

SOMERSET HERALD.

SOMERSET, PA.,
TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1847.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES IN 1848.
GENL. ZACHARY TAYLOR.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.
HON. ANDREW STEWART.

FOR GOVERNOR
General James Irvin,
OF CENTRE COUNTY.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER,
Joseph W. Patton,
OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

VALEDICTORY.

My connexion with this paper has ceased, the establishment has passed into other hands, and I retire from the post which during the last four and a half years I have occupied, to seek in some other pursuit a livelihood and the means of recruiting my declining energies.

In taking leave of my numerous patrons, I cannot forbear thanking them for the very liberal manner in which they have supported the establishment whilst it has been under my control, and for the many evidences which I have received of their regard for me personally.

The Herald will in future be published by my son, SAMUEL J. ROW, who, I am prepared to say, will steadily support the great political principles to which this paper has always been devoted.

In whatever sphere it may be my lot to move hereafter, I shall ever remember with gratitude the many favors I have received from the people of this county whilst engaged in the publication of the "Herald" and the "Republican," and shall cherish through life the friendship which has been extended to me by those with whom I have been in daily intercourse.

By an arrangement entered into with the new proprietor, all dues for subscription and advertising from and after the 18th of last month, will be collected by him; whilst such as have paid in advance will receive a credit on his books for the amount of their respective advancements.
June 1, 1847. J. ROW.

TO THE PUBLIC.

By the preceding notice it will be seen that the Herald has passed into the hands of the undersigned, by whom it will hereafter be published.

In assuming the onerous and responsible duties of editor and publisher of a public journal, a sincere diffidence of my own abilities to discharge those duties, will deter me from making any promises in advance as to the future character of the paper. I may, however, be permitted to say, that whatever can be effected by an earnest and constant endeavor to make it worthy the confidence of its friends, and deserving a continuance of the patronage it has hitherto received, shall be done.

The political complexion of the Herald will remain unchanged. It will continue, as heretofore, to advocate the measures of the great Whig party of the Union, not merely because it is an organ of that party, but from a deep and abiding conviction of the truth of its principles. It will also, of course, continue its opposition to Locofocoism and its measures, sincerely believing them to be hostile to the spirit of our free institutions, and destructive to the interests and prosperity of the country. It shall be my constant aim to render it not only the earnest advocate of the political principles of the Whig party, but also acceptable and useful to the general reader—a family paper as well as a political organ.

The Whig nominees of the March Convention for Governor and Canal Commissioner shall continue to be cordially supported. It will be seen too, that we have placed the name of ZACHARY TAYLOR at the head of our columns as candidate for President of the United States. This we have done in accordance with the general feelings of the country, as well as the specially expressed choice of the Whigs of this county. With his name we have associated that of ANDREW STEWART as Vice President. Gen. T. it is ascertained, we believe, beyond doubt is a Whig, "A CLAY WHIG." The victorious leader of our armies abroad, and the champion of our interests and industry at home, are therefore appropriately placed side by side. These are our own first choice. We hold ourselves ready however, now and at all times, to abide the decision of the will of the people, and to yield our individual preferences to it, when fairly expressed, should they not coincide.

Regarding an efficient and thorough organization of the Whig party in this county as of the first consequence to its success, this paper will advocate the nominees of the party. Measures will always be looked to, rather than men.

With this brief expose of my views and purposes, I enter upon the duties of a public journalist, determined to exert my best efforts to please and be useful, yet mistrusting my ability to succeed to the extent I could desire, or the public might expect. In these efforts I hope to be aided by the friends of the establishment both in the way of subscriptions to the paper and of contributions to its columns.

SAMUEL J. ROW.

FROM SANTA FE AND CALIFORNIA.

FROM THE MISSOURI REPUBLICAN OF MAY 17.
Yesterday several gentlemen arrived, direct from Santa Fe and California, from whom we have gathered the following information:

Lieut. Wm. G. Peck, of the Topographical Corps, left Santa Fe in Company with Messrs. Woods and Sanford, and their party. At the time he left Santa Fe, Col. Price was still there, and all was quiet, but it was believed to be that sullen and stubborn quiet which superior force alone compels. Although the insurrection, which we have heretofore noticed, had been put down, it was the general opinion that they only needed the aid of a competent leader to rise again. The civil government was going on trying the insurgents, Judge Beaubien presiding.

