SOMERSET, PA., TUESBAY, OCTOBER 26, 1847.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNI-TED STATES IN 1848. GEN'L. ZACHARY TAYLOR

FOR VIGE PRESIDENT, HON. ANDREW STEWART. Subject to the decision of a National Concention

Organize !! Organize !!!

The result of the recent election has demonstrated the necessity of Whig organization. The want of it has defeated the Whig party more than once-and in the present instance it is so palpable that it cannot escape the notice of any. Nothing but our organization, partial though it was, enabled us in Somerset county to do as well as we did-and had we been fully organized, our triumph would have been still greater. The defeat of our candidates for Governor and Canal Commissioner ought not for a moment induce us to relax our efforts in the cause in which we are engaged, but be a stimulus to continued and uninterrupted exertions .-Let us therefore organize anew and prepare in time for the ensuing political contest. Let it be understood, once for all, that the Whigs and Antimasons of Somerset will adhere to their principles and their organization, and that any who may choose to oppose either hereafter, will be treated as traitors and deserters and receive neither "aid" nor "comfort" from the party.

NEXT PRESIDENCY.

We should like to see the public press in Pennsylvania now show its Presidential colors. It is all-important that it be done. The People desire to know where to find parties on this question. We have long since nailed our flag to the mast-head; and there we are resolved, it shall float till the next Presidential election, unless Gen. Taylor should decline being a candidate. We desire to see the siness in a public controversy; and when office. country press speak out on this question and settle it once. By doing so, the necessity of holding a National Convention will most probably be avoided; for if we have not mistaken public sentiment, Gen. TAYLOR is already the chosen candidate of the People, and a Convention can make him neither more nor less. Still, we are not wedded to any man; and if some other good Whig be taken up in stead of Gen. Taylor, we shall give him a cordial

WHAT THEY SAY.

We said before the election, if the Locofocos would carry Pennsylvania their leaders would proclaim it as a decision of this State in favor of Polk's measures .-In this we were not mistaken; for the Locoloco presses have already raised the shout that the People had decided for Polk. None will be more rejoiced at this news than Polk's particular friend, Santa Anna, whom he "passed" into Mexico-thereby furnishing her with a General to lead her forces against our gallant decided. The Locofocos in the late contest, raised false issues, as they always do, to mislead the voters; and having succeeded in this, they construe the result into whatever suits them. We do not believe that there are any persons, or if any, they are but few, besides Polk's Locoloco leaders that approve of his furnishing the Mexicans with a skilful General in the person of Santa Anna.

FOR THE HERALD.

The editor of the Visitor has paid us a compliment in his conjectures about the author, of our article in the last Herald, which is not the less appreciated that it was unintentionally bestowed, and he will please to consider himself as having received all the thanks which he feels due to him for it.

There is but little in his notice of it which requires attention from us. Those Whigs of whose feelings this Loco Foco is so careful, can judge of the amount of indignation they ought to feel, at the "abuse" they have received in our article. To be called a "very respectable man," may be considered a very serious charge by this "fellow," but everybody does not. It is an imputation upon character to which perhaps he has not been accustomed in his own case, and therefore does

FOR THE HERALD. MR. EDITOR :- Some "man of wit and honor about town" has taken such special notice of me in the last Visitor, that it would be mere affectation in me to pretend to misunderstand, and scarcely acterized as the article is by the classical elegance of its style, the purity of its diction and the propriety of its language, I shall not hope to do it in adequate terms. Nathless, I shall try in my own way to make him sensible that he is understood, and that with all the pains his modesty has been at to conceal him by thrusting him without a label into the editorial column, it has not been entirely successful.

This taking up of an individual on suspicion, and making him defendant in a case, where the real culprit is not known resembles somewhat the conduct of a not over honest Attorney for the Commonwealth, who has made up his mind not to lose his fee at any rate, when he chooses to think an offence has been committed. And if I do not plead guilty to the charges preferred against me, there is a probability that I shall be acquitted by the "quashing of the indictment" on account the Constitution. of some "informality" or "defect," without any reference to the question of my ces under which only can I be induced to guilt or mnocence. Such things do happen sometimes in the hands of Attorneys, no matter how "shrewd and talented" they hardly add that I cannot in any case permay be-in their own estimation.

"went" to the trouble to prove them. To those however, if such there be, who feel aggrieved by the article of "B." or by any other which has appeared in the Herald during the last three months of the late campaign, I have a very different answer to make. And if Mr. Flick or Mr. Friedline-who I am proud to say are both personal friends-or if any other gentleman, will take the trouble to call upon me I will give such an answer as shall be perfectly satisfactory to him, in so far as I am concerned. I do not feel myself called upon to do so by the demand of anonymous impertinence. It may be however that the article was written during the mental aberration consequent upon an attack of the "fits" into which he was evidently thrown by the well timed article of "B." If so, I shall be happy to make the necessary allowancountrymen. But the people have not so | ces. The author having once been "great on 'Fils'" himself, will understand me when I say, that I do not care a "bodkin"

Seriously. If the writer of the article alluded to, wishes to draw me into a newspaper controversy, he will be disappointed. I have quite as little fancy for this, as I have for a street brawl. I have no ambition to enter the lists with him as an amateur professor of Billingsgate. I covet not the laurels of such a contest. It is not my forte "Palmam ferat, qui meruit." I shall therefore take no notice of anything which in future may come from the same source. The impunity may possibly encourage other and ruder attacks.

As to the main questions at issue I have said nothing, nor shall I. "B" is fully able to attend to that, and will doubtless do so if necessary. I have confined myself entirely to personal matters, and that only because they were so. And I do not know that I should have done even thus much at present, were it not that it night before last, to assassinate me in my has become the fashion of late, with cer- bed. It is my great desire to return at the close of this war to the discharge of those professional duties and to the enjoyment of those domestic ?pursuits from which I was called at its commencement, and Tor which my tastes and ducation best fit me.

I deem it but due to candor to state, at the same time, that if I were called to the Presidential chair by the general voice of the people without regard to their political differences, I should deem it my duty to accept the office. But while I freely attach myself to the administrative policy of our early Presidents, I desire it to be understood that I cannot submit, even in thus accepting it, to the exaction of any other pledge as to the course I should pursue than that of discharging its functions to the best of my ability, and strictly in accordance with the requirements of

The party in Congress endeavored to disgrace him for the terms of his capitulation at Monterey, and since then have robbed him of his troops, and kept him caged like a prisoner among the mountain fatnesses of Mexico. The last and meanest attack came from Mr. Dallas at Pittsburgh, who wished to make him responsible for marching our troops from Corpus Christi to the Rio Grande, or for the commencement of the war. Never was a charge more unfounded, and we are sorry to add, that no Government ever treated its brave commanders with less confidence and respect than the Administration have treated both General Taylor and General Scott .- Pitts.
