Shank's Claims.

It is said that Governor Shunk rests his claims for re-election upon the following important points, viz:

1. That he has been in office upwards of thirty years, and knows better what is good for the people, than they do them-

2. That though he has drawn upwards of SEVENTY THOUSAND DOL-LARS from the Treasury, he is still "a

From the Pennsylvania Telegraph. "Desperate cases require desperate remedies," is a rule in medical science that the Locofocos have introduced into their political action. In order to keep up the hopes of their friends over the Commonwealth, and deceive again the honest portion of their party, they have made the most violent assaults upon Gen. Irvin in Centre county, whose unsullied character, great liberality and well known have excited their vindicative and malignant hostility. The Bellefont Whig in its remarks upon the course of the Locofoco press says:

Correspondence of the Patria.

TAMPICO, AUGUST 16, 1847. My Friends: Our intelligence from the capital reaches to the beginning of the present month, of which the following is a summary:

The Council of Generals, convoked by Santa Anna, were of opinion that General Scott should be attacked in his positions; but Santa Anna said that it would be better to dispatch a division composed of ten thousand men, to take post between Perote and Puebla, for the purpose of intercepting the trains and convoys that were marching toward the latter place, and thus to get possession of the resources which the Americans expected; and, further, he advised that another division of equal strength (ten thousand men) take up a position between Puebla and the city of Mexico, the remainder of their forces to remain and cover the capital .-Santa Anna's plan was adopted. At the present moment (the beginning of August) there is in the city of Mexico a force of 35,000 men, and as that under Gen. Scott does not exceed 12,000 of whom a certain number are invalids through ill health, it is improbable from the rumors which are in circulation, that the latter will quit Puebla, until he has received considerable reinforcements .-"This,,' says the Patria's correspondent, popularity, the sure presages of success, | "is the current belief in the capital, although here it is announced that General Scott took up his line of march on the 7th instant."

Capt. Wells had five successive engagements with the enemy before the final affair at the Bridge. In this the Mexicans had one piece of artillery engaged, from which they fired grape, and were thus able to make good their stand against the command of Capt. Wells.
