give an account of an attack upon Captain May and his men by the Mexicans. Later accounts state the Captain's loss to be eleven men and their horses. Their fate is not known, but it is supposed they were carried off prisoners.

The amount of anthracite coal shipped annually from the Pennsylvania mines, is about 2,000,000 tons, and the number of persons engaged in mining and transporting it, including their families, is computed at 15,000.

Judge Banks, we learn from the Reading Journal, would enter upon his duties as State Treasurer on yesterday. He has appointed Samuel L. Jackson, of Reading, his chief clerk.

Lieut. Fowler, has opened a rendezvous in Cumberland, for the enlistment of recruits, to serve during the war, or for five years, whichever they prefer.

Gov. Young, of New York, has pardoned the persons who were imprisoned for their participation in the anti-rent disturbances.

The U. S. Quartermaster has chartered at New Orleans thirty vessels for the Gull service, at $6,000 per month, each.

The Legislature of New Jersey has re-elected Hon. Jacob W. Miller (Whig) to the United States Senate.

The letter of Gen. Taylor, which we publish on first page, is now understood, was addressed to Gen. Gaines.

A Bill has been reported in our State Legislature providing for the election of Deputy Attorney Generals.

We had a severe snow storm here on Wednesday afternoon and the night following.

GEN. TAYLOR.

It is rumored that this gallant officer is to be recalled on account of the letter recently written by him to Gen. Gaines, and in which he presents the conduct of the Administration in the Mexican war in no very favorable light. That the Administration is dissatisfied with his letter, is evident enough; but that it will undertake to remove him upon that ground, we do not believe. Gen. Taylor has been engaged in a difficult and an arduous service, and has thus far accomplished all that could have been expected from any one with similar means. He has been all along contending against a vastly superior force, and has beaten the enemy wherever he has encountered him. The Administration, therefore, has nothing to gain, but every thing to lose, by an investigation—and if Gen. Taylor be removed from his command, he will undoubtedly demand the fullest investigation, both into his own conduct and that of the Administration. But, we repeat, we do not credit the rumor.

ANOTHER REPORT FROM THE TREASURY.

The Report of the Secretary of the Treasury, in answer to the call of the Senate, (on motion of Mr. CAMERON), was yesterday transmitted to that body. Having had no opportunity of perusing it, much less of obtaining a copy, we are only able to state, in general terms, that, with a view to augment the revenue, the Secretary recommends an INCREASE of ten per cent. on the present duty on iron and coal, and twenty per cent. on sugar; and a REDUCTION of five per cent. on the existing duty on manufactures of iron; these additional duties to be pledged for the payment of the principal and interest of loans to the Government.—NAT. INT.

THE ADDITIONAL ARMY BILL.

The Bill from the House of Representatives, which has been for some days before the Senate, for raising a large additional Regular Military force, yesterday passed that body, having been amended in several particulars, and especially by the introduction of provisions for the allowance of bounty-lands to persons serving in the War. These amendments require, of course, the concurrence of the House of Representatives, and will bring the whole subject again before that body.—NAT. INT.

McLEAN MEETING AT PITTSBURGH.

The McLEAN meeting at Pittsburg on the 25th ult., was well attended. The MAYOR of the city presided, assisted by five Vice Presidents. JAS. DUNLAP, Esq., chairman of the committee for that purpose presented a series of able resolutions, which were passed. Among them we find the following:

RESOLVED, That the Hon. JOHN McLEAN, of Ohio, be recommended to the people of the United States as the man distinguished by such virtues and qualifications (as mentioned in a previous resolution) and in the support of whom every Whig patriot and well wisher of the country can unite.

The meeting also passed resolutions in favor of the Tariff, in favor of a Distribution of the Proceeds of the Public Lands, against the Sub-Treasury. Also the following:

RESOLVED, That, however willing to sustain the country right or wrong, the meeting deprecates the war with Mexico as unnecessary, expensive, rapacious and demoralizing.

GEN. TAYLOR AND THE VOLUNTEERS.

The correspondent of the New Orleans Delta, writing from Victoria, describes the following scene as having occurred shortly after Gen. Taylor's arrival at that place:

"Gen. Taylor visited the Illinois Volunteers yesterday, and the way the boys crowded around him threatened immediate suffocation. By way of salutation, I verily believe the old General pulled his cap five thousand times, and I was looking every minute to see him pull the front piece off. The General was mounted on a large and gentle mule, whilst his Orderly rode a splendid dragon horse, and was himself dressed in a clean and handsome uniform whilst the General had on that same old black frock coat, and a big Mexican straw hat. Mr. Fannin, the orderly, got about six salutes to Taylor's one, the "Suckers" taking him for the General, and wondering why they called him old Taylor. When at last they found out that the old ranchero was the sure-enough General, they inferred, from his plain appearance, that it would be nothing amiss to offer him a hand to shake, and they went at it with such good will, that by the time the two regiments finished squeezing it, there could have been little feeling left in it. As he rode off, there were many who wondered whether that was the animal on which he charged the Mexicans."

