HON. ANDREW STEWART.
Subject to the decision of a National Convention

IMPROVEMENT OF THE YOUGHIOGHENY AND THE TURNPIKE BETWEEN WEST NEWTON AND CUMBERLAND.

Measures are in progress to improve the navigation of the Youghiogheny so as to make it safe for steamboats to ascend as high up as West Newton, in the expectation that the citizens along the turnpike from thence to Cumberland will so improve that road as to secure for it the freight and travel between the above mentioned points. In case, however, that the turnpike is not so improved, then it is contemplated to extend the navigation as far up the river as practicable and unite it by means of a road with the National road, probably at Petersburg. The reader will find in another column a copy of a letter from a gentleman in West Newton, setting forth some of the advantages of the contemplated improvement, and to which we refer in the hope that the suggestion therein will be considered and acted upon.

THE MEETINGS.

The proceedings of the Whig Meetings held at the Court House last week, will be found in to-day's paper. We hardly ever saw a more enthusiastic assemblage. The utmost harmony prevailed—the resolutions were received with applause and adopted unanimously—and the speakers were frequently cheered in a manner that told of the deep interest that is felt by the yeomanry of our county in the approaching election. The party was never more firmly united and bent upon success, than it is at the present time—and we can safely assure our political friends throughout the State that Somerset—the "Banner County"—will do her whole duty at the ensuing election.

THE MARKETS.

Philadelphia.—Flour, Western $5.75 to 5.87. Wheat, prime red 123 a 125a.—Corn, prime yellow 75c.
Baltimore.—Flour $5.50 a $5.75.—Wheat, small sales at 115 a 120. Prime red 106 a 110. Corn, white 72c.
New York.—No change in prices of Flour. Wheat, red 120c. Corn, Western mixed 73 a 74c. Yellow, prime 76.

SHERIFFS PROCLAMATION.—CORRECTION.—The citizens of Jefferson township having elected their Judge and Inspectors of elections, those elected will supersede the persons designated in the Sheriff's Proclamation, as published last week.

Geo. Lippard a prominent Loco-foco of Philadelphia, and somewhat noted for his literary productions, has renounced his allegiance, and says, "I have no wish to be identified any longer with any party that behaves so disgracefully."

Henry F. Schell, Joseph F. Loy, John D. Roddy, and Hezekiah P. Hite, Esquires, were, on motion of E. Scull, Esq., admitted last week to practice as Attorneys in the several courts of this county.

TENNESSEE ELECTION.

The Nashville Whig gives full returns of the late election in that State. The Whigs have one of a majority in the Senate, and none in the House of Representatives.

We have been requested to call the attention of Collectors of taxes to a notice of the County Commissioners, which will be found in our advertising columns.

Large and enthusiastic Whig and Antimasonic County Meeting.

The "Frosty Sons of Thunder" in Motion!!!

Pursuant to a notice published in the Whig papers of Somerset, an unusually large and enthusiastic meeting of the Whigs and Antimasons of the county was held at the Court House on Tuesday evening, 31st August. The meeting was organized by the appointment of the following officers:—

- SAMUEL ELDER, of Addison, Pres't.
- WM. CRITCHFIELD, of Southampton,
- DANIEL BERKEY, of Pains,
- JESSE SLICK, of Shade,
- ISAIAH RHODES, of Turkeyfoot,
- SAMUEL ROGER, of Brothersvalley,
- JOHN CASEBEER, of Somerset,
- ADAM MAURER, of Quemahoning,
- HENRY CHORPENNING, of Somersetbor.
- PETER SULTZ, of Milford,
- Vice Presidents.
- Elijah Wagner, of Elklick,
- Owen Morgan, of Jenner,
- John Knable, of Milford,
- R. R. Marshall, of Somerset bor.
- Secretaries.

After the organization of the meeting, the following committee was appointed to draft resolutions, viz: Samuel W. Pearson, Esq., Samuel Murphy, Esq., Dr. M. Berkey, George A. Clarke, Thomas Hanna, Esq., William Meyers, Josiah Lichtenberger, John Hamer, Esq., and Daniel Bowman.

During the absence of the Committee, Col. J. R. Edie entertained the meeting in a speech replete with sound argument; and after the committee had made their report, excellent speeches were made by Messrs. Pearson, Kimmel, Ogle, Gebhart, and Jost J. Stutzman.

