Cheering Intelligence!

Our intelligence from the northern counties is of the most cheering character. The iron region is said to be in a tremendous state of "commotion." Irvin and Patton are all the go, and Shunk and Longstreth are hardly thought of. It will be remembered that the northern counties heretofore generally defeated the Whig candidates, but the people in that region are much engaged in the coal and iron business, and having been, in common with their fellow citizens throughout the State, cheated by the Locofoeo leaders in 1844, are determined to go for Polk and Shunk no longer. They now say, if the Whig counties will do their duty, they of the north will this year wheel into the Whig line and give an overwhelming vote for Irvin and Patton. We can vouch for the Whigs of Somerset, that they will do their duty.

Latest from Mexico.

We have later intelligence from the city of Mexico. It is stated that propositions for peace were rejected, and that hostilities had re-commenced on the 8th September. A battle was fought in which the Mexicans were badly used up. Our troops had possession of the principal streets and had driven the Mexican forces toward the Plaza. Gen. Worth was badly, though not mortally wounded. Herrera, the Governor had recommended to the citizens—men, women and children—to throw stones from the roofs of the houses upon the Americans. Highly important intelligence may therefore be expected from Mexico by the next arrival.

Friends of the Tariff—friends of Home Industry—friends of Economy and Retrenchment and Reform in the administration of public affairs—friends of the gallant TAYLOR, who is fighting the battles of our country—if you wish to rescue Pennsylvania from the grasp of Locofoecism and secure her vote next year for old Rough and Ready, then employ the few days that intervene between this and the election in mustering your forces for the conflict! The Locos will be out, every man. Go ye and do likewise.

There are a great many persons who get no newspaper, and may therefore not be aware of the importance of attending the election next Tuesday. Every Whig who receives this paper should consider himself a Committee of one, and feel it his duty to call upon his neighbors and bring them out to the election. Whigs! you have no time to lose!

An American soldier is known by the fact that he fights in the American army, and a Mexican by his fighting on the Mexican side. The same rule holds good in politics. Those who are with the Locos are necessarily against the Whigs. Where do we find Isaac Friedline and Daniel Flick? Go, seek them in the Locofoeo camp; they are not in the Whig ranks.

PAINT.—Paint township always occupies the front when the election returns from the several districts are sent in. We understand there is but one locofoeo left in it, and he means not to vote until next year. There is much conjecturing as to which of the other townships will be next best to Paint this year, and amongst some three or four it will probably be a close race.

SOMERSET against BERKS.

Since the Muhlenberg men in Berks have come out for Irvin, it is thought by some that Irvin's majority in Somerset will balance Shunk's in "Old Berks." All we have to say on the subject is, that if it should turn out so, our mountain boys will be entitled to the "biggest sort of a jollification."

This is the last number we intend to issue before the election, but will be governed by circumstances. Should we discover that the Locos are playing off some new tricks in the course of the week, our readers may expect to be apprized of the fact in due time.

A man who professes to be a Whig and colludes with the Locofoeos to defeat the Whig ticket, is a thousand times worse than a Locofoeo; for the latter can claim the credit of being honest, but the former can not.

Grand Rally!!!!

WHIGS & ANTIMASONS TO YOUR POSTS!!!

Next Tuesday is the day of the General Election, when it is expected that every Whig and Antimason in the county will turn out and cast his vote for the Whig Ticket, from Governor down to Poor House Director.

Give one day to your principles and your country! Let neither rain, snow, hail or storm prevent you from attending the election. Be true to your cause and your candidates.

Locofoecism is bent upon prostrating the Whig and Antimasonic party in Somerset county. To this end the Locofoeo leaders have coaxed out several volunteer candidates, by which means they expect to divide and distract the Whigs and Antimasons and defeat the regular ticket.

We therefore warn the Whig and Antimasonic voters to be on their guard. Every effort will be made at the election houses to get you to vote some of the volunteer tickets. You will be coaxed, enjoled, and bantered and bullied. But we know you too well as to suppose that you could be led astray by men who each year for many years past have abused and vilified you and your candidates. You remember how they vilified Charles Ogle, Joseph Ritner, Gen. Harrison, Gen. Markle and Henry Clay, and how bitterly they denounced you for supporting those patriots. We have therefore no fears that you will now become the tools of those very Locofoeos and help them to break down your own party; but we deem it our duty to warn you against their tricks.

Somerset County.

Every Whig and Antimason ought to feel proud of this county. Such is the reputation which the Whigs and Antimasons of Somerset have acquired by their large majorities, that the eyes of the whole people of the State are each year anxiously directed towards them, and every body wants to hear first from Somerset. We have already numerous calls for the returns of next Tuesday's election, and we have promised our friends throughout the State to give them a good account of the doings of the Whigs and Antimasons on that day, and hope we shall have the pleasure of fulfilling that promise.

But a few days remain now till the election, and we would embrace this last opportunity that presents itself to address the Whig and Antimasonic voters prior to that day, and say unto them: Be up and doing! The time for discussion is past; that for action has arrived. Work now! Work from this day on! Arouse your neighbors! Tell them that the Locos are trying to "come it over" them. Stir them up to activity. Bring them out early on the day of election. Furnish them with tickets. See to it that they are neither deceived nor cheated by the Locofoeo leaders in your district. Pull all together—and the result will be another glorious victory!

