SOMERSET, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 25, 1847.

FOR GOVERNOR. GEN. JAMES IRVIN. OF CENTRE COUNTY.

For Canal Commissioner. JOSEPH W. PATTON, OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

Our Loco Foco neighbors in this county appear to have been again seized with one of their periodic attacks of virmons indignation at the enormity of Whig party nominations. As usual, in this case, their honesty is rather limited in its vision and by no means comprehensive in its embrace. They cannot possilly manage to see beyond the limits of Somerset county. In every county adjoining it, nominations are regularly made for every county office from the highest to the lewest, and not a word of objection is made. Why is this? How is it that all this holy horror of theirs evaporates as they approach the county lines and is entirely dissipated by the time it reaches them. It must be that the old salage is true, "the case being altered it diers the case." Those are all Loco Foco counties. "Democracy has "prospered" so far as to be released from all obligation to be consistent or just. Those old antiquated virtues have no comeliness in their eyes, unless they can gain power by them. Then indeed their zear is so strong as to excite admiration.

The objection urged against the system is peculiarly unfortunate for these gentlemen, namely, that two delegates from each township cannot fully represent the people. How then could the convention which nominated Gov. Shunk, represent traly the people of this State, composed as it was, of only one, two, or three from each county, or even one for two or three counties according to population. Or how do these same two from each township in Loco Foco counties manage to represent them fairly and fully? Will these sapient casuists enlighten us.

We are not prepared to say that the present nominating system is absolutely free from fault. It is, perhaps, liable to abuse, perhaps it has been abused. But there can be no doubt that under existing circumstances, it is freer from objection that it the people themselves attend to ly served, and faithfully represented.

But there is one reason which at present is conclusive in its favor, and that is its universal adoption. If the Loco Focos will nominate in their own strong counties, they must expect that the Whigs will in theirs, and if every other county nominates, why should not Somerset? WheneverLoco Focos prove their sincerity by abandoning it in their own strong counties, they may ask us to do it system. At present the Whigs owe it to price. themselves and to the country to organize, and use the power which is justly theirs.

LOCOFOCO CONSISTENCY.

It cannot escape the notice of the most casual observer that the Locofoco party reference to a protective tariff. Pending important elections, when this question is generally most agitated, they always aver that they are tariff men; but no sooner are the elections over than they endeavor ous to the country. They are afraid to encounter public opinion on the subject in times of high excitement, when the peoupon every intervening calm to disseminate their pernicious principles. In 1811, pending the Presidential election, they even went so far as to say that "Polk was a better Tariff man than Henry Clay!" but since Mr. Polk has destroyed the Tariff of 1842, they indulge in lengthy arguments to show that free-trade is better than protection. We do not complain of this, because we always knew that they the safety of property. Therefore held free trade notions; but what we complain of is, that they do not always fight under their own colors, but steal into power of the peace and order of Somerset. under false pretences--professing one thing be less successful in the practice of their tained by all good citizens. deceptive tricks.

ever, by the meagre turn out and the general inattention to the rules of discipline, that these trainings ought to be abolished. The present militia system is of no practical benefit whatever, and besides is attended with heavy expenses. Each commissioned officer must uniform himself & necessarily spend some time in the study of military tacties; the men have to attend trainings two days in the year or pay a fine, musicians must be employed and returns made out by the officers and paid for. All these things are a burden upon the people. Commissioned officers are fare had commenced. allowed, we believe, 3 cents for the name of each individual enrolled, and then collectors must be paid for collecting the fines of absentees, and the Inspector must have his salary.