The following resolutions were reported by the committee and adopted by the meeting UNANIMOUSLY:

Resolved, That a large majority of the people of this county, remain as ever true to the glorious principles under whose banner the people of the Union in 1840, by an overwhelming vote, drove the spoilers from office—those only true Democratic principles on which our once sacred Constitution was based, and by the observance and exercise of which that estimable chart of our liberties was preserved inviolate, a more perfect Union was formed, justice established, domestic tranquility ensured, the common defence provided for, the general welfare promoted, and the blessings of liberty secured to the free citizens of our happy republic.

Resolved, That we heartily concur with President Polk in his description of the blessings emanating from our Federal Union, up to the period when he assumed the Executive chair: "Beneath its benign sway peace and prosperity prevail. Freed from the burdens AND MISERIES OF WAR, our trade and intercourse have extended throughout the world. Mind, no longer tasked in devising means to accomplish or resist schemes of ambition, usurpation, or conquest, is devoting itself to man's true interests, and developing his faculties and powers, and the capacity of nature to minister to his enjoyments." But alas! how are our worst fears of the consequences of his elevation more than realized, and his specious promises falsified, when we reflect upon the "WAR OF INVASION," the "WAR OF TERRITORIAL CONQUEST," as the tory Ingersoll openly confessed in Congress, in which our misgoverned country is now engaged.

Resolved, That to the unrighteous annexation of Texas, resisted in every stage of its progress by the patriotic Whig party, is attributable this "miserable war" with all its untold histories of noble lives lost, of crippled limbs, of injured health, of broken, desolate hearts, and of widowed wives and orphan children throughout our once peaceful and happy country.

Resolved, That while we heartily adopt the sentiment of the noble-hearted Clay: "this glorious and beautiful land is our common country—in peace or in war—in weal or in woe—under bad administration or good government"—we will remember to stand by it—"yet—fearless of denunciations from any quarter," we will not cease to denounce those who have wantonly trampled the Constitution under foot, and unjustifiably involved our country in all the "burdens and miseries of war."

Resolved, That the declaration of Polk and the Loco-foco party, that the war was consequent upon the refusal on the part of Mexico to receive a minister from our government (while she agreed to receive a Commissioner) to negotiate in regard to the boundary between Texas and Mexico, and the now shameful, humiliating position of the government in sending a clerk of one of the Departments with the budget of three millions to buy a peace, if it cannot be obtained by begging, is a miserable commentary upon the bravado style of the administration a few short months ago, and shows clearly that the government is in the hands of men possessing neither wisdom or courage, virtue or independence.

Resolved, That the refusal of the last Loco-foco Congress to vote a half a million of dollars to save the lives of starving thousands in Ireland, and the appropriation of three millions to buy or patch up a peace with that old unpeped Santa Anna, taken in connexion with the fact of the old rascal being smuggled into Mexico by Polk, should consign his administration to universal reprobation, and would fully justify us in fastening upon the brows of his followers the motto, to be read of all men, "millions for Santa Anna, not a cent for Ireland."

Resolved, That whilst we rejoice at the success of the American arms in Mexico, and sympathize with the relatives and friends of those of our countrymen who have fallen either in the conflicts or by disease—and whilst we would furnish all necessary means to prosecute the war to a speedy and successful termination—we view it as Mr. Polk's war, commenced by him without authority from Congress, and carried on without vigor or judgment on his part—and shall hold him and his partisans responsible for its cost—for the sacrifice of thousands of lives and the expenditure of millions of money.

Resolved, That Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR has proved himself to be both a brave and prudent commander; that we recognize in him a genuine Republican holding the principles of the Whig party of the nation; and that, as we were among the first to name him for the Presidency, we are gratified at the numerous demonstrations that have been made elsewhere in his favor since, and which leaves but little doubt, if any, of his being rewarded with that high distinction by the spontaneous voice of a free and grateful people.

Resolved, That we as a portion of the Whig party of Pennsylvania, claim for our State the next Whig candidate for Vice President, and take pleasure in uniting with the Whigs of other States who have taken a stand in favor of our immediate Representative, the Hon. ANDREW STEWART, for that elevated and responsible post.