The Locofoeo Leaders.

One would have supposed that the rebuke which the Locofoeo leaders received from the Whigs of Somerset county in 1844, should have been sufficient to teach them a lesson of honesty and fair dealing for the future; but it seems that they have practised trickery, falsehood and deception so long and so often, that they cannot find it in their natures to abandon them, and would rather suffer defeat than to deal with honorable weapons. Notwithstanding the LIES and SLANDERS which they then heaped upon Henry Clay, the people of this county gave him a majority of more than sixteen hundred; and notwithstanding the same men are trying this year to defeat the Whig candidates by similar means, the people will again roll up a majority of "sixteen hundred and upward rising." Mark it!

"Give them Jessie!"

'Tis said the Locofoeo leaders in this county are boasting how they are going to defeat the Whigs, because they think the Whig party is napping. Not so fast boys! The Whigs understand perfectly well what it is that you're about, and will see you to your journey's end! The Whigs know that you are actively engaged in drilling your forces and that you will have every voter of your party at the election—and knowing this, they are arousing and preparing to give you "jessie." There will be other folks at the election, besides yourselves, Messrs. Locos!

LOOK OUT! LOOK OUT!

It is understood that the Locofoeo leaders at Harrisburgh and elsewhere have issued handbills and circulars containing all sorts of LIES against the Whig candidates, and it is to be expected that they will be distributed through this county as well as in other places. Be on the look-out, Whigs!

Examine well your tickets, for the Locofoeo leaders are not to be trusted.

Remember that the Whigs last year elected their Canal Commissioner by 9,000 votes, and that the revenue on the Public Works has been increased half a million dollars since his election. Elect Patton, and we shall soon be freed from State Tax.

Poke it at them! Poke it at the Locofoeos that their party have created a State debt in Pennsylvania of forty millions, and a national war debt of a hundred millions.

The Shunk men and the old friends of Muhlenberg had a blow-up at Harrisburgh the other week. The Muhlenberg men declared for Irvin and Patton. The work goes bravely on!

Will our friends in the several election districts have the goodness to send in the returns on Wednesday? It is very desirable they should do so.

Every Whig who is true to his principles will vote the whole Whig ticket. No scratching of names or changing of tickets.

Loco Foco Consistency!!!

Honest Frank Shunk vetoing little corporations, such as the Little Railroad, Iron and Coal, Woolen and Cotton manufacturing companies, because they are "oppressive monopolies" and of "Anti-Democratic tendency" and then signing a Bill as he did on the day of 1846, for the incorporation of the Pennsylvania Rail Road Company, being the biggest monster of the kind that ever threatened to engulf the liberties of this time-honored Commonwealth!!! Wonder if old Honesty had 'n't the nightmare for a month afterwards.

We wonder with our quizzical friend, whether the people of Somerset, Bedford, Franklin, Fayette, Greene and Washington will not remember old Shunk and his mammoth Rail Road Company, when they go to the polls on the 2nd Tuesday in October next. We are astonished that more notice has not been taken of this matter in the southern counties and in fact in all the counties through which this monster does not pass, for be assured while it may be beneficial to those counties through which it is constructed and to the rich stockholders, yet it will operate as blight and mildew upon the balance of the State, not only because it forbids forever the construction of a like work in those parts of the State which have hitherto been deprived of this forbidden fruit, a competitor of our Public works (using, as it intends doing, a portion of them for a time), that the revenue from them will be utterly swept away, and then the money to pay the State debt will have to be levied from the honest hard working people of the State, who may cart their produce, &c. to a market as best they can.

Isaac Friedline & Daniel Flick,

Who is Isaac Friedline that is out in the Loco Foco paper for the Assembly? said an honest old farmer to me the other day. I answered that he was a merchant of Lavansville, professedly a Whig, is Coroner of the County and has 2 years to serve. Very well, said he, just let him stay at home.

Who is Daniel Flick, that has announced himself also in the Locofoeo paper as a candidate for Treasurer? said another Whig to me. He is a professedly Whig merchant of Somerset borough, in partnership with John Neff, Esq., one of the bitterest Locos in the county, in the Tanning business, &c. Ah! yes, said the old man, I see all about it, Neff and Flick, being in the Mercantile and Tanning business, want to start a kind of bank with the aid of the Treasury, under the name, I suppose, of the Merchants' and Tanners' Bank, John Neff, President, and Daniel Flick, Cashier. Cute fellows! but they can't come it. I, and so do all my neighbors, go for the Ticket, the whole Ticket, and nothing but the Ticket. And so I think, Mr. Editor, the whole Anti-Masonic Whig party will go. They resolved at last May Court to have a ticket formed—the Convention on the 5th of July did frame a ticket of good, honest and capable men. Two large meetings of the people at August Court ratified the nominations made and pledged their unanimous support to the ticket. Will they forfeit their pledges? Will they support disorganizers for the benefit of Locofoeos? No, I answer, and no will the "frosty sons of thunder" answer at the ballot box on next Tuesday. C.
