

By divine permission Elder James Harris of Fayette County will preach in the Disciples meeting house, on next Lordsday morning, at 10 o'clock.

A LIEUTENANT GENERAL UNDER A NEW NAME.

The House of Representatives, on the 23d ultimo, by a vote of 112 to 87, passed a bill authorizing the President to appoint two additional Major Generals, and three Brigadier Generals, and to select any Major General to take the command of the Armies.

LATER.—Since the above was put in type, we learn that the Senate, on Monday, rejected the Lt. General clause, and that the bill, thus amended, has passed both Houses.

JAMES K. POLK.

Mr. Polk bids fair to leave the Executive chair at the end of his term with as little popularity as that with which John Tyler retired from the same post.

We see in the Pittsburgh Gazette the proceedings of a meeting of the Managers of the Connellsville Railroad Company, which seem to put an end to all hope of a connexion by Railroad between Pittsburgh and Baltimore.

SUGAR-MAKING.

During the last five or six days the weather has been quite favorable for sugar-making, and we presume a good deal has been done in that line of business.

The Native American party held a State Convention at Harrisburg on the 22d ultimo, and nominated Emanuel C. Reigart of Lancaster for Governor, and Robert H. Morton of Harrisburg for Canal Commissioner.

The news by the Cambria, published on first page, is less favorable to the holders of American produce than that which had reached this country by previous arrivals.

We have received from Hon. Andrew Stewart a copy of his speech in Congress on the Three Million Bill, and shall endeavor to publish it in our next number.

The nomination of John M. Foster, as President Judge of the Counties of Chester and Delaware, has been rejected by the Senate.

Nothing of special interest has transpired in the Legislature since the date of our last number.

The second session of the twenty-ninth Congress terminated on Wednesday last.

The Alexandria, D. C., Gazette, says: "Such has been the mildness of the weather this winter, that the navigation of the Potomac to Alexandria, has remained throughout almost entirely unobstructed by ice, and vessels have hardly met with a day's detention, either in arriving or departing."

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.

The March No. of the "Lady's Book" is on our table. It is a rich number.—The merits of this periodical are too well known to need puffing.

The following advertisement has been sent to us by the editor for publication:

Many of our Subscribers having suffered severely from the depreciation of Persons calling themselves Agents for the Lady's Book, we deem it our duty to protect them, as far as we can, from any further impositions.

Our Agents, besides having a Certificate from us, are also furnished with a Certificate of Agency, under the seal of Office, from either the Mayor of Cincinnati, or the Recorder of the City of Philadelphia.

J. R. Smith, [James R. Smith is our authorised Agent.]

J. C. Blossom, [we have no Agent whose name resembles this.]

Franklin Y. Jennings is described to us, as about 5 feet 8 inches high, dark complexion, well dressed, and of a gentlemanly appearance.

THREE MILLION BILL PASSED BY THE SENATE.

The bill appropriating Three Millions to buy a peace with Mexico, passed the Senate yesterday without the Wilmot proviso. The National Intelligencer says the matter was debated on Monday until 9 P. M., when the question was taken on the proviso offered in an early stage of the bill by Mr. BERRIEN.

At a still later hour the vote was taken, when the Anti-Slavery proviso was rejected—yeas 21, nays 31. The bill was still further opposed by Mr. Webster and Archer, but without success, and it passed finally by a vote of 29 to 24.

The following are the yeas and nays on the anti-slavery amendment:

YEAS—Messrs. Allen, Atherton, Cameron, Cille, John M. Clayton, Corwin, Darsie, Dayton, Dix, Evans, Fairfield, Greene, Huntington, Miller, Niles, Phelps, Simmons, Sturgeon, Upham, Webster and Woodbridge—21.

NAYS—Messrs. Archer, Ashley, Atchison, Badger, Bagby, Benton, Berrien, Breese, Bright, Butler, Calhoun, Cass, Chalmers, Colquitt, Crittenden, Dickinson, Hannegan, Houston, Jarman, Johnson of Maryland, Johnson of Louisiana, Lewis, Mangum, Mason, Morehead, Pearce, Rusk, Sevier, Soule, Turney and Westcott—31.

The following are the yeas and nays, on the passage of the bill:

YEAS—Messrs. Allen, Ashley, Atchison, Atherton, Bagby, Benton, Breese, Bright, Butler, Calhoun, Cass, Chalmers, Colquitt, Dickinson, Dix, Fairfield, Hannegan, Houston, Johnson, of Louisiana, Lewis, Mason, Niles, Rusk, Sevier, Soule, Sturgeon, Turney, Westcott and Yulee—29.

