of 150,000 captured nearly one hundred thousand... Sherman's army... The movement towards Selma is taken by the Rebel papers as indicative of an attack upon Mobile, and the other a general march of Mobile and its defenses... Mobile is situated on the right bank of the river of that name, about three miles from the junction of the Alabama and Tombigbee, and near the confluence of the river and the bay... The capture of the city is a matter of great importance, as it would give Sherman a base of operations for his march towards the coast... of the Western and Atlantic railroad has already begun; by to-morrow morning the Atlanta will probably be in ruins, and the command of the military division of the Mississippi will be in his hands... The course of General Sherman... It is not reasonable to suppose that General Sherman would, after leaving Atlanta, move directly eastward to Augusta over the Georgia railroad leaving on his march, a formidable avenue of communication as the Grand Southern trunk, above described... The capture of the city is a matter of great importance, as it would give Sherman a base of operations for his march towards the coast...

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Office of the Federal Reserve, 1st St. N. W. The Stock Market this morning recovered from the depression of the last few days, and as noon trading was selling at 68 in this market and in New York at 67 1/2. Gold rose to 22 1/2, which inspired the bulls, who led up the general list several per cent... The Gold Market is excited this morning, and prices have advanced about 5 1/2 per cent since last evening... The Money Market continues very quiet; loans on call are freely offered at 6 per cent per annum; prime paper is scarce and in demand at 7 1/2 per cent.
