RECIPES FOR THE LADIES.
Mr. Editor:—For the benefit of your female readers, I send you for insertion a list of valuable recipes for making Cake, Pudding, &c. I have tried them repeatedly, and you may rely on their merit.—They are good, in the strictest sense of the term.

Plain Pound Cake.—Cream, 1 pound of butter, and work it well with the hands in one pound of sugar till quite smooth, ten eggs, leaving out three of the yolks, one pound of flour and a small quantity of Jamaica spirits.

Sponge Cake.—One pound white sugar, half a pound flour, nine eggs, essence of lemon, flour-not to be added until the oven is ready, and bake quickly.

Cup Cake.—Five cups flour, three sugar, two of butter and five eggs, one teaspoonful salaratus, cup of cream, and a small quantity of caraway seed.

Fumbles.—Three quarters of a pound of butter, one pound of sugar, five eggs and flour sufficient to roll them out, fried.

Ginger Nuts.—Seven pounds flour, one and three fourths pounds butter, the same of sugar, quart of molasses, four ounces ginger, one nutmeg, small quantity of cinnamon and black pepper, and four ounces of pearlash dissolved in wine or sour cream.

Cookies.—Five cups flour, two of sugar, one and a half of butter, one teacup full of sour cream, one teaspoonful of pearlash and four eggs.

Apple Jelly.—Put ten large apples in two quarts of water, boil them until the water is reduced to one quart, strain the syrup thus left, and to one pint add one pound loaf sugar, then boil it until it becomes a jelly, oil of lemon gives it a good flavor.

Apple Custard.—Grate twelve apples beat five eggs well, one cup sugar, one quart milk, one nutmeg, and cinnamon, baked in shells of pastry, browned before putting in the custard, very good cold.

A few months ago I began my career as housekeeper, and were it not for these I might have exposed my ignorance of that art in which it is woman's province to excel. All I have to say in their behalf is, try them ladies, and judge for yourselves.

A NEW HOUSEKEEPER.

ATTACK BY A BEAR.—On Thursday, the 24th instant, a young man named Keating, belonging to the township of Fitzroy, was attacked by a large she-bear and mutilated in such a dreadful manner by the ferocious beast that it is reported he has since died of his wounds. It appears that the young man met with the bear in the woods, accompanied by her cubs; but we have not learned whether he interfered with the animal in any way or not. When chased by the savage beast he climbed a tree, into which the bear followed him, and inflicted dangerous wounds on the foot, thigh, and abdomen which later was severely torn. At length, from loss of blood, he became faint and fell from the tree to the ground; when the bear also jumped down and walked away with her cubs without renewing the attack. Although it is not very common for the bear to attack man, yet we have known several instances of their having done so, before and after being fired at; when the parties, on such occasions, narrowly escaped with their lives.—Ottawa (Canada) Advocate.

PROBABLE DISCOVERY OF THE HISTORY OF A FORMER RACE.—The lower Sandusky (Ohio) Democrat states that, about two miles from that village, on land known as the "Kerr tract," there is an ancient mound, circular at the base, about 30 feet in diameter, rising oval to a point, which is surmounted by an oaken stump probably originally two feet in diameter, which is almost totally decayed from age. A few days since, some boys dug into the mound; and nearly under the stump, at the depth of three feet, a skeleton was found, much decayed, but portions of it in a fair degree of preservation. Near the head were found two stone hatchets, an arrowhead, a stone pipe, and—far more singular—a lot of plates, apparently singular, which are covered with lines and hieroglyphics of different and beautiful colors. The colors and workmanship betoken a more advanced and entirely different state of arts than has been heretofore discovered in the remains of Indian tribes. Some of these plates were destroyed, but there are fifteen preserved. They are circular, oval in shape, and about seven inches by ten in size. A pipe-bowl, beautifully finished from stone, was also found, the bowl of which is nearly round, rises from a base, on the bottom of which are the figures of "1461."—Measures have been taken under the supervision of some intelligent citizens, farther to explore this singular mound.—There is little doubt that these plates contain the history of some former race that has inhabited this country, and further discoveries will be awaited with impatience.

A WINTER AT SPITZBERGEN.—The interior of Spitzbergen has never been habitable. Last October a party set out from Archangel for this destination. It was composed of fifteen gentlemen, of sound constitutions, accustomed to cold, and excellent huntsmen. They established themselves in the small island of Barents, part of the northern group, where no man yet had resided and which was only frequented by the more valuable of the animals of the country. In a short time, however six of them, in spite of their precautions and hardy constitutions, died from the intense cold. The remaining nine lately arrived at Archangel with much booty, but not till they had experienced the most intense suffering from various causes, the absence of daylight being one of the principal.