According to the old maxim, those who pay the fiddler have a right to dance. But the Washington Union takes issue with the maxim, and insists that, although the people will have to foot the expenses of the war, they have no right to discuss its merits.—Alb. Jour.

LATER FROM THE ARMY. CAPTURE OF VICTORIA.

The brig Georgiana, from Tampico, has arrived at New Orleans, bringing dates to the 14th inst. Col. Kenney arrived at Tampico on the 12th, direct from Victoria, with despatches from General Taylor to General Shields, to suspend operations for the present.

Gen. Taylor had entered Victoria with Gen. Quitman on the 9th. Gen. Quitman had driven the Mexicans before him for thirty or forty miles before entering Victoria. The Mexican force was very reluctant to give up the place, and only retired at one side, as Gen. Quitman was entering on the other. Having no cavalry with him, he could not pursue the retreating enemy.

Col. Kenney parried with Gen. Taylor at Monte Morales, and pushed on towards Victoria with Gen. Quitman, thence proceeding alone to Tampico. There was no reason to suppose that Generals Butler and Worth had moved from Saltillo, though it was so reported.

The Mexican Army is believed to be not far off, though the Mexican soldiers seen in the neighborhood of Saltillo are now supposed to have been the advanced party of some 1,500 or 2,000 men kept in position on this side of the desert between Saltillo and San Luis, to destroy the water tanks in case the American army should move in force in the direction of San Luis.

This fact precludes the idea of any serious attack upon Generals Worth or Wool being meditated, the object of the Mexicans being only to keep a watch upon the American forces, and retreat before any advance to cut off the supplies of water.

Col. Kenney brought a rumor to Tampico, that 15,000 Mexicans were to attack Saltillo on the 27th ult., and verbal news was brought to New Orleans by the Georgiana, to the effect that Santa Anna had pledged himself between Generals Taylor and Worth with 35,000 men, and that a general action was immediately expected. This probably was merely a repetition of the rumors before received by way of Matamoros.

From the contents of private letters received, however, there is little doubt that a large Mexican force, consisting mostly of cavalry, were at Tula at the latest dates, under General Valencia. Generals Urea, Romero, and Fernandez, were also reported to be in the vicinity on the 1st of January. Gen. Taylor had sent forward Col. May to examine a mountain pass between Monte and Morales and Labadores, and on his return he took another pass leading to Lenares, where he was attacked by a large body of the enemy, and his rear guard cut off by rolling stones down into the pass.

It was a dangerous spot, the pass being scarcely wide enough for the horsemen to go through in single file. Col. May, however, managed to get away with his main body, and reached a spot where he was enabled to dismount and return on foot to succour the rear guard, but he was late, as the enemy had retreated with their prize.

At one time the dragoons were almost at the mercy of the Mexicans, had the latter discharged their pieces with accuracy, as they occupied a position directly over the heads of our troops. Col. May's loss had not been ascertained, or whether any of his men were killed.

There can be no doubt that Generals Taylor, Twigg, Patterson and Pillow were at Victoria with a large force. Gen. Shields, with 650 men, were marched from Tampico on the 10th, towards Allamira, it was supposed, with the object of opening a communication with Gen. Taylor at Victoria.

From two or three thousand Mexican troops were between Tampico and Victoria, with which it is supposed General Shields might have an engagement. The force remaining at Tampico was 950.—The market was amply supplied with American merchandise.

Col. Kenney states that the Mexican force at San Luis was 30,000 strong, and the whole Mexican force in the field was 50,000. The Capture of Tampico, he states, had created the greatest excitement throughout the country.

Generals Butler, Worth, and Wool, had 8,000 men at Saltillo, considered to be the flower of the army. Col. Kenney speaks confidently of their success in case of an engagement. Generals Taylor and Patterson, with 6000 men, were at Victoria waiting orders from Gen. Scott. It was not supposed that any movement would be made against San Luis, but that the mountain passes would be retained and Vera Cruz subjected by land, which it was supposed would be attacked on Gen. Scott taking the command.

FROM BRAZIL.