Resolved, That we now repeat the opinion so often expressed by us heretofore, that the Public Lands are the property of, and ought to be divided amongst the States; but if Congress persist in refusing to enact a law for that purpose, that then it is its duty so to reduce the prices of those lands as to enable the poorer classes to become purchasers, and that they should be sold to none except actual settlers.

Resolved, That the thanks of the People of the Commonwealth are due to our active Whig Canal Commissioner, JAMES M. POWERS, and to the efficient Whig State Treasurer, JOHN BAXXS, for the manner in which they have conducted their respective Departments, having not only restored the credit of the State, the one by prudent management of the Public Works and the other by a judicious application of the means thus secured, but actually leaving a surplus of over $60,000 dollars in the Treasury after paying the interest due on the 1st of August. When a Whig State Treasurer and a single Whig in the Canal board have accomplished thus much in less than one year, what may we not reasonably expect from a Whig Governor and a majority of Whig Canal Commissioners in three years?

Resolved, That we most cordially extend to the officers and men of our army and navy engaged in the Mexican War, the meed of praise for their consummate skill, untiring perseverance, and undaunted bravery, as honorable alike to themselves and their country.

Resolved, That whilst Loco-focoism in one section is trying to "Kane" the people into the support of Francis R. Shunk by pretending that its members had abandoned Polk and his Administration, in other sections it is rallying its forces under the old banner of "POLK, DALLAS AND SHUNK;" thus furnishing ample evidence of its determination to carry on the contest of 1847 in a manner not more honorable than they did that of 1844, when by means the most disreputable they secured the vote of Pennsylvania to James K. Polk.

Resolved, That we refer with pride and satisfaction to the fact that the last Legislature, composed of a majority of Whigs, was the most economical that has been in session for many years, having reduced its own expenditures at least twenty thousand dollars below the amount usually expended by the Loco-focos, and transacted the business of their constituents in a much shorter time than it was done in former years.

Resolved, That the present State debt was created and the present State tax imposed by our opponents, the Loco-focos; and that the object of the Whig party in urging the election of a Whig Governor, Canal Commissioner and Legislature, is to introduce economy and retrenchment in the management of the affairs of the Commonwealth, so as to relieve her citizens from at least a portion of the burdens of taxation.

Resolved, That the glorious results of the late elections for Congress, especially in the South where additional slave territory might be supposed to be desirable, changing the Loco-foco majority from 67 to a Whig majority of from 5 to 10, have stamped the Administration, its authors and abettors with unqualified disapprobation and the Whig victory in Tennessee must prove specially mortifying to her unfortunate son in the White House.

Resolved, That we will cordially support by all honorable means the Whig candidates for Governor and Canal Commissioner, Gen. James Irvin and Joseph W. Patton, believing them both to be every way qualified to fill the respective stations for which they are presented, and we hereby give notice to our Whig brethren throughout the State, that now as ever Somerset County will take the right of the Whig column.

Resolved, That the ticket presented to the people of Somerset county for their suffrages at the coming election, is one eminently worthy their enthusiastic support, being composed of men throughout who fill the Jeffersonian requirement of honesty and capacity.

Resolved, That we will go into the contest this fall with a determination to stand by the candidates of the Whig and Antimasonic party, believing that their success is necessary to the carrying out of the principles on which the welfare of the country depends.

After the adoption of the foregoing, it was resolved to hold an adjourned meeting at this place on Thursday evening.

Thursday Evening's Proceedings.

On motion, the following officers were appointed:
JOHN WITT, Esq., President.
JOHN K. MILLER,
JOHN WAGNER,
THOMAS HANNA,
JESSE CRITCHFIELD,
HENRY SCHELL,
CHRISTOPHER BEAM,
Vice Presidents.

Israel Rhoads,
Samuel M. Pile,
Peter Keim,
Jenkins Griffith, Secretaries.

The following preamble and resolutions were then offered by Samuel W. Pearson, Esq., and adopted unanimously.

