EXTRACTS FROM REBEL PAPERS.

The News-Review of Washington, N. C. writes: We understand that our troops evacuated the town of Washington on Wednesday last, and it was occupied by the enemy previous to the same day. No report is made of any other direction in which the army moved, and it is probable that the army is now in the vicinity of the Potomac River to watch the enemy's movements.

FROM THE VALLEY.

General EARLY'S army is still on the march. It is reported that the army is now in the vicinity of the Potomac River to watch the enemy's movements. The army is now in the vicinity of the Potomac River to watch the enemy's movements.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 18.—A fire in the business part of the city today destroyed property valued at $50,000. The fire was caused by a gas stove in a restaurant.

FROM PORT ROYAL, S. C.

NEW YORK, November 18.—The steamer "Port Royal" from Port Royal on the 15th, has arrived. It brought with it 1000 Rebel prisoners, to be exchanged at Savannah, near Hilton Head on the 15th, at the rate of four and five daily.

FROM KINGSTON, JAMAICA.

NEW YORK, November 18.—The steamer "Kingston" from Kingston, Jamaica, on the 15th, arrived at this port today. It brought with it 1000 Rebel prisoners, to be exchanged at Savannah, near Hilton Head on the 15th, at the rate of four and five daily.