NAYS—Messrs. Archer, Badger, Berrien, Cameron, Cille, John M. Clayton, Corwin, Crittenden, Davis, Clayton, Evans, Greene, Huntington, Jarman, Johnson of Maryland, Mangum, Miller, Morehead, Pearce, Phelps, Simmons, Upham, Webster and Woodbridge—24.

FROM SANTA FE.

A letter in the St. Louis New Era, from Santa Fe, contains the following paragraph, important as an evidence of the state of feeling between the Mexican population and the new comers:

"There is much talk of an insurrection—a second edition of the Sicilian vespers. There is no doubt such a thing was contemplated, and it is possible it may still be intended by the wealthy leaders, but I think they are too cowardly to attempt it, more especially as it must be known to them that we have been informed of their designs."

This certainly does not speak a great deal for the policy of the proclamation by which a nation of Procris were annexed to the Union.—U. S. Gazette.

BY MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

LATER FROM THE ARMY.

LATE FROM BRAZOS—GEN. SCOTT ABOUT LEAVING—TROOPS FOR TAMPICO—MATAMORAS IN DANGER—CAPTURE OF C. M. CLAY AND OTHERS CONFIRMED.

By an arrival at New Orleans, intelligence has been received from Brazos Santiago to the 16th of February.

Gen. Scott was about leaving with four companies of Troops.

All the troops at the Brazos, designed for operations on the Gulf, were embarking for Tampico.

Gol. Bankhead has sailed for Tampico.

Fears were entertained of an attack upon Matamoras, by the Mexicans, when the American troops are withdrawn from more Southern operations.

This arrival confirms the painful intelligence of the capture of Majors Gaines, and Borland, Captain Cassius M. Clay, with 50 Arkansas, and Kentucky troops.

This arrival brought to New Orleans the bodies of Lieutenants Blake and Chadbourne.

LATE FROM TAMPICO.

Shipwrecked Volunteers arrived safe—Health of Tampico good—7000 troops there—Mexicans preparing to defend the city of Mexico.

By an arrival at New Orleans, dates from Tampico to the 10th of February have been received.

They bring the gratifying intelligence that the Louisiana Volunteers shipwrecked on the Ondiaka, about forty miles south of Tampico, who were left by last accounts in a very critical position, have arrived at Tampico all safe, except six men, who were left on the road.

The Mexican General Cos had arrived at the scene of the wreck with a considerable force, and sent a summons to Col. D. Russey, the commander of the American forces, requiring an unconditional surrender, but with commendable discretion gave the shipwrecked forces a day to consider.

The health of Tampico continues pretty good. There are now at that place upwards of 7000 troops, regulars and volunteers—under the command of Major General Patterson.

The volunteer troops from New York, are still on ship board, off the port, the officers ashore.

LATER FROM VERA CRUZ.

[Our correspondent sends us the following later intelligence, received from Vera Cruz, without giving any date, or saying whether it came by Havana or New Orleans.]

Late accounts have been received from Vera Cruz.

The Mexican commanders and people were fully aroused to their danger, and in anticipation of a speedy attack, by Gen. Scott, were fortifying all the passes leading to the city of Mexico.

Mexican troops were assembling at Tula, on the principal if not only road between Tampico and San Luis Potosi, Santa Anna's head quarters; and also at Jalapa, on the road from Vera Cruz to the capital.

[From this intelligence it would seem that Santa Anna was not fully acquainted with Gen. Scott's movements as was supposed from his interception of the despatches forwarded by the lamented Richie. He seems to be uncertain whether Gen. Scott designs to march from Tampico to San Luis Potosi or to land near Vera Cruz, and march on the capital from that point. He has chosen a good point, in Jalapa, which is situated near the foot of the mountains, on the northern road from Vera Cruz to the city of Mexico, and from whence we can watch the operations against Vera Cruz. The famous castle of Perote, an impregnable fortress, is situated about 25 miles from Jalapa, on the west side of the mountains, and must be subdued by an army marching to Mexico on that route.—Eds. Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, March 3, 11—P. M.

The following nominations were sent into the Senate this evening by Mr. Polk, viz:—

Chas J. Ingersoll, Minister to France G. W. Hopkins, " Portugal Mr. Todd, " Brazil J. W. Tibbats, as Colonel.