Whereas, MARTIN VAN BUREN in 1827 gave his vote in Congress for a General Bankrupt Law, recommended such a law for corporations, in his Presidential Message of 1837, and again in 1840 in a letter to citizens of New York, he admitted that he voted for such a law in 1827, acknowledging, to use his own language, that "an occasion of at least equal emergency for such a law exists at this time," the embarrassments caused by the pernicious expansion of the currency and the consequent facilities of credit and rash enterprises, which have unfortunately characterized the last few years "ARE SUCH AS TO RENDER AN INTERFERENCE OF THIS KIND CONDUCTIVE, IF NOT ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY TO THE PUBLIC GOOD. I WOULD THEREFORE HAVE UNHESITATINGLY CO-OPERATED AT THE PASSAGE OF SUCH A LAW, PROPERLY GUARDED AGAINST FRAUDS AND SO FRAMED AS TO SECURE THE CREDITORS THE PRESENT ESTATE OF THEIR DEBTORS, WHEN THE LATTER WERE DISCHARGED FROM THEIR OBLIGATIONS."

And whereas, Col. R. M. JOHNSON in 1827 voted for a Bankrupt law in the Senate, and on the 18th January, 1830, in a letter written from Washington, declared that such a law should be enacted, "its provisions to extend to all classes of every profession, trade, or business, and as to others," that it "SHOULD EMBRACE ALL CLASSES EXISTING AT THE PASSAGE OF THE LAW, AS WELL AS ALL WHICH MAY HAPPEN IN FUTURE."

And whereas, Messrs. BENTON, Senator from Missouri, NORVELL of Michigan, WALKER of Mississippi, STRANOS of North Carolina, NICHOLSON of Tennessee, WALL of New Jersey and many other prominent members of the Loco-foco party, in both houses of Congress equally with, if not more strenuously than the Whigs, urged the passage of such a law; Mr Norvell declaring that "no measure, no combination of measures that we can adopt, would afford one tenth part of the relief to the country which will be secured to it by the passage of a uniform law of Bankruptcy."

And whereas, The people of Pennsylvania, New York, Michigan, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Tennessee, Mississippi and Alabama, by thousands of petitions, and Maine and Michigan by resolutions of the Legislature, prayed for the passage of a Bankrupt law during the session of 1839-'40.

And whereas, The passage of such a law at that session was postponed until the next session, in accordance with the urgent efforts of Senator Benton, who declared that "Five hundred thousand voters demanding the passage of a law on the eve of an election, must have an influence on the hopes and fears of the lawgiver, as well as on his judgment and conscience."

And whereas, When the Whig Congress of 1841 assembled, and the votes of 500,000 unfortunate petitioners were no longer needed by the Loco-focos, when it was no longer necessary or profitable for them to play the heartless demagogue, the passage of a Bankrupt law devolved upon the Whigs and a few of the honorable-independent Locos, among whom was Walker, now Polk's Secretary of the Treasury, who said on the 25, July 1841, "If this law was not passed, the thousands of unfortunate debtors in this country, would either have to wear the chains of the slave, or become exiles from their Native Land."

And whereas, During both the Sessions of Congress at which the Bankrupt Law was passed and repealed, only 2,133 petitioners asked for its repeal, 1,269 for a modification, 4,313 for a modification or repeal, 447 for a postponement, while 42,169 remonstrated against a repeal.

And whereas, It is manifest from the whole history of the passage of the Bankrupt law of 1841, that it was not a party question at all, but was supported by prominent men of both parties.

Therefore Resolved, That the infamous conduct of the Loco-focos in charging upon the Whigs the sole authorship of the Bankrupt Law, and especially in calling Gen. Irvin its father, is unequalled in its foul mendacity and base hypocrisy by any or all the reckless charges ever made by a prostituted press and party against political opponents in this or any other country.

Resolved, That the submission of the Whigs to the will of the people as manifested since the repeal of the Bankrupt Law, their showing no disposition to renege a law against their wishes, presents a striking contrast to the utter disregard exhibited by the Loco-focos to the People's will relative to the Sub-Treasury law, passing it as they did clearly and boastfully against the protestations of both Democrats and Whigs, who predicted the worst effects from its adoption.

ty are irreconcilably opposed to the Annexation of any more Slave Territory to the United States.

Ordered, that the whole proceedings be published in the "Somerset Herald," and all other papers throughout the State favorable to the Whig cause.

The Suspension Bridge, projected over Niagara river, just below the Falls, seems certain of success.
