

Some words of peace and war. A statement by Mr. Horace Greeley. In this week's Independent Mr. Horace Greeley gives under his own name the following statement regarding the recent peace negotiations.

SPRIT OF THE NEW YORK PRESS.

Leading Editorials from the New York Papers This Morning.

A VIRTUE NEEDED IN AMERICA.

From the Times are the most wonderful and extraordinary people in the world. We are fearful in food, in clothing, and in extra work on every secular day of the week, and waste a double amount on Sundays. Men waste shamefully, women shockingly; boys and girls, too, are permitted to waste wondrously.

Among the "Times" is a beautiful article on the subject of the "virtue" of the French. The French are not a quarrelsome people, but they are a people who are not afraid to fight.

It is not, however, in the matter of fighting that the French are distinguished from other nations. It is in the matter of the "virtue" of the French that they are distinguished.

NEWS JOTTINGS. In all parts of the State of Maine his plentiful and the quality excellent.

A soldier of the 20th Army Corps, writing from Chattanooga, Tenn., says that the clamor of the army now is "Tobacco and Atlanta."

There are now nineteen and a half thousand in the barracks at Rock Island, Ill., and fifteen thousand and seventy-seven at Camp Douglas, Chicago.

Jefferson Davis said to me last Sunday, and with all the rest of the world, that the war was not a war of the people, but a war of the Government.

Mr. Davis, I believe, has not yet acknowledged the right of the black countrymen to "self-governance" or "independence."

Yet, I doubtless, is fighting for "independence" for freedom to those chains on half the people of the State, and to rogn as inferior over the remainder.

Some time since, it was announced by telegraph from Halifax that Messrs. C. C. Clay, of Alabama, Jacob Thompson, of Mississippi, and others, had been elected to the Senate.

Among the mercantile, mechanic, agricultural, and other classes, the Government is not only not to be feared, but to be feared.

The copperhead oracles of our city this modestly propounded: "We are not in the country, we are in the country."

It is not, however, in the matter of fighting that the French are distinguished from other nations. It is in the matter of the "virtue" of the French that they are distinguished.
