In a debate in the U. S. Senate recently, Mr. TURNER, a locofoco Senator from Tennessee...

According to his (Mr. T.'s) judgment, the annexation of Texas produced the war. The Senator from Ohio was correct.

Mr. CALHOUN replied to Mr. Turner, and here is part of what he said:—

The immediate cause of the war, if he desires to know, was the marching of our forces from the frontier...

But the great question comes up, Has the Executive the right to determine what our boundary is? When we have a disputed boundary question—and we have had many—does it belong to the Executive...

the forces under Gen. Taylor and those under Arista, prevented me from acting. Otherwise, I would certainly have taken a move to arrest the march...

A VALIANT CAPTAIN.

The following is the conclusion of a speech in the House at Harrisburgh by Mr. Fox of Dauphin on the resolutions relative to the tariff...

"A word more Mr. Speaker, in regard to my roley-boley friend from Cambria, and I have done. The valiant and redoubtable second edition of Col. Pluck, has indulged himself in denouncing the Whigs and their principles, thus:—

"From the earliest period of the American Revolution, down to the present time, the Whigs have always been Tories. There principles are identified with the black coahed Federalists, and they have never failed to exult in the victories of our enemies."

I ask, sir, why is not the "representative of the frosty sons of thunder" himself, now marching towards the battlefield? I can easily imagine from the ginger-pop patriotism of the gentleman, that he could not enter a company as a private soldier, but I would have supposed from his enlarged proportions...

I fancy I can now see the gentleman standing on the summit of some mighty mountain in Cambria, robed cap a pie in the soldiers garb...

IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO?

WRECKING OF A TRANSPORT WITH TROOPS—GREAT BATTLE AT CHIHUAHUA BETWEEN OUR TROOPS AND MEXICANS—COLONEL PRICE VICTORIOUS—CAPTURE OF CHIHUAHUA.

Washington, Feb. 24th, 10.—P. M. The Southern Mail is in, bringing the mail regularly due. By an arrival at N. Orleans we have some exciting news from Mexico.

The dates from Tampico are down to the 6th February.

The transport ship Ondiaka, from New Orleans to Vera Cruz, with four companies of Louisiana Volunteers, on board, was off the bar at Tampico on the 28th ult., on her voyage, as supposed to Vera Cruz, and when somewhat South of Tampico, was wrecked in a gale.

Gen. Scott, and staff, were still at Brazos Santiago. The health of the soldiers at Tampico was good, excellent in fact. In the Hospitals, however, a malignant fever had broken out and was causing considerable mortality.

It was reported, and generally believed, at Tampico, that Col. Price with the force under his command, had come in collision with a large body of Mexican soldiers at Chihuahua, and that a very severe battle had been the result.

Col. Price was finally victorious, and defeated the Mexicans most signally, although they outnumbered him more than two to one.

He took possession of the town, driving the enemy's troops out of it. Gen. Patterson had received a batch of despatches for our Government, which Com. Connor supposed was from the Mexican Government, and related to a peace between the two countries.

The transport ship Catharine, from New York, with troops, had arrived at Tampico.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

THE following letter is from a highly respectable merchant, dated Lewistown, N. Y., Sept. 10, '44. Dr. D. J. J. Dear Sir: It is said by Physicians, and is by the mass of mankind believed, that Consumption cannot be cured—that when once it becomes seated in the human system, nothing can eradicate or stay its progress, but that it will continue the work of destruction until its victim sinks into the grave. However true this may be in theory, I am disposed to doubt it in fact; indeed, my own experience, and a desire to benefit others, compels me to pronounce the assertion untrue. You will probably recollect, sir, that in the beginning of 1840 I wrote to you stating that I had the Consumption, and that it was fast hurrying me to the grave. I did not then, nor do I now doubt, every symptom was too painfully visible. My Physicians considered me incurable, but the advice which I asked of you was given, and I am happy to say that by using a few bottles of your incomparable medicine—the Expectant, I was restored, and never in my life have I enjoyed better or more uninterrupted health than since that time. If you should see me now, you would not imagine by my appearance that I had ever been sick, much less that I had the Consumption; but that I am still living, I ascribe wholly and entirely to your Expectant.