Of the state of affairs at SANTA FE, our correspondent says:

"All is apparently quiet here, but every observing man knows that we are walking daily over a volcano, which is ready to burst upon us if an opportunity offers. As I said in a former letter, in peace or war, this country cannot be retained but by military force. We learn that Col. Doniphan intends to return to Missouri through Texas. If he does so before our troops arrive to relieve him, Chihuahua will fall again into the hands of the Mexicans."

After Lieut. Peck was out some days from Santa Fe, he was joined by Mr. McKnight, from Chihuahua; Lieutenant Theodore Talbot, who went out with Col. Fremont; Lieut. E. Beal, of the United States Navy; C. Toplin, United States Army; Christopher Carson, Robert E. Russell, and others, from California. From those gentlemen we learn that the Court at Toas has condemned a number of the insurgents to be hung, and that eleven had been executed and a large number whipped. Six were hung on the day that Lieut. Talbot passed through Toas.

These executions excited the Mexicans very much, and when Mr. McKnight passed through Vegas they were endeavoring to raise Volunteers for another insurrection. The Alcalde and other influential men were opposing the effort, but with what success remains to be seen.

Lieut. Talbot, Beal, and the other gentlemen from California, left San Diego on the 25th of February last. At the time of their departure Lieut. Col. Fremont was at Ciudad de Angeles, acting as Governor of the Territory, under an appointment from Commodore Stockton. The Commodore had returned on board his ship, and had left that part of the coast. Col. Wm. H. Russell, of this State, was acting as secretary of the Territory.

Gen. Kearney was joined about the 9th of January, at San Diego, by Lieut. Col. Cooke, with the battalion of Mormons under his command. Great praise is bestowed on Colonel Cooke for the condition in which he brought his command in. It is said that all his men were in fine health, with their arms as bright as when they set out on the march—in excellent discipline, and without any serious loss.

Soon after being joined by Col. Cooke General Kearney, with the Mormons and dragoons, proceeded to Monterey, where he was when our informant left. There he had been joined by the United States artillery from New York. We cannot learn from our informant that Colonel Stevenson's command had arrived. Commodore Shubrick had joined Gen. Kearney at Monterey; but we are unable to learn what their operations would be. The question of the right to act as Governor of the Territory was still in dispute between General Kearney and Commodore Stockton. It was understood that General Kearney intended setting out on his return about the 1st of July, but the state of affairs, it was supposed, might delay his departure.

Some of the gentlemen named, we understand, are bearers of despatches to Washington.

Our Correspondent in CALIFORNIA writes from the city of the Angeles on the 26th of January, as follows:

"I am Secretary of State, and am now writing to you in the Government house of California, in a room of which I have my office."

"We found Gen. Kearney here with instructions from the Secretary of War to conquer the country, and institute a civil government; but Com. Stockton, who was also here, maintained that the conquest had been made by him and Col. Fremont and, as an incident to it, the right of forming a civil government belonged to him; and that Gen. Kearney's orders were absolute, because the business for which he had come had been anticipated by others."

"The Commodore therefore appointed Col. Fremont as Governor, and myself as Secretary of State, and ordered the convocation of a Legislative assembly, which is to meet on the 1st day of March."

Mr. Aitken, of Aberdeen, has taken out a patent for the manufacture of iron coaches. His trial omnibus, carrying nineteen persons, besides driver and cad, weighs only eleven cwt.

DIFFERENT ESTIMATE.—Lord Sidmouth when age had given him wisdom, remarked, "I used to consider all the sufferings of war lost in glory; I now consider all his glory lost in his sufferings."

BALTIMORE AND PITTSBURGH.

At the public meeting of citizens, held yesterday afternoon, the attention of the respectable and intelligent audience present was riveted for upwards of an hour by a series of interesting remarks, delivered by the Hon. ANDREW STEWART, of Fayette County, Pa. The theme of the speaker was the contemplated railroad connection of Baltimore and Pittsburgh, and it was presented in a manner that made a deep impression of its importance to Baltimore on the minds of his hearers. We publish the proceedings, together with a hasty and imperfect sketch of the remarks of Mr. Stewart, in another part of this morning's American. It will be seen that a highly respectable committee of citizens has been appointed to visit Pittsburgh, and we learn that they will proceed thither to-morrow morning.—Balt. American of May 26.

A careful estimate makes the number of deaths from starvation in Ireland, to the 25th of February, upwards of 37,000.—Famine is a gaunt and terrible fiend.
