Gen. Grant's Army.

STARTLING REPORT AT BALTIMORE.

The Great Battle Commenced.

HEAVY FIGHTING YESTERDAY.

BALTIMORE, September 24.—We have rumors by the Norfolk boat to-day, which say that General Grant was fighting heavily yesterday, and was gaining a great success over the Rebels.

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, September 22, P. M.—The fighting between the Rebel front of the right of the 3d Division, 24 Corps, still continues, and casualties continue daily.

Today a private of the 93d New York was killed, being shot through the head. A sergeant of the 57th Pennsylvania lost a leg this morning.

Yesterday a new recruit, only here three days, and belonging to the 20th Massachusetts, was killed in front of the 9th Corps, and his pocket rifle of $150.

Today the batteries of the 3d Division, 24 Corps, were ordered to open fire on a farm which the Rebel sharpshooters have named our men for some time.

OUR CAVALRY IN PURSUIT.

WASHINGTON, September 24, 10 A. M.—Major-General Dix, New York.—The following special despatch has just been received from General Sheridan, detailing some of the particulars of the battle at Fisher's Hill:

HEADQUARTERS MIDDLE MILITARY DIVISION, WOODSTOCK, VIRGINIA, September 23, 8 A. M.—Lieutenant-General U. S. Grant, City Point.—I cannot say yet give any definite account of the results of the battle of yesterday.

Our loss will be light. General Crook struck the left flank of the enemy, doubled it up, advancing along their line.

Wm. B. Wane, of this city, sworn—Known defendant two years; often came to our store and bought goods; lately had stamps which he offered in trade for the goods.

He then said he had some stamps which he offered in trade for the goods. He then said he had some stamps which he offered in trade for the goods.