Rebellion in California.—The Washington correspondent of the New York "Journal of Commerce" writes that there is a letter in Washington received by the Western mail, with the startling intelligence that the Mormon regiment and Mormon settlers, in California, have risen and rebelled against the American Government, as established there, taken possession of the country, and established an independent government of their own.—There may be some foundation in the rumor. The Mormons, prior to the origin of the Mexican war, had designed to establish an empire in California, and taken some steps towards the enterprise.

"Miss Brown, I have been to learn how to tell fortunes," said a young fellow to a brisk brunette. "Just let me have your hand if you please."—"Ja, Mr. White, how sudden you are! Well go ask my father." Amiable simplicity!

It is reported that a boy in Vermont grows so fast that his clothes are too short before they are put on, and he has lately grown three inches through the crown of his hat.

HOTEL FOR INVALIDS AT PITTSBURGH.

Dr. Speer and Kuhn.

THE object of this establishment is to supply a want greatly felt by respectable travellers on our western highways—by residents, without family, taken sick—and by patients from the surrounding towns and country who resort to this place for relief from surgical and other diseases. Such have often suffered from the want of the various comforts and attentions so necessary and agreeable to the sick, and from careless and unskillful nurses; and been subjected to heavy and unreasonable charges. Invalids will here be provided with constant, faithful and comfortable attendance, and at a rate much below the usual charges.

While the care of both physicians will be extended to every variety of disease, it is intended by Dr. Speer, to give special attention to

ALL SURGICAL DISEASES,

PARTICULARLY TO DISEASES OF THE EYE.

To these branches of his profession he has given a large share of his attention for the last twenty-five years, and he will continue to devote to them the experience acquired by a constant practice during that time.

The Hotel for Invalids is not an experiment. Its establishment is suggested not only as necessary to supply an evident want in this city, in the entire absence of any special provision for the sick, but is warranted also by the success of similar institutions at Cincinnati and New Orleans—the former under the care of Drs. Taliaferro, Marshall and Strader—the latter under that of Dr. Stone.

The building selected for the purpose is situated at the corner of Federal and Robinson streets, in Allegheny city, adjoining the city of Pittsburgh. It is commodious and roomy, and furnished with all accommodations necessary for the sick.

Applications for admission to be made to the subscribers, at their office on Penn street, Pittsburgh, or at the establishment. No contagious diseases will be admitted.

Consumption of the Lungs.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.—A compound Balsamic preparation from Wild Cherry Bark and Tar—the best remedy known to the world for the cure of Coughs, colds, asthma, croup, bleeding of the lungs, whooping cough, bronchitis, influenza, shortness of breath, pain and weakness in the breast or side, liver complaint and first stages of consumption.

We will not assert that this Balsam will cure Consumption in its very worst form, but it has cured many after all other means of relief had been tried in vain. And why not? It seems that WILD CHERRY was designed by Nature to be our PANACEA for the ravaging disease of this cold latitude. Let not the despairing invalid waste his money and lose time, to him so all important, in experimenting with the trashy nostrums of the day, but use at once a medicine that will cure, if a cure be possible—a medicine that science approves, and many years of experience has demonstrated that it always relieves.

"There is no such thing as fail" in the history of this wonderful BALSAM. Evidence the most convincing—evidence that no one could doubt, fully establishes this fact. For the sake of brevity we select the following from thousands.

Isaac Platt Esq., Editor of the Poughkeepsie Eagle, one of the most influential Journals in the state of New York, states, under the authority of his own name, that a young lady, a relative of his, of very delicate constitution was attacked in February, 1842, with severe cold, which immediately produced spitting of blood, cough, fever, and other dangerous and alarming symptoms—Through medical treatment and care she partially recovered during the summer. But on the return of winter she was attacked more violently than at first, she became scarcely able to walk, and was troubled with cough, chills, and fever every day, and appeared to be going rapidly with Consumption; at this time, when there was no sign of improvement, Mr. Platt procured a bottle of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which she took, and it seemingly restored her. She got a second, and before it was half taken she was restored to perfect health, which she has enjoyed to the present time, without the slightest symptoms of her former disease.

The following we have just received from Messrs. Fall, McCracken & Co. agents for the sale of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, at Lancaster, Ohio.

To the Public.—I feel it my duty as an act of kindness to the afflicted, to inform them what Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry has done for my daughter.—There is many a parent who has given up a beloved daughter or son, as a prey to that fell destroyer consumption. They have, as I have done, tried all the most skillful and eminent physicians within their knowledge, and all of the most popular remedies that seemed to hold out some hope for a continuance of life, without getting any relief. To all such who, like me, have been seeking with trembling hope for some remedy of real efficiency, I would say, seek no farther but try at once Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. My daughter Sarah Jane, aged 17 years, whose life for months had been despaired of, and was supposed a sure prey to consumption, has been cured; restored to perfect health; and that too by using five bottles of Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.