The ship Courier has arrived at New York from Rio Janeiro, whence she sailed on the 26th of December. She reports that the "California Expedition" left Rio for its destination on the 29th of November, somewhat short of its numerical force by desertion. The deserters were seeking employment on shore and on board the various ships in port.

The three seamen of the Columbia had been released by the Brazilian Government; the other two, and Lieut. Davis were set at liberty some time before, as the former accounts advised us.

The U. S. brig Bainbridge, Commander PENNINGTON, arrived from Montevideo on the 12th of December. The frigate Columbia, Capt. Rousseau, sailed for Montevideo on the 3d. Accounts from Montevideo to the first of December had been received. They were that General RIVERA was preparing to resume hostilities, having 4,000 men under his command. Gen. ORRIS was inactive.

Another Proof.

Mr. Mason.—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in informing you that the bottle of JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC which I obtained from you last October, has proved most satisfactory and successful. For nearly a year previous to using the Tonic, my hair had been falling out, and had become very thin and weak—and for about six months I was very much afflicted with Scalded Head, the sores covering almost the entire head; after using the Tonic for about two months, my head was completely cured, and my hair fully restored, and is now growing finely. Respectfully yours, &c. SAMUEL W. VAN FLEET. Somerville, January 24, 1844.

WHOOPIING COUGH AND CROUP.

To Parents: Jayne's Expecto-rant is without exception the most valuable preparation in use, for the above diseases. It converts Whooping Cough into a mild and tractable disease—shortens its duration more than one half, and produces a certain and speedy recovery. The lives of hundreds of children will be saved annually by always keeping it on hand, ready for any emergency. For sale by J. J. & H. F. Schell, Somerset, Pa. Also by Edward Bevin, Stoystown Pa.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

Coughs, Colds, Consumptions, &c.

REMARKABLE CURES.—Of all the cures that have yet been recorded, there are certainly none equal to the one mentioned, which plainly show the curability of Consumption, even in some of its worst forms.

Mrs. Wimer.—FOR ANOTHER PROOF ADDED.—The cures performed by Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, are really astonishing to the world.

The following we have just received from Messrs. Joslin and Rowe, Druggists, in Newark in this State, to whom it was communicated by John Wimer, Esq. a citizen of Burlington, Licking county, Ohio.

Burlington, O. Dec. 1, 1843. Messrs. Joslin & Rowe—At your request I herewith transmit to you a statement of the case of Mrs. Wimer and child, as near as I am able to communicate, which you are at liberty to publish if you see fit, as I feel a desire to inform the world of the effects of the invaluable medicine called Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, to which, by the Divine blessing, I am indebted for the restoration to health of my wife and child.

About five years ago Mrs. Wimer was attacked with a violent cough, pain in the chest and side and symptoms of approaching consumption. During the interval from that time to some time in February last, she had been treated by eminent physicians from Utica, Sylvania, Homer, Chatham and Newark, and with only partial relief of the most urgent symptoms. About one year ago she caught a violent cold, which seated upon the lungs, producing an alarming aggravation of all her previous systems. Her physician was sent for, and despite his best efforts she began to sink rapidly under her disease. Cough, expectoration, and hectic, together with night sweats soon reduced her to a complete skeleton. In February last her attending physician deemed her case altogether hopeless; a council was called, and after deliberating upon her case unanimously pronounced her to be beyond the reach of means, and expressed their opinion that she could survive but a short time, one or two weeks at farthest. She was at this time entirely confined to her bed, and scarcely able to articulate, except in a whisper. Her daily prostrations of coughing would last uninterruptedly from three to five hours, and so severe that we expected every prostratum would be her last.

The physicians in council pronounced her lungs, liver, kidneys, spine and mucus membrane of the stomach to be incurably diseased.

It was at this last extremity that we happened to obtain a pamphlet describing Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, as applicable to lung affections. We immediately sent to you and procured a bottle, and commenced its use at evening by giving her one tea-spoonful, and such was the surprising effect that she was able to pass a comfortable night without experiencing any paroxysm of coughing; and such was its ultimate effect, that, after taking five bottles, she was contrary to the expectations of her physicians and every one who saw her, entire restored to health, and since last summer has done the entire work of the family. After the last attack of Mrs. Wimer, our youngest child, then an infant of the breast, was taken down and rapidly sinking with the same symptoms as its mother, and having seen the happy effects in the case of the mother, we were disposed to make a trial of it for the child, and it was attended with the same perfect success.

The above statement can be attested by our physician as well as our neighbors and acquaintances, who saw Mrs. Wimer during the course of her sickness. Yours truly, JOHN WIMER.
