Piles Specific. CERTAIN AND RADICAL CURE:

Whether Internal, External, Bleeding or Blind: Has made radical cures in every case of the hove mentioned complaints, as can be proved by personal reference, and several thousand certificates from all parts of the country. The specific is an internal remedy, has a gentle action on the bowels, is pleasant to take, and perfectly harmless in the most delicate cases, male or female. Females before and after confinement are often troubled with constipation of the bowels, or costiveness, as well as the piles. In all such cases the Specific can be taken with perfect safety, and is a certain remedy.

PURGATIVES NOT NECESSARY, So severe in their effects, and so liable to injur when used (being in most cuses the cause of piles when taken during fever and ague and many other diseases.) are thus done away, with, as COSTIVENESS is easily removed by using this medicine, and the bowels restored to a vigorous and healthy action without leaving any perceptible effect on the system.

PILES OF SEVEN YEAR'S STANDING CURED DEAR DOCTOR:- I have been a perfect victim to the complaint called Piles, contracted in the West Indies in 1838, and during a term of seven years ha e suffered beyond anything that could be conceived of-loss of appetite, food tasteless, want of rest, burning pain, weakness in the kid neys, and a total want of strength. So decided ly opposed to anything bearing a resemblance to quackery, that I have abstained from any inward or outward application. From the recommendation of our mutual friend Potter, No. 4 Hanover st., I was induced to give your medicine a full trial, and to those who may be similarly afflicted I give you leave to show this, with my tirely cured of one of the most confirmed cases of Piles that any poor creature was troubled with. Make whatever use you think proper of this testimental of your invaluable medicine, designated by you as Dr. Ingoldsby's Piles Specific, and accept of my best assurances for your in the county, but also to seil the Unwelcome News.

At length we have news from General Scorr's army-not such, we grieve to say, as had been hoped for after the defeat of Santa Anna on the 20th of August, but rather such as, from the long interval of silence, the public had begun to fear; namely, the failure of negotiations and the renewal of hostilities, with a great deal of consequent and fresh bloodshed. We give the accounts as they have reached us from Pensacola via Mobile; they are confused and unsatisfactory in their details, but seem conclusive as to the above-stated important facts. It must be apparent now to the blindest worshipper of Executive infallibility that this once peaceful, happy, and prosperous country is "embarked on a sea of troubles," a sea which at present offers no gleam of sunshine, no friendly haven, and no prospect but gloom and disaster. How or when the sad voyage is to end the wisest cannot tell.

The substance of the news, as stated by the correspondent of the Mobile Register, is: That Mr. Trist proposed that no further indemnity of our citizens should be demanded from the Mexican Government; agreed to. That our citizens should be allowed the privilege of establishing two factories in California for a given period: agreed to. That the Rio Grande should be the line; not agreed But the Mexican commissioners proposed the Neuces, to which Mr. Trist replied that he had no authority for making that the line, and required forty days to hear from his government upon the subject. PUEBLA, SEPTEMBER 11, 1847. Letters have arrived here from Atlixio, stating that an express arrived there on his way to Oajaca, sent by Gen. Leon, and that the said express had brought letters from Mexico dated 9th instant. These letters state that the propositions made by Mr. Trist were rejected, er, at least, one portion of them; that hostilities had recommenced on the 8th in the afternoon; that a baule had been fought on that evening by a few hundred men of Scott's army against four of the picked regiments of the Mexican army- made to the ultimatum. the 11th regiment of the line, the 3d and 4th regiments of light infantry, and one regiment of the National Guards, all commanded by Gen.