The nomination of Mr. Beaumont as Commissioner of Public Buildings, was rejected.

GEO. A. CLARKE. March 9, 1847.

"I would not live Always."

34) One would naturally be led to the conclusion, from the apparent negligence manifested by many who are suffering under the baleful influence of CONSUMPTION, and other Pulmonary Affections, that they had assumed the words, "I would not live always," as peculiarly adapted to themselves, or that believing their case to be hopeless, had abandoned themselves to despair. But none need despair, while "life and being lasts," of being ultimately cured of every and any kind of disease. Jayne's Expectant has been proved by ample experience to be the most successful remedy in the world for the cure of Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and all other diseases of the Throat, Lungs, or Breas'. No one ever yet used it without finding relief.

JAYNE'S LIFE PRESERVATIVE has cured innumerable cases of Rheumatism, Scrofula, King's Evil, and Diseases of the Skin, a number of cases of Gout, and several cases of Tic Dolerieux; over twenty cases of Cancer, and Gout, or Bronchocele, (swelled-neck) and removes sick and morbid headaches, and imparts tone and vigor to the whole frame. Prepared and sold at No. 8 South Third st. Philadelphia.

Sold by J. J. & H. F. Schell, Somerset Pa. Also by Edward Bevin, Stoystown Pa.

ELI K. HAINS, Adm'r. Feb. 16, 1847.

SUBPENA FOR DIVORCE.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA.

To Ann Collier, GREETING:

WHEREAS, Perry Collier did on the tenth day of February, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, prefer his petition to the Honorable, the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, of Somerset county, praying that for causes therein set forth, he might be divorced from the bonds of matrimony entered into with you, the said Ann Collier, in all time to come, as if you never had been married, as if you were naturally dead. We, therefore, command you, the said Ann Collier, that setting aside all excuses and other business, you be and appear in your proper person before our Judges at Somerset at our County court of Common Pleas, there to be held on the first Monday of May next, to answer the petition or libel of the said Perry Collier, and to show cause, if any you have, why the said Perry, your husband, should not be divorced from your society, fellowship and company, and from the bonds of matrimony contracted with you the said Ann, as fully and effectually as if he never had been married, or as if you the said Ann, were naturally dead, agreeably to the act of Assembly in such case made and provided, and hereof you are not to fail.

Witness the Honorable Jeremiah S. Black, President of our said court at Somerset, this 19th day of February, Anno Domini, 1847. A. J. OGLE, March 2, 1847. Prothonotary.

THIS WAY.

For the Interest of the Farmers & others concerned.

THE subscriber wishes to inform the public in general, that he is, and will continue in the Foundry business in the town of Mount Pleasant. He will also continue the manufacture of all the different numbers of the "Woodcock Self-sharpening Plough," manufactured previous to last August by the firm of "Miller and Lippencotts." In addition to the five numbers of the above plough, he offers another improved number, which is styled the No. 6.—This Plough is considered by persons of much experience in ploughing to be decidedly superior to any plough in use. The reason why this plough claims the superiority over other ploughs, is because of its strength, its light draught in ploughing, and for being capable of lasting a greater length of time, the strength of the point, it being successfully secured from breaking or ever becoming loose while ploughing.

Mr. Woodcock has attended a number of Fairs with the above named plough and received the premium over all other ploughs.

The subscriber will also keep on hand in connexion with the above ploughs a general supply of Plough Irons suiting all the different numbers of the plough. He will also furnish an assortment of Ploughs and Irons to all the Agents throughout the counties of Westmoreland, Fayette and Somerset, who have been doing business for the firm of Miller & Lippencotts. He will also keep on hand all sizes of Stoves of fashionable style, Grates of all lengths, Hollowware of all kinds, Saw Mill Castings of different sizes, Machinery Castings for Engines, for Stationary Horse Powers, for Grist Mills, for Gearing of all kinds, and for Thrashing Machines.

Persons wishing to purchase Thrashing Machines can be accommodated by the subscriber, as he has two sets of patterns of the Shallenbarger machine to order ready for immediate use. A machine is on hand at present ready for sale. All kinds of old metal (except what has been burned by a coal fire) will be taken in exchange for Castings, also, country produce, such as Bacon, Flour, Wheat, Corn and Oats, will be taken in exchange at market price.
